Four Pillars

Staying true to our principles of "Team, Effort, Tradition." the WRCF works to deliver our mission through education, community outreach and health and wellness initiatives, to elementary through high-school-age students in the region.

START SMART

Ensure students are reading at or above grade level before they complete elementary school

LIVE WELL

Help all kids understand how to live well by eating right and living a healthy lifestyle

FINISH STRONG

Provide resources, opportunities and guidance so all kids have a game plan for life after high school

LEVEL THE PLAYING FIELD

Provide the resources and support so all young people have the same opportunities to be successful

Redskins Read

Redskins Read uses the excitement and community influence of Redskins players to promote literacy through the production and distribution of activity books, player reading appearances, a children's book drive and literacy contests.

"The importance of literacy is life: You can't go through life if you can't read. Being literate is essential just to be a success in life."

JOSH WILSON

Redskins Cornerback

Play 60

The Play 60 campaign is a health and fitness initiative focused on increasing the wellness of young fans by encouraging them to be active for 60 minutes a day. The Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation brings players, alumni and youth together for opportunities to be physically active through hosting our annual Play 60 Mini-Combine, Play 60 Super School Visit, Hometown Huddle and Live Positively Flag Football Clinic.

4th & Life

Coca-Cola and the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation annually host this popular forum for high-school football players. The event provides a forum for the student-athletes to get up close and personal with their on-field heroes. Redskins players speaking at the forums represent a broad range of experience and backgrounds that allow them to connect with the student-athletes and share important information about hard work and education.

The Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation's Coaches in the Classroom program, with support from Athlife Mentoring, places Academic Advisors for Athletics at area high schools. The advisors help student-athletes create an academic game plan and prepare them to go on to college, while promoting the ideals of positive youth development through sport.

Coaches in the Classroom

Harvest Feast

Since 2003, the Redskins staff joins with players and their families to help make the holidays a bit brighter for our fans. As a team, the Washington Redskins ownership, players, alumni and Foundation partners, distributes turkeys and packaged groceries to underserved families in the Prince George's County, Maryland. This annual event is made possible through the generous support of our corporate and non-profit partners.

Covered for the Holidays

Early in December, Macy's creates a winter wonderland to provide the ultimate coat-shopping experience for hundreds of deserving children. With our Redskins players, cheerleaders and the wives of the coaches and players serving as personal shoppers, each child selects a brand new winter coat. This annual event is made even more special for our participants, with each receiving a hat, scarf and gloves, a plush toy, balloon art and a chance to write a letter to Santa.

2013

DANIEL M. SNYDER

REDSKINS OWNER

Daniel M. Snyder's life has been consumed by an enduring love for the Washington Redskins.

Growing up in the D.C. area, his youth and young adulthood were shaped and inspired by his devotion to the team. Now in his second decade as owner, Snyder has put his passion into action. He has consistently led the franchise to new prominence in the community, the business world, and the National Football League. Under his leadership, the team has raised millions of dollars for charities and maintained its place in the top tier of the world's most valuable sports franchises.

Snyder, 48, is prominent in the affairs of the NFL, where his expertise in the fields of marketing and media has been recognized with appointments to the Broadcast Committee, the Business Ventures Committee, the Digital Media Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee (which oversees the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio), and, separately, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Redskins, who continue to be ranked among the world's most valuable sports franchises on Forbes magazine's annual list, remain at the forefront of NFL marketing and business organizations. Since buying the team, Snyder has launched a highly successful retail arm, with more than a dozen Official Redskins Stores in Virginia and Maryland, as well as mobile units for use at home games and other events.

Snyder has continued to improve the team's presence in the entire D.C./Maryland/Virginia area. In the summer of 2012, the team embarked upon its "Thank You Tour" to celebrate the franchise's 80th Anniversary. The tour brought Redskins players, coaches and personnel to fan friendly pep rallies across the region, including stops at the Virginia Beach Patriotic Festival, the National Independence Day Parade and the opening ceremonies of the 23rd annual Commonwealth Games.

In June 2012, Snyder and the Redskins reaffirmed the team's commitment to the Commonwealth of Virginia, announcing that team will retain its corporate headquarters by improving Redskins Park, its Loudoun County training facility. In the 2013 offseason, Snyder and the Redskins began improvements to Redskins Park, including upgrades to the weight room, athletic training facility, locker room, hydrotherapy stations, media availability areas, in-house cafeteria and more. In addition, the Redskins announced their intention to move their annual Training Camp to Richmond, Va. The Redskins will hold camp at the brand new Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center in 2013.

"Virginia considers the Redskins our team. The team is based here. The team trains here. The players live here. Virginians root for the Redskins on the field, and off the field the team contributes greatly to the economy and culture of the Commonwealth," Gov. Bob McDonnell (Va.) said. "This is a positive and exciting development for football fans from Loudoun County to Richmond to Virginia Beach. It will mean more jobs in our state, and more revenue for state and local coffers. More than anything, it means Virginia will remain 'Redskins Country.'"

FedExField, the team's wholly-owned stadium in Landover, Md., has the largest seating capacity in the NFL with 85,000 seats. Tickets to Redskins games have been sold out for more than 40 years. Since he purchased the team, Snyder has invested more than $100 million in improvements to the facility, including high-speed escalators to the upper deck, updated signage, more than 1,000 flat-screen TVs in concourses and other areas, as well as the League standard-setting Owner's Club East and Owner's Club West private luxury suites. In 2010, the Redskins installed two new video boards – 30 feet high and 100 feet wide – in each of the end zones at FedExField. The screens feature state-of-the-art high definition LED displays and tripled the size of the previous end zone video displays. The team also enhanced the fans' gameday experience with all-new game clocks, play clocks, other in-stadium video displays and Party Deck Platforms.

The Club's media ventures include Redskins Nation, a daily 30-minute television show produced by the Redskins Broadcast Network, television and radio broadcasts via Redskins.com, a robust editorial staff, professional sports' first full-time independent blogger, and Extremeskins.com, the team's fan forum with more than 100,000 registered members. The team also produces a variety of other television programs, broadcast independently as well as in partnership with local television outlets.

During Snyder's 14 seasons as owner of the team, 23 different Redskins have earned a total of 37 Pro Bowl appearances, nine different Redskins have been named All-Pro, and 11 Redskins draft picks have been selected to the All-Rookie Team. In addition, two players from his tenure as owner, Darrell Green and Bruce Smith, have gone on to induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Snyder was Founder, Chairman and CEO of Snyder Communications, Inc. and was the youngest CEO of a New York Stock Exchange company at the time. From its launch in 1985, the company grew to a global organization of 12,000 employees, with 77 offices in 17 countries, and more than $1 billion in annual revenues. The company's client base included 200 of the Fortune 500, to which it provided targeted marketing solutions, including advertising and marketing services. In March 2000 the company was acquired by the French marketing firm Havas for more than $2.3 billion, at the time the largest such merger in the history of the advertising/marketing industry.

Snyder is founder and Chairman Emeritus of inVentiv Health (NASDAQ: VTIV). Additionally, Snyder is founder and Managing Member of the Board of Red Zebra Broadcasting, LLC, which operates radio stations in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia airing Redskins broadcasts, popular national radio shows and locally generated programming. He is a partner with Tom Cruise in Cruise/Wagner Productions, the actor's production company, and was an Executive Producer of Cruise's 2008 film "Valkyrie." Snyder is active in a variety of other private business ventures, both as an investor and as an advisor to management. He is a frequent invitee to share his experiences and views with business organizations nationwide, and he is enshrined in the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

Snyder continues to be one of the Washington area's most prominent community leaders. He is active in the Larry King Heart Foundation, and devotes most of his public philanthropic efforts to Washington's Children's Hospital and the Center for Missing and Exploited Children. His support enabled construction of the Snyder Family Emergency Medicine and Trauma Center at Children's Hospital. He is a member of the Children's Hospital Foundation Board of Directors. He also funded construction of the Daniel M. Snyder and Family Communication Center at the Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Each day the Center handles hundreds of calls from around the nation from law enforcement organizations, parents of missing children, runaways seeking help, and people responding to the Center's well-known awareness campaigns on behalf of missing children. He also serves on the Executive Board of the Martin Luther King Memorial Project.

In 2000, Snyder founded the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation, which utilizes the assets of the Washington Redskins and its corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on youth development in the greater Washington, D.C., region in the areas of education, community outreach, and health and wellness. Since its inception, Charitable Foundation programs have made an impact on millions of lives and given back well over $15 million to individuals, groups, and organizations in the community.

Washington Redskins players also donate their time, talents, and resources by providing toys, coats, and clothes to children, inspiring young football players and making wishes come true for some little fans battling big diseases. In addition, Snyder, Redskins players, and other volunteers annually distribute more than 33,000 pounds of turkey and 120,000 pounds of other food in the form of Thanksgiving food baskets for Prince George's County, Md., families in need during Harvest Feast.

In 2010, Snyder was honored by Beacon House, a nonsectarian, neighborhood-based organization that supports at-risk youth and families of the Edgewood Terrace community in Washington, D.C., during a community celebration to dedicate the football field at Edgewood Department of Parks and Recreation Center. The Charitable Foundation assisted in renovating the center with a newly resurfaced field, bleachers, and an electronic scoreboard.

In April 2012, Snyder was presented Youth For Tomorrow's Distinguished Leader Award in recognition of his years of support for the organization's private, residential school and counseling center in Bristow, Va., which has provided year-round care for more than 900 homeless and at-risk children ages 11-17 from Northern Virginia and the District of Columbia. The honor is periodically awarded to individuals who have demonstrated long and generous support to Youth For Tomorrow. In announcing the award at YFT's annual Burgundy and Gold Banquet, Hall of Fame Redskins Coach Joe Gibbs, who is also Founder and Chairman of Youth For Tomorrow, said, "Dan Snyder began his support of the kids at Youth For Tomorrow long before I ever considered returning to coach the team in 2004."

REDSKINS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

Daniel M. Snyder is the third majority owner in the history of the Washington Redskins franchise.

Harvest Feast is an annual event that distributes 3,500 turkeys and Thanksgiving food baskets to Prince George's County residents in need. The event is just one of the prominent community initiatives led by the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation, founded by Snyder in 2000.

TANYA SNYDER

NATIONAL SPOKESPERSON FOR BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

Tanya Snyder is an extraordinary role model, experienced business owner, dedicated advocate on breast cancer awareness, philanthropist, and of course, a passionate Washington Redskins fan. As the leader of the “team behind the team,” Mrs. Snyder is the driving force behind the Washington Redskins social and community activities, and she leads the players’ and coaches’ wives organization. Those activities are an important part of her life but she considers her most important job to be her role as a mother to her children and a wife, advisor and companion to her husband, Daniel M. Snyder, the owner of the Redskins.

Mrs. Snyder prefers a low profile, but she has an ongoing interest and commitment to support causes related to women and children. Her most public charitable activities are focused on Children’s National Medical Center, where the family’s endowment enabled construction of the Snyder Family Foundation emergency center in addition to the Snyder Family Foundation communications center at the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children.

Mrs. Snyder, herself a breast cancer survivor, has led the team’s involvement in the team’s Breast Cancer Awareness initiatives and has become a prominent presence nationally in the fight against breast cancer. She has served as the NFL’s National Spokesperson for Breast Cancer Awareness in the League’s “A Crucial Catch” campaign, and is one of the driving forces behind the franchise’s annual All-Stars Survivors Celebration at Redskins Park. In May 2013, Mrs. Snyder was honored at the American Cancer Society’s annual Mother of the Year DC luncheon. This marked the first time the Mother of the Year was honored in Washington, D.C.

In October 2011, Mrs. Snyder and Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Kathleen Sebelius joined cancer advocates and survivors to emphasize the importance of breast cancer awareness and recognize the National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program. The program has given low-income, uninsured, and underinsured women access to lifesaving breast and cervical cancer screenings since 1991. In November, she accepted the American Cancer Society Impact Award on behalf of the NFL.

For the Redskins, she has guided activities such as the Hurricane Katrina relief fund, the team’s annual Thanksgiving food program, and she hosts the annual Rally Round the Redskins event to benefit the Ronald McDonald House. In addition, she co-chairs the Taste of the NFL Event benefiting the Capital Area Food Bank.

Previously, Mrs. Snyder was a print, commercial and runway model and had a successful business representing women’s clothing to specialty stores and boutiques throughout the Southeast.

The Snyders have three children and live in Potomac, Md.

Since the early days of his business career, from his home office as a teenager through the founding of Snyder Communications in Bethesda, Md., to ownership of the Washington Redskins, Daniel M. Snyder has surrounded himself with trusted advisors and supporters. It is those family members and associates who round out the ownership group of the Washington Redskins.

Before launching a business initiative or making a critical business decision, they are the key individuals Snyder has turned to as partners, advisors, and confidants.

Snyder's sister Michele Snyder, a founder of Snyder Communications, shares his ambitious spirit. Her creativity, operational skills, and business instincts have played an instrumental role in the success of Team Snyder over the years.

A calm and steadying influence have been the contributions of Gerry and Arlette Snyder, parents of the Redskins owner. A long-time journalist and author with more than two dozen books to his credit, Gerry Snyder was editor-in-chief of Snyder Communications during the early years of the company. Gerry Snyder died in 2003 at age 69. The team training facility at Redskins Park has been named in his memory.

Arlette Snyder, who maintains the family ownership position in the team, continues her role as a primary advisor to the owner and his other partners.

Born in 1944 in Marks, Miss., Smith attended Yale University, where he earned a B.A. in 1966. Smith served as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1966-70.

BRUCE ALLEN

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ GENERAL MANAGER

“Bruce Allen is the personification of an NFL winner. Our fans know his heritage; we know his abilities. He is the right person to lead our club.” – Redskins owner Daniel M. Snyder

Bruce Allen has come full circle. More than 30 years have passed since Allen resided in the Washington, D.C., region and was a ball boy for his father, George Allen, the late Hall of Fame head coach who led the “Over the Hill Gang” Washington Redskins to an NFC Championship in 1972 and an appearance in Super Bowl VII.

Allen was named the Redskins’ Executive Vice President/General Manager on December 17, 2009, after a decorated career spanning more three decades as a general manager and executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Oakland Raiders and a successful run in the USFL with the Chicago Blitz and the Arizona Wranglers.

“It’s exciting because of the history, the tradition, the comfort about coming home. Everybody who knows me, knows that the principles of football in my mind are simple – it’s a team. It’s 53 men, the entire staff, everybody in the building going in the same direction for one common goal, and that’s to win.”

Allen oversaw the construction of Washington’s 2012 NFC East championship squad, assembling the group despite facing an $18 million salary cap penalty. The division championship was Allen’s sixth since 2000.

Aside from his management of the Redskins football operations, Allen has led an initiative to extend the Redskins’ outreach to their former players. Since the summer of 2010, he has been the impetus behind numerous alumni gatherings, which started with a barbeque coinciding with the team’s mini-camp. The Redskins welcomed more than 100 former players, coaches and staff members to Redskins Park, where they watched practice, reminisced with each other and interacted with current players and members of the organization.

“This is a great day for the Washington Redskins,” Allen said. “It’s a special time to bring back not only the legends of the game but also some of the architects of the Washington Redskins that our fans have loved over the decades. You get to see that they are great people and it’s wonderful to have them here.”

“We owe them a great debt of gratitude for their accomplishments for building this game. Not just the three Super Bowl trophies, but the way they have represented themselves in the burgundy and gold. I think they’re going to give great lessons for our current players to follow. We’re fortunate that we have such great alumni.”

Last fall, Allen and the Redskins welcomed more than 150 former players, coaches and staff at the team’s annual Homecoming game. The group collectively represented a combined 1,024 seasons with the team, 80 Super Bowls, 21 members of the Redskins Ring of Fame and nine Pro Football Hall of Famers. Also present were 43 members of the 80 Greatest Redskins, a group that was completed with the 10 newest members being honored at halftime as part of the team’s 80th Anniversary celebration in 2012.

In addition to his ongoing connection with Redskins Alumni, Allen is actively involved with the Redskins community outreach efforts. Allen has taken the time to personally connect with Redskins fans all over the world via one-on-one meetings, phone calls and e-mails to foster and strengthen the organization’s relationship with its fans.

In August of 2011, he assumed the role of President of the Board of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation. Even before taking over these duties, Allen participated in many of the Foundation’s signature events, including the Redskins Alumni Golf Classic, where he serves as Chairman, the Redskins Easter Egg Hunt, the Fields for Tomorrow field dedication, the Mickey Steele Memorial Golf Outing, and, the Leukemia & Lymphoma Golf tournament, among others. Allen has also lent his time to helping other Redskins greats’ philanthropic works, including Doug Williams’ Washington Football Legends for Charity and Joe Gibbs’ Youth For Tomorrow.

Allen and his wife, Kiersten, have a son, George, and a daughter, Mikayla. Kiersten serves on the Moffitt Cancer Foundation Board of Directors, where she and Bruce have worked to aid in the Foundation’s mission to contribute to the prevention and cure of cancer.

Allen was drafted by the Baltimore Colts as a 12th-round selection in 1978 out of the University of Richmond. He played for the Spiders from 1974-77, earning All-ECAC and All-South Independent honors in his junior season, when he ranked 16th in the nation and broke a school punting record with a 42.9-yard average. He earned his degree in business marketing.

Allen’s late father George, who was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002, was Head Coach of the Redskins from 1971-77. He never had a losing campaign in his seven seasons at the helm, amassing a 67-30-1 record and an appearance in Super Bowl XII. Like his father, who developed the original Redskins Park, Bruce helped spearhead the effort for facility improvements to provide the Redskins a state-of-the-art team headquarters equipped with every necessary amenity and competitive advantage to support the football operation. Renovation began during the 2013 offseason.

Bruce’s brother George served as Virginia governor and as a U.S. Senator from Virginia. He also has two other siblings, Greg, a psychologist specializing in family counseling and Founder of Freedom4U in Southern California, and Jennifer Allen Richard, an author and contributor to the NFL Network.

FROM THE DESK OF BRUCE ALLEN

In July 2012, Allen provided a guest column for Peter King’s weekly Monday Morning Quarterback feature on SI.com. In the column, Allen provided unique insight into his love for the game, the Washington Redskins and the trailblazers of professional football.

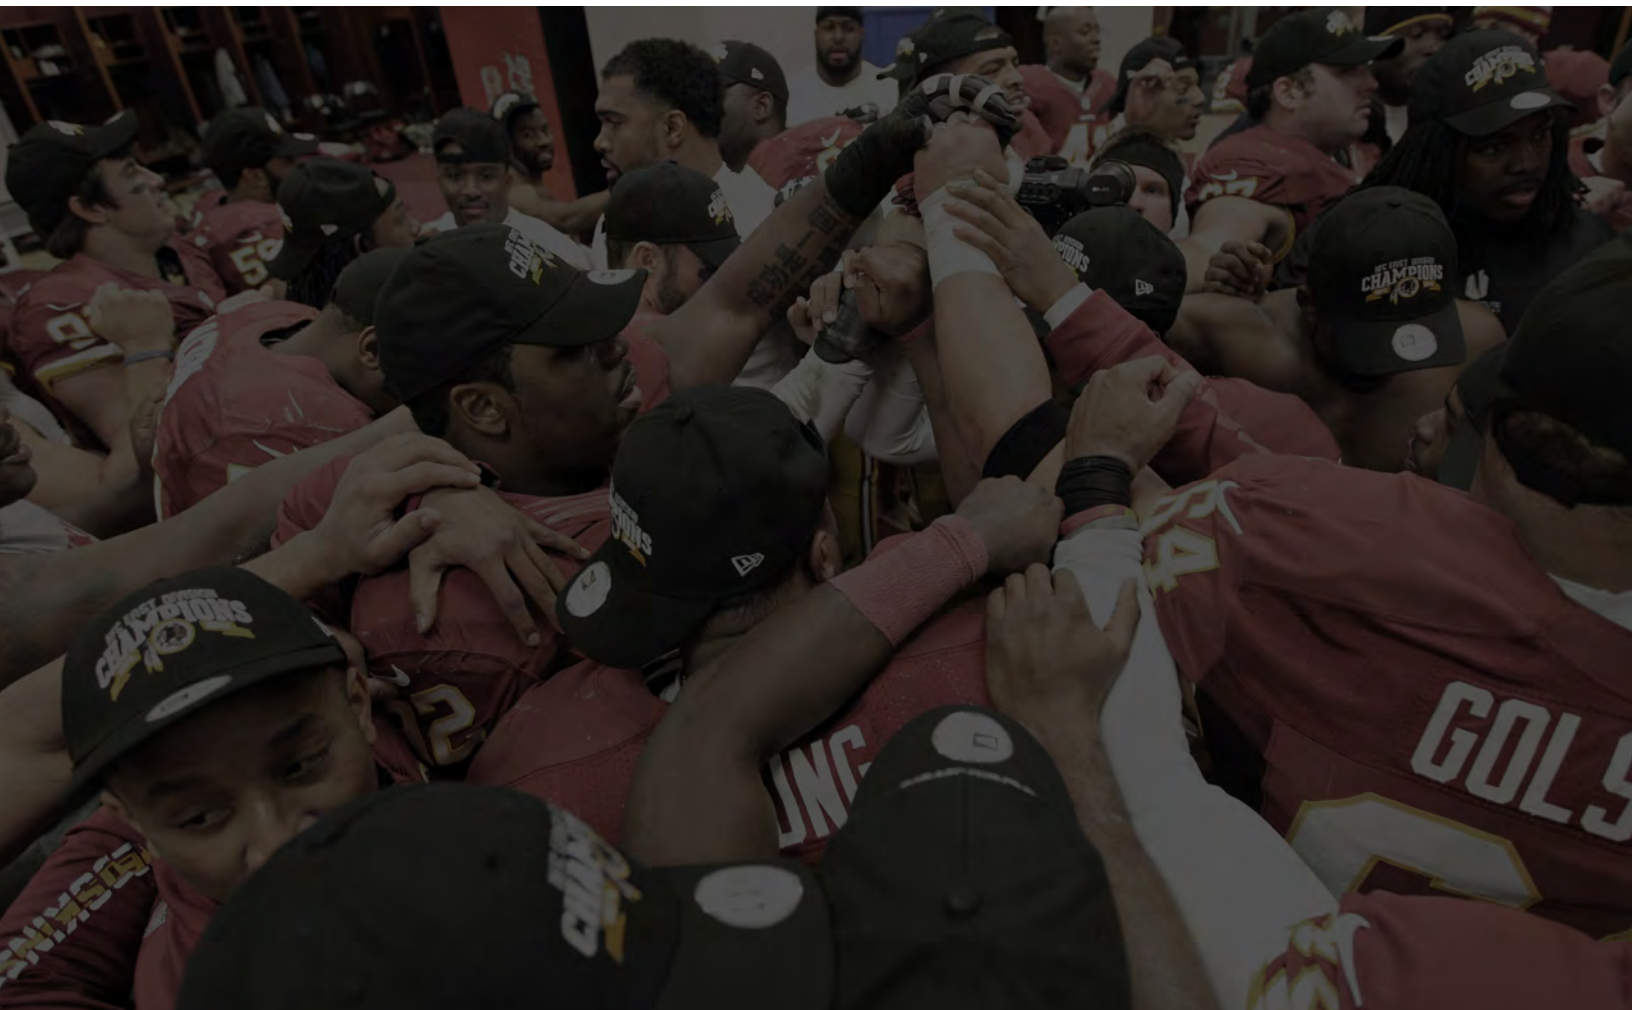

“This year, the Washington Redskins will be celebrating our 80th anniversary season,” Allen wrote prior to the 2012 season. “I’m proud to be with the franchise in our nation’s capital, one with such a rich tradition and gloried past on and off the field. The current Redskins players, coaches, fans and staff owe a big debt of gratitude to the people who have made the Redskins one of the flagship franchises in sports.”

The column was published shortly after Independence Day, allowing Allen to also express his gratitude for the American armed forces, noting that their “personal sacrifices have secured our freedoms.”

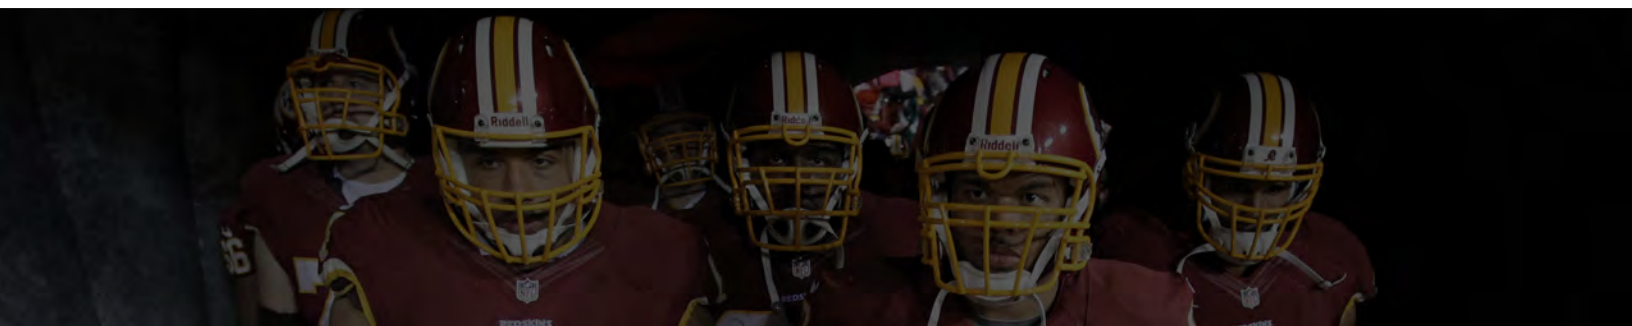

“Their heroic efforts are the reason that we are able to enjoy our ‘inalienable rights,’ including ‘life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness,’ as stated in Thomas Jefferson’s Declaration of Independence,” Allen wrote.

MIKE SHANAHAN

HEAD COACH

29TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Mike Shanahan, one of the most accomplished head coaches in the history of the National Football League is entering his fourth season as Redskins' Executive Vice President/Head Coach in 2013. The two Super Bowl championships on his résumé make him one of 13 head coaches in league history to guide a club to a pair of Super Bowl victories and one of only six to accomplish the feat in consecutive years.

Shanahan's 175 combined regular season and postseason wins in his NFL head coaching career are the 11th most in NFL history. With eight more wins, Shanahan will enter the Top 10 on the NFL's all-time combined wins list.

During his NFL coaching career, Shanahan has been a part of teams that have played in 10 AFC or NFC Championship Games. He has coached in six Super Bowls - five with Denver and Super Bowl XXIX with San Francisco. In his nine seasons coaching at the collegiate level, Shanahan's teams participated in eight bowl games and won two national championships (Oklahoma - 1975 and Eastern Illinois - 1978).

Shanahan engineered the fourth five-win turnaround in team history in 2012, taking the Redskins from 5-11 in 2011 to 10-6 in 2012, culminating with the team's first NFC East title since 1999. Shanahan and his staff oversaw an offense that became the first in NFL history to pass for 3,400 yards and rush for 2,700 yards in a single season. Washington rushed for a team record 2,709 yards, earning the Redskins their first NFL team rushing crown since 1933.

In 2011, Shanahan oversaw the continued development of a young roster that featured 12 draft picks from the 2011 NFL Draft. Eleven of the 12 picks spent time on the team's active roster during the 2011 season, the most among all NFL teams.

Shanahan became the 28th head coach in Redskins history on January 6, 2010. In his first season in Washington, Shanahan guided the Redskins to a two-win improvement over the 2009 campaign. The 2010 Redskins registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in club history and led the NFL with nine completions of at least 50 yards. Defensively, the unit placed linebackers London Fletcher and Brian Orakpo and cornerback DeAngelo Hall on the NFC Pro Bowl team.

In his tenure with the Broncos, Shanahan guided the franchise to two Super Bowl victories, three conference championship game appearances, seven postseason berths and nine winning seasons. He joined Vince Lombardi, Don Shula, Chuck Noll, Jimmy Johnson and Belichick as one of six coaches with back-to-back Super Bowl championships.

Shanahan led Denver to 138 regular-season victories in 14 seasons in Denver. Among the nine coaches who have more wins with one club than Shanahan, all eight who are eligible for the Pro Football Hall of Fame have been honored with membership. In the spring of 2010, Shanahan was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame.

Shanahan arrived as head coach in Denver in 1995 from the World Champion San Francisco 49ers, where he served as offensive coordinator for three seasons (1992-94). The 49ers offense reached unprecedented levels under his leadership. San Francisco's three-year offensive averages under Shanahan's direction were the most productive in the history of pro football. His three-year averages included being No. 1 in the NFL in total points (an average of 469.7 per year), total touchdowns (60.3), rushing touchdowns (23.7), passing touchdowns (31.7), third-down efficiency (48.5%), total offense (6,230 yds.) and average yards per play (6.2).

San Francisco quarterback Steve Young re-wrote many NFL passing records and was named the NFL Most Valuable Player twice in his three years under Shanahan's guidance. In addition, Young threw for a record six touchdowns on his way to earning Super Bowl XXIX Most Valuable Player honors.

Shanahan was on the Broncos coaching staff for all three of their Super Bowl appearances in the 1980s (following the 1986, 1987 and 1989 seasons). He first went to Denver in 1984 as the club's wide receivers coach. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1985 and would serve the next three seasons in that capacity. Shanahan returned to Denver as quarterbacks coach on October 16, 1989, after serving as head coach of the Los Angeles Raiders in 1988 and through the first four games of the 1989 campaign.

Shanahan began his coaching career as an offensive assistant for Oklahoma in 1975-76, and the school won the national championship in his first year on its staff. In 1977, at the age of 24, he was hired as Northern Arizona's backfield coach and the Lumberjacks averaged a school-record 391.1 yards per game that season. A year later, Shanahan returned to his alma mater, Eastern Illinois, as offensive coordinator and helped guide the Panthers to the Division II national title. The year before Shanahan's arrival, the team was 1-10. In 1979, he served as offensive coordinator at Minnesota, where he implemented the run-and-shoot offense to help the Golden Gophers set 40 school offensive records.

Shanahan moved on to Florida the following year, inheriting the poorest offense in Division I football as well as a team record of 0-10-1. In Shanahan's four years at Florida, the team broke many offensive school records and went to four consecutive bowl games. During his stint as a college coach, his teams had a combined record of 78-29-2 (.725), won two national championships, and appeared in eight bowl games and four playoff contests.

A native of Oak Park, Ill. (8/24/52), Michael Edward Shanahan attended East Leyden High School in Franklin Park, Ill. He received a scholarship to Eastern Illinois University, where he played quarterback and earned bachelor's and master's degrees.

Shanahan and his wife, Peggy, have two children - son Kyle and daughter Krystal. Kyle is a graduate of the University of Texas and is the Redskins' offensive coordinator. Krystal also is also a graduate of the University of Texas.

TEAM SHANAHAN

From his days as Offensive Coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers beginning in 1992 to his NFC East championship with the Washington Redskins in 2012, Redskins Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan has cumulatively directed one of the league's most prolific offenses over the last 20 years. Including his time as Offensive Coordinator for the 49ers (1992-95), Head Coach of the Denver Broncos (1995-2008) and his time at the helm in Washington (2010-12), Shanahan offenses rank in the Top 5 in nearly every statistical category, including the most important category of all — wins.

“Team Shanahan” — the cumulative numbers from Shanahan's stints in San Francisco, Denver and Washington from 1992-2012 excluding his year away in 2009 — has amassed more total yardage and more rushing yardage than any team in the NFL in that time frame.

Below are a number of categories in which “Team Shanahan” ranks in the Top 5, among them points scored, net yards, rushing yards, passing yards, regular season wins and postseason wins.

KYLE SHANAHAN

OFFENSIVE
COORDINATOR

10TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Kyle Shanahan enters his 10th NFL season and fourth with the Washington Redskins in 2013. He was originally hired as the team's offensive coordinator on January 20, 2010.

Shanahan was one of the driving forces behind the creation and evolution of the "East Coast Offense" in 2012, a term pioneered by Head Coach Mike Shanahan during the team's run to its first NFC East championship in 13 years. Shanahan incorporated Pistol elements into his prolific offense and helped the 2012 Redskins become the first team in NFL history to pass for 3,400 yards and rush for 2,700 yards in the same season. Despite starting rookies at both the quarterback and running back positions for all 16 games, Washington led the NFL in yards per play (6.17) and earned its first team rushing title since 1933, the team's second year of existence.

That season, Shanahan helped quarterback Robert Griffin III become the team's first recipient of the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year award since 1975 and helped him set NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4), percentage of passes had intercepted (1.27) and rushing yards by a rookie quarterback (815). In Griffin III's absence in Week 15, Shanahan used another rookie quarterback, Kirk Cousins, to direct an offense that amassed a season-high 329 passing yards in a 38-21 win at Cleveland. In addition, under Shanahan's guidance, rookie running back Alfred Morris — a sixth-round pick considered by many draft observers to be a marginal fullback prospect — set the Redskins' team record with 1,613 rushing yards in 2012 en route to Washington's 10-6 finish.

In 2011, Shanahan's offense incorporated a number of new players to a cast of emerging threats. Despite fielding 10 different offensive line combinations in 16 games, Shanahan's offense produced six 100-yard rushers. Ryan Torain rushed for a team-season-high 135 yards in the team's Week 4 win at St. Louis, and rookie running back Roy Helu became the first rookie running back in team history to post three consecutive 100-yard performances with 100-yard efforts in Weeks 12-14. Rookie running back Evan Royster also added 100-yard games in Weeks 16 and 17, making Helu and Royster the first rookie running back tandem in Redskins history to each rush for consecutive 100-yard games in a season.

In his first season with the Redskins in 2010, his offense set a franchise season record for completions (349), and registered the third-highest gross passing yards total in team annals. In addition, the team registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in club history and led the NFL with nine completions of at least 50 yards, including one in four consecutive games for the first time since 1987.

Before coming to Washington, Shanahan spent the previous four seasons with the Houston Texans, the final two as the team's offensive coordinator. Under Shanahan's direction, the 2009 Texans led the NFL in passing yards (4,654) and ranked fourth in total offense (6,129 yards), both of which were franchise records. The Texans also set a franchise high with 29 touchdown passes. With Shanahan calling the plays, quarterback Matt Schaub and wide receiver Andre Johnson formed one of the league's most dangerous tandems. Schaub led the NFL in completions (396), attempts (583) and passing yards (4,776) and Johnson ranked first in receiving yards (1,569) and third in receptions (101). Both Schaub and Johnson were selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Shanahan coached the quarterbacks in 2007 and the wide receivers in 2006 before being named offensive coordinator on January 11, 2008. In Shanahan's first year as a coordinator (2008), the offense ranked third in the NFL, gaining a then-franchise-record 6,113 yards and passing for a then franchise-record 4,267 yards. The offense was equally adept on the ground, running for 1,846 yards at a team-record 4.3-yards per carry clip. Shanahan helped a pair of players earn Pro Bowl nods, with wide receiver Andre

Johnson making his third career trip and tight end Owen Daniels making his first after posting career highs in receptions (70) and receiving yards (862).

Johnson garnered first-team AP All-Pro honors after he led the NFL in receptions, with 115, and receiving yards, with 1,575. Running back Steve Slaton won the rookie rushing title with a franchise-record 1,282 yards.

With Shanahan as his position coach in 2006, Johnson earned a starting nod in the 2007 Pro Bowl. Johnson led the NFL with 103 receptions and had his second 1,000-yard season with 1,147 yards. Johnson's 103 catches accounted for 31.3 percent of the Texans' total completions, more than any receiver in the league. Opposite Johnson, veteran Eric Moulds contributed 57 catches for 557 yards and a score.

Shanahan joined the Texans from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as offensive quality control coach during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. In his first season with the Bucs, he helped rookie Michael Clayton establish franchise rookie records for receptions and receiving touchdowns. He also helped receiver Joey Galloway finish seventh in the NFL in receiving yardage in 2005.

Shanahan spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant at UCLA, which earned a berth in the Silicon Valley Bowl.

He attended Duke University in 1999 and played wide receiver for the Blue Devils before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000. He spent two seasons at wide receiver for the Longhorns and as a senior, played in 12 games, averaging 8.9 yards per reception.

Shanahan was born in Minneapolis and attended Cherry Creek (Colo.) High School. Shanahan and his wife, Mandy, have three children.

THE EAST COAST OFFENSE

Kyle and his father, Mike, found themselves at the forefront of a new brand of offense in 2012 that found itself without a distinctive name. By midseason, the attack became known as the "East Coast Offense."

The Shanahans' commitment to running the football and utilizing playaction was married with new looks and formations with their dynamic rookie attack of quarterback Robert Griffin III and running back Alfred Morris, resulting in the Redskins posting their third-highest yardage total in team history that season:

TOTAL NET YARDS, SINGLE SEASON (REDSKINS HISTORY)

Team	Net Yards
1. 1989 Redskins	6,253
2. 1983 Redskins	6,139
3. 2012 REDSKINS	6,131
4. 1999 Redskins	5,965
5. 1991 Redskins	5,741

Washington's balanced attack in 2012 helped the Redskins become the first team in NFL history to throw for 3,400 yards and rush for 2,700 yards in the same season. The Redskins gained 1.26 passing yards per every rushing yard, the fourth-most balanced attack in the league and the most balanced among the league's Top 15 offenses.

JIM HASLETT

DEFENSIVE

29TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Jim Haslett, who has experienced success in all facets of the National Football League, including as a player, coordinator and head coach, enters his fourth season as the Redskins' defensive coordinator in 2013 after having joined the team on January 15, 2010. He is the only person to be recognized as a College Football Hall of Famer (2001), AP NFL Coach of the Year (2000) and AP Defensive Rookie of the Year (1979).

Haslett is a veteran of 28 NFL seasons, including nine as a player, 12 as an assistant coach and seven as a head coach.

Last season, Haslett and his staff sent three linebackers to the Pro Bowl, including second-team All Pro London Fletcher, who won the NFC Defensive Player of the Month award for December. Haslett's unit was in the top five in the NFL in takeaways, rushing yards allowed and passes defended in 2012 despite losing two starters for the season in Week 2. The Redskins finished fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways. The Redskins' 31 takeaways were the team's most since registering 34 in 2001. The Redskins had seven games in which they registered two or more interceptions for the first time since 1999, coincidentally the last time they were crowned NFC East division champs until 2012. The Redskins finished the season as one of seven teams in the league to allow fewer than 100 rushing yards per game (95.8), ranking third in the NFC, fifth in the NFL and 11th-best in team history.

In 2011, Haslett's defense vastly improved in its second year in a 3-4 scheme, finishing as the 13th-ranked defense in the league after ranking 31st in 2010. His defensive secondary also improved to 12th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (222.1) after ranking 31st (261.7) in 2010. His unit produced 41 sacks in 2011, the most for the Redskins since 2000 (45).

Haslett was instrumental in helping transition veteran defensive lineman Barry Cofield from a 4-3 defensive tackle to the nose tackle position as well as help transition rookie linebacker Ryan Kerrigan to a two-point stance after playing defensive end throughout college at Purdue. His tutelage of Kerrigan paid dividends instantly, as the rookie caused a turnover in three of his first four career NFL games (one interception vs. NYG, and a forced fumble in games at DAL and at STL) and was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Month for September. With Haslett's revamped defensive line of Cofield, free agent acquisition Stephen Bowen and a career-best season from Adam Carriker, linebacker London Fletcher amassed an NFL-high and career-high 166 tackles in 2011. Fletcher was also named to the Associated Press 2011 NFL All-Pro Team.

In 2010, Haslett transitioned the Redskins into a 3-4 scheme, a move that helped the team increase its takeaways. The Redskins' 27 takeaways and 14 interceptions were both the team's highest total since 2005. His unit produced three Pro Bowlers, Fletcher, linebacker Brian Orakpo and cornerback DeAngelo Hall, with Hall being named the game's Most Valuable Player. Hall tied a career high with six interceptions in 2010, including an NFL record-tying four-interception performance at Chicago in Week 7. Haslett's scheme helped Orakpo become one of the league's predominant edge rushers, as Orakpo became the first Redskins player ever selected to Pro Bowls in each of his first two seasons.

Haslett served as the head coach for the New Orleans Saints from 2000-05 and was the interim head coach for the St. Louis Rams for a portion of the 2008 season. Haslett previously served as defensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints in 1996, the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1997-99, and the St. Louis Rams in 2006, 2007, and for the first four games of 2008 before being elevated to head coach. Haslett spent the 2009 season coaching the UFL's Florida Tuskers, which he led to a perfect 6-0 regular season record and a championship game appearance and earning UFL Coach of the Year honors.

During Haslett's first head coaching stint, the Saints were 42-38 during his first five seasons, including one NFC West Championship, with just one losing season (7-9 in 2001). He was a unanimous selection as Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2000, when he led the Saints to their first playoff victory in franchise history. He was also honored as NFL Coach of the Year by The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly.

Prior to becoming the Saints' head coach, Haslett made his mark as defensive coordinator in Pittsburgh, where he helped the Steelers win the AFC Central division in 1997. In his three years there, Haslett guided his defense to NFL rankings of sixth, 12th, and 11th, respectively. The units were particularly stout against the run, leading the league twice, and finishing third once, in rushing yards allowed per attempt. Linebacker Chad Brown, linebacker Levon Kirkland (twice), safety Carnell Lake (twice), defensive tackle Joel Steed and cornerback Rod Woodson all earned Pro Bowl selections under Haslett's watch.

Haslett began his NFL coaching career as the Los Angeles Raiders' linebackers coach in 1993. After two seasons there, he took the same role in New Orleans in 1996, before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1997. Haslett also served as defensive coordinator for the World League of American Football's Sacramento Surge (1991-92) and the University at Buffalo (1989-90), where he joined the coaching profession in 1988 as linebackers coach.

Haslett originally entered the NFL as a second-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 1979. As an inside linebacker, he would go on to win Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year that season and followed it up with an All-Pro selection in 1980. He played seven seasons for the Bills (1979-85) and was later named to the franchise's Silver Anniversary Team. Haslett finished his playing career with the New York Jets in 1987.

Haslett was born December 9, 1955, in Pittsburgh, where he attended Avalon High School. He played collegiately at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was a four-time Little All-America selection, playing defensive end and linebacker. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

Haslett is married to his wife, Beth, with whom has three children. His oldest daughter, Kelsey, is a student at Clemson. His son, Chase, is a quarterback at Illinois, and his youngest daughter, Libby, is entering her senior year of high school. The family currently resides in Ashburn, Va.

MALCOLM BLACKEN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

16TH NFL SEASON // 7TH WITH REDSKINS

Malcolm Blacken was named the Redskins' Director of Player Development on March 13, 2013.

Blacken's hiring served to start his third stint with Washington, having previously served as a strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins on two previous occasions (1996-2000 and 2010). In his last season in Washington in 2010, Blacken was responsible for assisting Ray Wright in all aspects of the Redskins' strength and conditioning program.

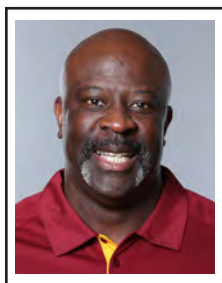

From 2011-12, Blacken served as the Director of Speed, Strength & Conditioning for the University of Colorado. He worked directly with the football program on a day-to-day basis while overseeing the speed, strength and conditioning needs of all 16 of Colorado's varsity programs.

In between his first two stops in Washington, Blacken spent nine years as Detroit Lions' strength and conditioning coach from 2001-09. Blacken was an assistant strength coach for the University of Virginia's football program in 1995 and worked with all other sports in the Cavaliers' athletic department as well. For three years (1992-94), Blacken served as the head strength and conditioning coach for George Mason University, where he oversaw the program for all of the university's varsity sports.

Blacken began his coaching career at the University of South Carolina in 1990-91 as the football program's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Blacken graduated from Virginia Tech in 1989 with bachelor's degrees in art and physical education. He was a Hokies running back from 1984-88 and was a four-time letter winner. While at Virginia Tech, Blacken was a two-time winner of the Super Iron Hokie Award (1987-88), which is given yearly to the football program's strongest player at each position.

Off the field, Blacken is an accomplished artist whose paintings have been displayed across the country. More about Blacken's art can be accessed by visiting ArtByMalcolm.com.

JACOB BURNEY

DEFENSIVE LINE

19TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Jacob Burney enters his fourth season with the Washington Redskins after being named the Redskins' defensive line coach on January 21, 2010.

In 2012, Burney's unit helped the defense hold opponents to 95.8 rushing yards per game, which ranked fifth in the NFL and was the 11th-best figure in team history. Nose tackle Barry Cofield had a team-best 35 quarterback pressures/hits as credited by the coaching staff. Cofield and defensive end Stephen Bowen were both voted as defensive captains at mid-season, after which point the team concluded with a seven-game winning streak and its first NFC East title since 1999.

In 2011, Burney's defensive line surpassed their full-season sack output from 2010 (9.0) by Week 7, finishing with 18.0 sacks on the year. The line accounted for 44 percent of the team's 41 sacks that season compared to 31 percent of the team's 29 sacks from 2010. The defensive line helped make the Redskins' pass rush one of the most multi-faceted threats in the NFL in 2011. With defensive ends Stephen Bowen (6.0) and Carriker's (5.5) sack totals combined with linebackers Ryan Kerrigan (7.5) and Brian Orakpo (9.0), the Redskins were one of only three NFL teams to have four players with at least 5.5 sacks on the season.

Burney's unit helped the overall defense improve to the 13th-ranked defense in the league from 31st a year before. Under his guidance, Carriker and free agent acquisitions Cofield and Bowen reached career highs. Carriker's 5.5 sacks in 2011 surpassed his combined total of 3.5 sacks during his first four seasons in the NFL. Cofield, playing at nose tackle for the first time in his career, led all interior linemen with eight pass deflections, while helping free up linebacker London Fletcher to lead the league in tackles with a career-high 166. Bowen's 6.0 sacks led all Redskins' defensive linemen and surpassed his total career mark of 5.5 sacks during his first five seasons.

In 2010, Burney's defensive line occupied offensive linemen to help free Orakpo and Fletcher to make plays en route to Pro Bowl appearances. His unit helped hold eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay to 13 points in a Week 5 overtime win, Green Bay's lowest output of the season.

Prior to coming to Washington, Burney spent seven seasons working under current Redskins Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan in Denver (2002-08), following stints with Carolina (1999-2001) and Cleveland/Baltimore (1994-98).

Over the course of Burney's seven years in Denver, the Broncos allowed the 10th-fewest yards and 12th-fewest rushing yards in the NFL. They ranked in the top five in rush defense three times during that span.

In 2007, Burney's group recorded nine takeaways (seven fumble recoveries and two interceptions), which led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL among defensive lines. He was instrumental in the development of 2006 fourth-round draft pick Elvis Dumervil, who recorded 26 sacks over his first three seasons, including 12.5 in 2007, his first year as a starter. That total was sixth in the league and Dumervil's four takeaways tied for the most among NFL defensive linemen.

Burney coached defensive ends in 2006 when Denver was one of just three NFL clubs to have a trio of defensive ends register at least six sacks. In 2005, Denver finished 13-3 en route to an AFC West division title, thanks in large part to a run defense that surrendered just 85.2 yards per game, the second-best mark in the NFL. Twice that season the Broncos held opponents to less than 20 yards rushing in a game.

Burney's 2004 defensive line helped the Denver defense rank fourth overall and fourth against the run. Defensive end Reggie Hayward racked up a career-high 10.5 sacks, a figure that ranked third in the AFC that season. The year prior, in 2003, Denver also ranked fourth in the league in overall defense, while defensive end Bertrand Berry racked up a career-high 11.5 sacks and fellow defensive ends Hayward and Trevor Pryce had 8.5 apiece. Pryce was a Pro Bowl selection in 2002 in leading a defense that finished sixth overall in the league and fourth against the run.

In Burney's final two seasons in Carolina (2000-01), the Panthers registered 74 takeaways, which was the fourth-highest total in the league over that period. In 2001, defensive end Mike Rucker registered a career-high and team-leading nine sacks.

Before joining Carolina, Burney spent five seasons with Cleveland/Baltimore as defensive line coach. In his first year with the Browns in 1994, he oversaw a defensive line that helped their defense surrender only 204 points (12.75 per game), nine rushing touchdowns and 3.6 yards per rush attempt. In his final season with the franchise, in Baltimore in 1998, Burney helped develop defensive end Michael McCrary into a Pro Bowl starter, while the defense ranked sixth in the league.

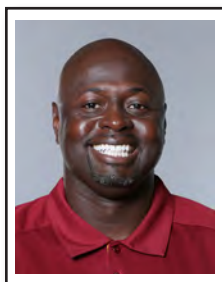

Before entering the professional coaching ranks, Burney spent 11 years coaching on the college level, including stops at New Mexico (1983-86), Tulsa (1987), Mississippi State (1988), Wisconsin (1989), UCLA (1990-92) and Tennessee (1993). He coached the defensive line at each stop, except for Mississippi State where he tutored the inside linebackers.

Burney was a three-time All-Southern Conference selection at Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he earned a bachelor's degree in 1981. A native of Chattanooga, Burney was born Jan. 24, 1959. He and his wife, Madrinna Patton, have two sons: Jacob, who was a four-year letter winner at Bucknell (2002-05) and Benjamin, who was an honorable mention All-Big 12 cornerback as a senior at Colorado in 2009.

KEITH BURNS

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

20TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Keith Burns enters his first season with the Redskins in 2013 after being named as the team's Special Teams Coordinator on February 12, 2013.

Burns spent six seasons (2007-12) as a special teams coach with the Denver Broncos following a 13-year playing career, 10 of which came under current Redskins Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan.

During six seasons assisting with the instruction of Denver's special teams, Burns worked with a unit that accounted for 10 return touchdowns (six punt returns, four kickoff returns), the most in the AFC and second-most in the NFL. In that time period, the Broncos ranked fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in punt return average (10.5 yards per return).

Individually, Burns coached five players who totaled eight AFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards, including kickers Matt Prater (four) and Jason Elam (one) along with return specialists Trindon Holliday, Glenn Martinez and Eddie Royal each earning recognition once from the league.

In 2012, several specialists set Broncos franchise records under Burns' guidance. Prater set the single-season team record for scoring by a kicker with 133 points. Punter Britton Colquitt broke the Broncos record for net punting average for the second-consecutive season (40.2 in 2011, 42.1 in 2012). In addition, Holliday led the NFL with a 32.5-yard kick return average in addition to ranking fifth in the league with a 10.8-yard punt return average after being acquired by the Broncos off waivers on Oct. 11.

Working with Special Teams Coordinator Jeff Rodgers in 2011, the unit improved from No. 26 in The Dallas Morning News' 2010 special teams rankings to No. 10—a jump that represented the second-largest improvement in the league. The Broncos' punt return group ranked third in the NFL (12.7 avg.) and had two return touchdowns.

The Broncos had one of the NFL's top kickoff coverage units in 2009 with Burns working with a group that placed third in the league in average opponent drive start after kickoffs (22.9-yard line). Royal, who ranked seventh in the NFL in punt return average (11.2 yds.), became the 11th player in league history to have both a kickoff and punt return touchdown in the same game (at San Diego, 10/19/09). Prater made 19 of his final 20 field goal attempts and tied for the third-most field goals for a season in club history (30).

In 2008, Burns' work with Denver's special teams helped college free agent punter Brett Kern earn All-Rookie honors after posting the fifth-best gross punting average (46.7 yds.) in the league. Royal, in his rookie year, placed seventh in the NFL in kickoff return average (26.1 yds.) while also handling punt return duties.

During his playing career with the Broncos from 1994-98, 2000-03 and 2005-06, Burns led or tied for the team lead in special teams tackles seven times. For his entire NFL career, Burns played 197 games (3 starts) and totaled 231 special teams tackles. He also posted 77 career defensive stops (50 solo), 1.5 sacks (9 yds.), one interception (15 yds.), three passes defended and one forced fumble.

A key member of the Broncos' teams that won Super Bowl XXXII in 1997 and XXXIII in 1998, Burns helped Denver earn three AFC West titles (1996, 1998, 2005) along with six playoff berths (1996-98, 2000, 2003, 2005), all of which came under Shanahan. He appeared in 12 career post-season games, including two Super Bowls.

Burns entered the NFL with Denver as a seventh-round choice (No. 210 overall) in the 1994 NFL Draft after a collegiate career at Oklahoma State. In addition to playing for the Broncos, he spent the 1999 season with the Chicago Bears and the 2004 campaign with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Burns is a native of Greeleyville, S.C., and attended high school at T.C. Williams H.S. in Alexandria, Va. He and his wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Danielle and Rachel, and one son, Keith.

LARRY COYER

ADVANCE SCOUT

14TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Larry Coyer joins the Redskins in 2013 as an Advance Scout with nearly five decades of combined collegiate and professional coaching experience to his credit.

Coyer most recently spent three seasons as Defensive Coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts from 2009-11. He joined the Colts from Tampa Bay, where he spent two seasons with the Buccaneers in various roles including Assistant Head Coach and Defensive Line Coach from 2007-08. Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, he spent seven seasons at Denver as Linebackers Coach (2000-02) and Defensive Coordinator (2003-06).

In 2010, Coyer's defense with the Colts fought through injuries at virtually every defensive position, with only four players starting 16 games and only four others seeing playing time in all 16 games. Coyer utilized 19 different defensive starters as the Colts went 10-6 and won a seventh division title in eight seasons.

That year, Coyer helped defensive ends Dwight Freeney (10) and Robert Mathis (11) each post double-digit sacks and earn a third consecutive Pro Bowl nomination as a tandem. It marked the first time since 1970 a defensive end duo earned three straight bids. The 2010 season marked the second time under Coyer they had topped 20 sacks as a tandem (23 in 2009).

In his first season in Indianapolis in 2009, Coyer's defense was central to the team winning the AFC Championship and representing the conference in Super Bowl XLIV. For the season, the Colts ranked fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in scoring defense (19.2 points per game), helping the team open the year with 14 consecutive victories and a regular season record of 14-2. The unit produced 34 sacks and 26 takeaways, while limiting opponents to 29 offensive touchdowns. Ten different players registered sacks on the year.

Coyer's unit helped the Colts finish with a positive turnover ratio for the seventh straight season. Freeney (13.5) was tied for third in the NFL in sacks, setting a club record with sacks in nine consecutive games. Three of Coyer's players — Freeney, Mathis and defensive back Antoine Bethea — earned Pro Bowl bids. Nine different Colts players had interceptions, and the club held six opponents under 100 rushing yards.

In 2008, Coyer served in an administrative capacity reviewing the offense and defense in Tampa Bay, helping guide the franchise to a 9-7 record that season. The team ranked ninth in the NFL in total defense and fourth in the league against the pass. The club's 30 takeaways were tied for second-most in the NFC, tied for fifth-most in the NFL, and the club's 22 interceptions were tied for the NFC lead and tied for third-most in the NFL. In the year prior in 2007, Tampa Bay won the NFC South, finishing second in NFL total defense. Coyer coached the team's defensive linemen, a group that accounted for 30 of the team's 33 sacks, including 15.5 from rookies and first-year players. Defensive end Gaines Adams earned PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors, while first-year defensive end Greg White added eight sacks.

Before his time in Tampa, Coyer spent seven seasons working under current Redskins Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan in Denver from 2000-06, including the final four seasons as Defensive Coordinator. In those four seasons in charge of the unit, Coyer's unit consistently ranked among the NFL's best, helping the club earn three playoff appearances. The Broncos ranked in the top seven in the NFL in rushing defense three times, allowing 98.3 yards per game from 2003-06, fourth-best in the NFL during that span. Denver had consecutive top four league rankings in yards per game allowed from 2003-04. The Broncos (18.3) ranked 6th in NFL scoring defense from 2003-06, and the 2006 unit did not yield a touchdown in the first eleven quarters of play, the longest season-opening NFL streak since 1942.

Coyer's Broncos advanced to the AFC Championship Game in 2005 with a 13-3 record, as cornerback Champ Bailey, safety John Lynch and linebacker Al Wilson were selected to the Pro Bowl. Denver ranked second in the NFL in rushing defense (85.2 yards per game), the third-best mark in team history. The Broncos tied for third in the NFL in scoring defense (16.1 points per game), yielding only 37 points (9.3 per game) in the final four games. In 2003, Denver allowed 277.1 yards per game, fourth-best in the NFL. Coyer's stint in Denver began as Linebackers Coach from 2000-02.

Coyer served as a defensive line coach for the New York Jets in 1994. In his other professional stints, Coyer served in the USFL as Linebackers Coach with the Michigan Panthers (1983-84) and Defensive Coordinator with the Memphis Showboats (1985). Coyer helped Michigan capture the inaugural USFL championship in 1983.

Coyer was Defensive Coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh from 1997-99. The Panthers produced top five conference finishes in all statistical categories in 1999, and safety Ramon Walker and defensive lineman Demond Gibson earned All-Big East Conference honors. In 1998, the Panthers ranked third in Big East total defense, and the 1997-98 units amassed 62 sacks, the highest two-season total at Pittsburgh since 1990-91.

After working as a defensive backs coach at Bowling Green from 1968-73, Coyer served as Defensive Coordinator in stints at Iowa State (1979-82, 1995-96), Oklahoma State (1978), Iowa (1974-77) and East Carolina (1993). He served as Defensive Backs Coach at Ohio State (1991-92), as Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs at the University of Houston (1990) and as Linebackers Coach at UCLA (1987-89).

Coyer is a 1964 graduate of Marshall, and he is a member of the university's Hall of Fame for his achievements as a player. He served at Marshall as secondary coach from 1965-67. He also had a coaching stint at Massillon (Ohio) High School.

Coyer was born in Huntington, W. Va., and is a native of Greenbottom, W. Va. Coyer and his wife, Jan, have two sons, Matt and Justin. Matt was a member of an NCAA Champion soccer team at Indiana University. Justin was an Iowa all-state football player in high school.

CHAD ENGLEHART

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

4TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Chad Englehart is entering his fourth season with the Redskins as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

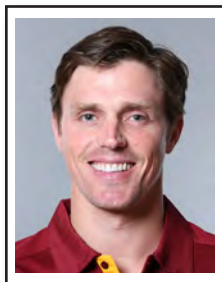

Prior to joining the Redskins, Englehart served as the head strength and conditioning coach with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League in 2009. He was a member of Redskins Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett's staff, who at the time was the Tuskers' head coach. The Tuskers finished with a perfect 6-0 regular season record before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game.

In 2008, Englehart served as director of strength and conditioning at X-Cel Sports Performance in Louisiana. Before that, he was head strength and conditioning coach at HS2 Athletic Performance in Mandeville, La. (2007) and at the University of New Orleans (2006).

Englehart holds an M.S. in human movement with a concentration in corrective exercise from A.T. Still University. He also holds a B.S. in kinesiology with a concentration in exercise science from Southeastern Louisiana University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Condition Association and is a Performance Enhancement Specialist and Corrective Exercise Specialist with the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM). Englehart also holds certifications with USA Weightlifting and USA Track and Field in addition to a Functional Movement Screen and TRX Suspension Training certifications. In June 2013, he earned Fitness Nutrition Specialist certification from the NASM.

Englehart and his wife, Lyndsey, have a daughter, Blair.

RICHMOND FLOWERS

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

4TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Richmond Flowers is entering his fourth season with the Washington Redskins in 2013, having worked as an offensive coaching assistant during his first three seasons. He is in his third season as a quality control coach.

Flowers assisted a Redskins offense in 2012 that became the first team in NFL history to post 3,400 passing yards and 2,700 rushing yards in the same season. In addition to his quality control duties, Flowers assisted quarterbacks coach Matt LaFleur as Washington eclipsed the 6,000-yard mark for only the third time in the team's 80-year history and finished fifth in the NFL in yards per game (383.2). The Redskins posted a 10-6 record and secured the team's first NFC East championship since 1999.

In 2011, Flowers helped wide receiver Jabar Gaffney post career highs in receptions (68) and receiving yards (947). Flowers was very instrumental in the development of third-round draft pick Leonard Hankerson, who, in his second career start at Miami in Week 10, posted eight receptions for 106 yards. In 2010, he worked primarily as an offensive assistant on a unit that set a franchise record in completions (349) and finished with the third-highest gross passing yardage totals in team history (4,261). The offense also registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games from Weeks 2-17 for the first time in franchise history.

Flowers was a seventh-round draft pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2001, but spent most of that season on the Dallas Cowboys' practice squad. He went to training camp with Dallas in 2002 before being released. Flowers joined the Redskins' practice squad in 2002 and also spent the 2003 preseason with Washington.

While playing for the Barcelona Dragons in 2002, Flowers led NFL Europe with six touchdown receptions and 14.9 yards per catch and ranked third in the league with 508 receiving yards, tied for fifth with 34 catches, and fourth with a 27.4 kickoff return average. Flowers also blocked two punts. In 2004, Flowers played for the Arena Football League's New York Dragons where he made 32 receptions for 638 yards and 13 touchdowns and was named an Iron Man Rookie of the Year nominee. Flowers retired from professional football in 2007 after a stint with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL.

Flowers played collegiately at Duke, where he was a three-year letter winner (1996, 98-99) and a 1998 ACC All-Academic Team selection. At the conclusion of his time at Duke, his five career 100-yard receiving games then ranked as the fifth-most in Blue Devils history.

After graduating from Duke, Flowers played his final season of college eligibility at Tennessee-Chattanooga in 2000. His 86 receptions and 1,035 receiving yards for the Mocs that year established school single-season records at the time and ranked second in UTC history. His five 100-yard receiving games tied a school single-season record.

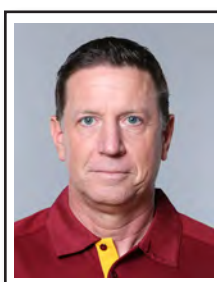

Flowers father, Richmond Flowers, Jr., played safety with the Dallas Cowboys (1969-71), New York Giants (1971-73) and the World Football League (1975). Flowers Jr. was a second-round draft pick (49th overall) of the Cowboys out of the University of Tennessee in 1969. Flowers' brother, Bill, played wide receiver at Mississippi (2001-04), where he ranks second in school history with 149 receptions. He finished his career in Oxford with 1,795 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Flowers was born May 4, 1978, in Birmingham, Ala. He and his wife, Lara, have two children.

CHRIS FOERSTER

OFFENSIVE LINE

21ST NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Chris Foerster is entering his 21st season of developing some of the game's top offensive linemen in 2013 in his fourth season as Offensive Line Coach of the Washington Redskins.

Foerster led a unit in 2012 that was maligned by many before the start of the season but proved to be one of the league's most productive and most consistent groups. Behind Foerster's unit, Washington rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933, the team's second year of existence. The line was an integral part of Washington's first NFC East championship since 1999, blocking for the team's young backfield in 2012 that featured rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III (who set the NFL rookie record for passer rating - 102.4), rookie quarterback Kirk Cousins (who threw for a team-season-high 329 yards in his only start) and rookie running back Alfred Morris (who became the team record holder for rushing yards in a season - 1,613).

In 2011, Foerster played an integral role in developing an offensive line that featured 10 different starting combinations in 16 games. Foerster helped groom two rookies as starters, as undrafted rookie tackle Willie Smith and seventh-round rookie guard Maurice Hurt started a combined 11 games for the Redskins in Weeks 9-16. The line helped pave the way for three different rushers to compile a total of six 100-yard single-game rushing performances, including three by rookie running back Roy Helu, two by rookie running back Evan Royster, and one by running back Ryan Torain.

During the 2010 season, Foerster molded an offensive line featuring four new starters into a unit that helped Washington feature one of the league's most explosive downfield passing attacks. The protection of Foerster's line played an integral role in allowing the Redskins to lead the league in 50-plus-yard receptions in 2010 (nine). He continues to help develop left tackle Trent Williams, the team's 2010 first-round pick (fourth overall), who started 14 games as a rookie.

Prior to joining the Redskins in 2010, Foerster spent two years as the offensive line coach of the San Francisco 49ers. In 2009, Foerster's line helped running back Frank Gore rush for 1,120 yards, the second-highest total of his career and his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Gore also set a career high with 10 rushing touchdowns and earned his second Pro Bowl selection.

Foerster was originally hired as the 49ers Co-Offensive Line Coach on February 15, 2008 before assuming the title of Offensive Line Coach in Week 8 of the 2008 season.

Foerster's 2008 line helped pave the way for running back Frank Gore's third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, while also blocking for an offensive unit that ranked fifth in the NFL in plays of 20-or-more yards (64). In the final eight games of the season, the offensive line limited opponents to two sacks per game after allowing four sacks per contest during the first half of the year.

During his 20-year NFL coaching career, Foerster's teams have combined for 10 playoff appearances and two championship games. During that time, he has coached at least one Pro Bowl player in 12 of those seasons.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Foerster spent three years (2005-07) as the offensive line coach and assistant head coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Under Foerster, tackle Jonathan Ogden made the Pro Bowl in all three seasons. In 2007, the offensive line cleared the way for running back Willis McGahee to rush for 1,207 yards, the second-highest total of his career, and earn a trip to the Pro Bowl. The 2006 Ravens offense set team records for fewest sacks allowed (17) and most wins in a season (13).

Before joining the Ravens, Foerster served as the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins (2004), tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts

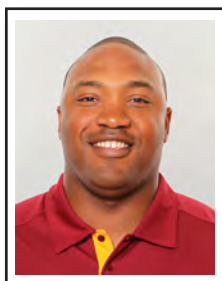

STAFF BIOS

(2002-03) and offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2001). While in Tampa Bay, Foerster helped three players make a combined five Pro Bowl appearances - Tony Mayberry (1997-99), Jeff Christy (2000) and Randall McDaniel (2000). As the assistant offensive line/tight ends coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1993-95), Foerster helped tutor Hall of Fame guard Randall McDaniel, who earned Pro Bowl appearances in all three seasons and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009.

Now entering his fourth decade in coaching, Foerster has also previously made an impact in the collegiate ranks, serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Minnesota (1992), assistant offensive line/special teams coach for Stanford (1988-91) and offensive line coach for Colorado State (1983-87). He began his coaching career in 1982 as a graduate assistant at Colorado State after a successful career with the Rams as a center from 1979-82. Foerster originally joined the Rams football team as a walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore.

RICHARD HIGHTOWER

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS/
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

9TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Richard Hightower enters his fourth season with the Washington Redskins in 2013. He is entering his fourth season coaching special teams and second year coaching the defense, as he earned the title of Assistant Defensive Backs Coach during the 2012 offseason.

In his expanded role, Hightower assisted Defensive Backs Coach Raheem Morris, helping the defense rank tied for third in the NFL in interceptions and tied for first in the NFC in passes defended. The Redskins defensive unit had four returned touchdowns, including one from both safety Madiou Williams and cornerback Josh Wilson. During the 2012 season, the Redskins had seven games in which they registered two or more interceptions, going 6-1 in those matchups.

Hightower's coaching on special teams helped linebacker Lorenzo Alexander earn his first career Pro bowl appearance, and the team's first special teams representative since 2008. Alexander led the NFL in special teams tackles with 21 as credited by STATS, LLC. Hightower was instrumental in the development of first-year kicker Kai Forbath who made his first 17 field goal attempts, breaking Garrett Hartley's NFL record for most consecutive field goals made to start a career (16). In Week 14 against the eventual Super Bowl champs, rookie cornerback Richard Crawford returned a punt 64 yards to set up the eventual game-winning field goal by Forbath in overtime. The Redskins special teams' unit also ranked fourth in NFC and eighth in the NFL in punt return average allowed (8.2).

In 2011, Hightower's special teams unit ranked first in the NFC in kick return average allowed (20.8 yards) for the second consecutive season. Additionally, the unit ranked fifth in the NFC in opponents' average starting position (21.8-yard line on kickoffs). He also helped Brandon Banks become one of the league's most consistent return specialists. Banks finished the season with career highs in kick returns and kick return yards with 51 kick returns for 1,174 yards, which led the NFL in both categories. Hightower and Smith aided kicker Graham Gano, who finished the season with a career-high 31 field goals made, tied for the second-most in a single season in team history. During the season, Gano connected on a 59-yard field goal in Week 9 to set the Redskins record for longest field goal converted in franchise history. Hightower and Smith helped guide punter Sav Rocca, who finished the season by tying a career-high in net punting average with 39.0, tied for the second-highest in franchise history (Matt Turk - 39.2) and he also tied a career-high of punts inside the 20-yard line with 28, seventh-most in a season in team history.

In 2010, with Hightower's guidance, the Redskins finished second in the NFL in kickoff coverage allowing an average of 19 yards per return and 10th in punt return average with 10.8 yards. Returner Brandon Banks established a single-game franchise record with 271 combined return yards against the Lions.

He joined the Redskins after spending one season as wide receivers coach at the University of Minnesota. At Minnesota, Hightower coached the Gophers' Eric Decker, a First-Team All-Big Ten Selection before he was drafted in the third-round by the Denver Broncos.

Hightower began his coaching career with the Houston Texans in 2006 as a coaching assistant on Gary Kubiak's staff, where he assisted the defensive backs, the special teams, and handled various quality control duties before being promoted to Special Teams Assistant two years later.

Under Special Teams Coordinator Joe Marciano and Hightower, the Texans special teams unit was one of the most consistent and explosive in the NFL. Kicker Kris Brown turned in the best season of his career, setting franchise records for most points (124), made field goals (29) and field goal percentage (.879). Returner Jacoby Jones returned two punts for touchdowns, a franchise record, and finished third in the AFC with a 12.1-yard punt return average. Punter Matt Turk broke his own franchise mark with a 42.3-yard average on a record-low 53 attempts.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Hightower spent two seasons in the Sales and Marketing department with the Texans.

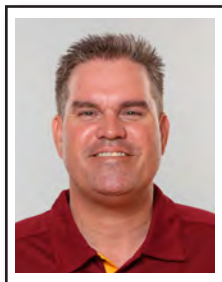

A native of Houston, Hightower earned his BA in Marketing from the University of Texas where he was a three-year letterman and special teams standout for Longhorns. He went to Austin as an academic scholar and later earned an athletic scholarship after walking on. Following his senior season, Mack Brown and his staff voted Hightower the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award.

Hightower lives in Ashburn with his wife, Lanet, and two sons, Jaxson and Kaden.

PAUL KELLY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

15TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Paul Kelly is entering his 15th NFL season and fourth as the Redskins' Director of Football Operations. Kelly, who was named to the post on February 16, 2010, works directly with Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan and is responsible for the day-to-day team operations, including travel, budgets, training camp and managing the year-round football schedule.

The 2012 season represented the third season in which Kelly had overseen football operations for the Redskins, as the team became the first since 1996 to overcome a 3-6 start to make the playoffs. Washington rattled off a seven-game winning streak to close the season as NFC East champions.

Kelly previously spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-08) and six seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1998-2003). He spent the 2009 season assisting the broadcast team of ESPN's Monday Night Football.

In his five seasons with the Buccaneers, Kelly worked directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club and was involved in many of the day-to-day operations of the team. Kelly's responsibilities included assisting in football operations, overseeing player and staff communications with the head coach and managing the football calendar, which included the offseason program, minicamp and training camp schedule.

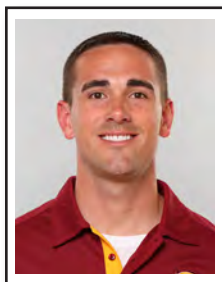

During the 2007 season, Kelly helped Gruden prepare an offensive game plan that produced 334 points for Tampa Bay, the fourth-highest total in team history and a rushing attack that averaged 4.17 yards per carry, the second-highest mark in team annals. Kelly was a member of the Buccaneers' staff that captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

Kelly spent his last two seasons (2002-03) in Oakland as the Assistant to the Head Coach. In 2002, he helped Head Coach Bill Callahan guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Kelly spent his first four seasons (1998-2001) with the Raiders as a Coaches Assistant. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area-based business.

Kelly graduated with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from California State University Hayward in 1990.

While growing up in San Diego, Kelly attended University of San Diego High School, where he lettered in basketball. From 1982-84, he served as a team attendant for the San Diego Clippers.

MATT LAFLEUR

QUARTERBACKS

6TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Matt LaFleur is entering his fourth season as the Quarterbacks Coach for the Washington Redskins in 2013 after being originally named to the position on January 20, 2010.

In 2012, the hype surrounding rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III resulted in LaFleur performing one of the most prominent coaching jobs in the NFL that season. LaFleur had the task of developing the Heisman Trophy winner and fellow rookie Kirk Cousins into starting signal callers.

Griffin III, who became the first Redskins rookie quarterback selected to the Pro Bowl, led Washington to its first NFC East title in 13 years. Griffin III established Redskins rookie records in pass completions (258), passing yards (3,200), passing touchdowns (20) and rushing yards by a quarterback (815). Griffin III set NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4), percentage of passes had intercepted (1.3) and rushing yards by a quarterback (815).

In addition to overseeing Griffin III's meteoric rise in 2012, LaFleur developed vital depth at the position with fourth-round pick Kirk Cousins, whose play was crucial in Washington's seven-game winning streak to seal a division title. With Griffin III sidelined with an injury, Cousins led the Redskins to an eight-point fourth-quarter comeback and a win in overtime vs. Baltimore in Week 14 and followed up with his first ever start against the Browns, passing for team-season-high 329 yards and two touchdowns in a Week 15 road victory.

In 2011, LaFleur helped veteran quarterback Rex Grossman establish a single-season career high in completions (265). Under LaFleur's tutelage, Grossman also set career highs for yards per game (242.4) and completion percentage (57.9), and helped facilitate career years for receiver Jabar Gaffney and tight end Fred Davis.

In his first season in Washington in 2010, LaFleur helped the Redskins' quarterbacks set a franchise season record for completions (349) and amass the third-highest gross passing yards total in franchise history (4,261). In addition, his quarterbacks threw a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history and led the league with nine completions of at least 50 yards. In working with LaFleur, quarterback Rex Grossman posted two of his three career 300-yard passing games in his three starts in 2010.

Prior to joining the Redskins, LaFleur spent the last two seasons as Offensive Assistant for the Houston Texans. In 2009, LaFleur assisted Kyle Shanahan with the Texans' quarterbacks. That season, Matt Schaub led the NFL with 4,770 passing yards and 396 completions, and ranked fifth with 29 touchdowns and seventh with a 98.6 passer rating. Under their guidance, Houston's offense finished first in the NFL in passing (4,654 yards) and fourth in total offense (6,129 yards).

LaFleur worked with the wide receivers in his first season in Houston. That year, Andre Johnson led the NFL with 115 catches and 1,575 receiving yards. In addition, fellow receiver Kevin Walter totaled 60 catches for 899 yards and eight touchdowns.

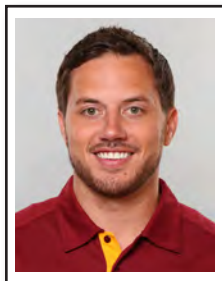

Prior to joining the Texans, LaFleur worked at Ashland University as the offensive coordinator, coaching the quarterbacks and wide receivers. LaFleur began his coaching career at Saginaw Valley State as an offensive assistant in 2003 before taking the same position at Central Michigan from 2004-05. He coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Northern Michigan in 2006.

The Mt. Pleasant, Mich., native played quarterback and wide receiver at Western Michigan from 1998-99 before transferring to Saginaw Valley State, where he was a quarterback from 2000-02. He played briefly in Omaha, Neb., and Billings, Mont., in the National Indoor Football League before beginning his coaching career.

MIKE MCDANIEL

WIDE RECEIVERS

7TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH REDSKINS

Mike McDaniel is entering his seventh NFL season and his third with the Redskins in 2013. McDaniel served his first two seasons as an offensive assistant before being named the team's Wide Receivers Coach on February 23, 2013.

McDaniel was instrumental in 2012 in helping Washington's offense accumulate 6,000 net yards of total offense for only the third time in franchise history. The Redskins led the league in yards per pass attempt (8.29) and were second in the NFL in average yards after catch (6.1). The Redskins also had seven receiving touchdowns of 50 yards or more.

In 2011, McDaniel reunited with Redskins offensive coordinator Kyle Shanahan, with whom McDaniel worked in Houston. McDaniel primarily assisted a unit that finished second in franchise history in both passing first downs (204) and completions (346).

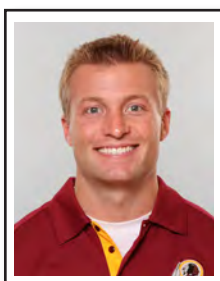

During McDaniel's and Shanahan's time as colleagues for the Texans from 2006-08, Houston ranked third in the AFC in passing yardage. In that same time, McDaniel worked with Pro Bowl receiver Andre Johnson and helped turn quarterback Matt Schaub into one of the league's premier passers. During that time, the Texans ranked third in the AFC in passing yards and had nine players record at least 500 receiving yards in a season.

From 2009-10, McDaniel coached the running backs for the UFL's Sacramento Mountain Lions (originally named the California Redwoods). In 2010, Mountain Lions running back Cory Ross was named the 2010 UFL Offensive Player of the Year. Prior to his stint in the UFL, McDaniel served as an Offensive Assistant and Coaching Intern with the Houston Texans and Denver Broncos, respectively.

McDaniel, a native of Greeley, Colo., played collegiately as a wide receiver at Yale from 2001-04. He also earned his bachelor's degree in history from Yale in 2005.

SEAN MCVAY

TIGHT ENDS

5TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Sean McVay is entering his fourth season with the Redskins — his third as tight ends coach — and his fifth NFL season in 2013. He was named to his current position on February 16, 2011.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit produced despite losing starting tight end Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through seven games before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list. McVay guided a unit that provided reliable receiving options on top of contributing significantly as blockers to the Redskins' league-leading 2,709 rushing yards.

In 2011, McVay played an integral role in Davis' emergence, as the then-fourth-year tight end surpassed his previous career highs despite playing in only 12 games. Davis caught 59 passes for 796 yards, the second-highest total on the team in both categories. Before missing the final four games of the season, Davis was on pace to set a franchise record in receiving yards by a tight end and was on pace to post the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a tight end in Redskins history.

McVay served as an offensive assistant to the Redskins in 2010, in addition to working with the tight ends during the final four weeks of the season following coach Jon Embree's departure. The Redskins offense ranked eighth in the NFL in passing yards per game (244.6) and tight end Chris Cooley ranked second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849). The offensive unit also set a franchise record for completions in a season (349), and registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history. The Redskins' offense led the NFL with nine completions of at least 50 yards, including one in four consecutive games for the first time since 1987.

McVay joined the Redskins prior to the 2010 season after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League (UFL), where current Redskins Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett served as the head coach. The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay served as the Tuskers tight ends coach in addition to working closely the team's running backs. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008.

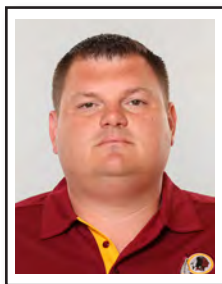

During his time in Tampa Bay, McVay worked closely with wide receiver Antonio Bryant, who recorded career highs in receptions (83), receiving yards (1,248), and touchdowns (seven), en route to winning The Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year Award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007.

CHRIS MORGAN

OFFENSIVE LINE

5TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH REDSKINS

Chris Morgan enters his third season with the Washington Redskins in 2013 after having been hired as Assistant Offensive Line Coach on February 8, 2011.

Morgan helped direct a unit in 2012 that helped Washington rush for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933, the team's second year of existence. The line was an integral part of Washington's first NFC East championship since 1999, blocking for the team's young backfield in 2012 that featured rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III (who set the NFL rookie record for passer rating - 102.4), rookie quarterback Kirk Cousins (who threw for a team-season-high 329 yards in his only start) and rookie running back Alfred Morris (who became the team record holder for rushing yards in a season - 1,613).

In 2011, Morgan played a role in helping prepare two rookies to become starters, as undrafted rookie tackle Willie Smith and seventh-round rookie guard Maurice Hurt started a combined 11 games for the Redskins in Weeks 9-17. The line helped pave the way for three different rushers to compile a total of six 100-yard single-game rushing performances, including three by rookie running back Roy Helu, two by rookie running back Evan Royster, and one by running back Ryan Torain.

Morgan spent the previous two seasons in the same role for the Oakland Raiders. In 2010, Oakland ranked 10th in the NFL in yards per game (356.6) and sixth in points per game (25.6). In addition, the Raiders ranked second in both rushing yards (2,494) and yards per carry (4.9). They also tied for second and ninth in rushing touchdowns (19) and total offensive touchdowns (44), respectively.

Prior to Oakland, Morgan spent the previous five seasons coaching at the high school level in his native Texas, serving as offensive line coach, special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Westfield High School in Houston.

In 2003, Morgan served as a graduate assistant and offensive line coach at the University of Idaho. He earned his Master's degree in education leadership during his time at Idaho. Prior to his time at Idaho, Morgan was an assistant coach at Copperas Cove H.S. in Copperas Cove, Texas from 2001-02.

Morgan was an offensive lineman at the University of Colorado from 1995-99 where he helped the Buffaloes to a 4-0 record in bowl games, including Cotton, Holiday, Aloha and Insight bowl victories. He was named most improved offensive player in 1998.

Morgan is a native of Killeen, Texas, where he helped Killeen High School to the Texas 5A-I State Championship in 1991.

Morgan and his wife, Holly, have three children.

RAHEEM MORRIS

DEFENSIVE BACKS

11TH NFL SEASON // 2ND WITH REDSKINS

Raheem Morris is entering his second season with the Washington Redskins after having been hired as Defensive Backs Coach on January 23, 2012.

In 2012, Morris' unit helped the defense finish fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways, surpassing their total of 21 from 2011. The Redskins defense scored four defensive touchdowns for the first time since 1999, including two from the secondary. Morris oversaw a unit that tied a league-high in passes defended (94) and ranked fifth in the NFC in interception rate (3.3 percent).

From 2009-11, Morris was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after having been hired as the league's youngest head coach in 2009. In 2010, his team finished with a 10-6 record one season removed from finishing 3-13, marking the best single-season turnaround in the NFL in 2010 and the largest turnaround in Buccaneers' history.

Prior to his tenure as head coach, Morris served in multiple capacities with the Buccaneers during two different stints with the team. He spent two seasons as the team's defensive backs coach from 2007-08, during which time the Buccaneers allowed only 170.5 passing yards per game, the lowest total in the NFC and the second-lowest total in the league. In those two seasons, the Buccaneers totaled 22 interceptions, tied for the most in the NFC.

Morris spent one year as the defensive coordinator at Kansas State University in 2006. Morris helped garner conference recognition for seven players on his defensive unit, including two first-team All-Big 12 honorees and one second-team selection.

Morris' NFL coaching debut came in 2002, when he served as the defensive quality control coach for the Buccaneers en route to the team's first championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. That season, the Buccaneers' defense allowed a league-low 12.3 points per game, the third-lowest average allowed by an NFL team since 2000. He served as a defensive assistant in 2003 and as an assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-05.

During his 10 seasons with the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay finished ranked in the Top 5 in the NFL in total defense five times, including No. 1 rankings in 2002 and 2005. Additionally, the defense finished as the top-ranked pass defense on three occasions (2002, 2004 and 2007) and seventh or better in seven of 10 seasons with Morris on the staff.

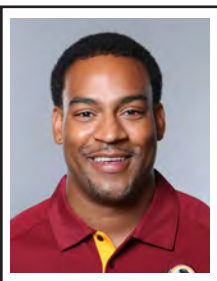

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports and handling video breakdown and computer input and analysis. He then landed at Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season. Morris joined Tampa Bay after spending 2000-01 seasons as defensive backs coach at Hofstra University. He also spent time in the fall of 2001 with the New York Jets, serving a defensive minority internship.

Morris played collegiately as a safety at Hofstra from 1994-97, and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. Morris, an Irvington, N.J. native, was presented the Key to the City in his hometown during "Raheem Morris Day" on June 5, 2009.

AUBREY PLEASANT

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

1ST NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Aubrey Pleasant is entering his first season with the Washington Redskins as an Offensive Assistant.

Following the 2012 NFL season, Pleasant was an offensive staff/head coach intern for the Cleveland Browns before joining the Redskins. Prior his time in Cleveland, he spent two years with the University of Michigan as a defensive graduate assistant, helping the team appear in back-to-back bowl games. Working specifically with the defensive backs in 2011, Michigan allowed 190.5 yards passing per game and 17.4 points per game, ranking No. 16 and sixth in the nation, respectively. Michigan's total defense improved to No. 17 in the nation (322.2 ypg.) after ranking No. 110 (450.8 ypg.) in the year prior to Pleasant's arrival. Michigan's defense allowed only 12 touchdown passes, led the Big Ten with 29 takeaways and tied for first in Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) with 20 fumble recoveries.

In 2012, Pleasant was promoted to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach, helping Michigan's total defense (320.0 ypg.) and passing yards allowed (169.5 ypg.) improve to No. 13 and No. 5 in the country, respectively. Following Michigan's 2012 season, Pleasant was one of 30 coaches nationwide invited to the NCAA Future Football Coaches Academy in San Antonio.

Pleasant coached defensive backs at Grand Blanc (Mich.) H.S. in 2010 and was a behavioral specialist/special needs teacher in the Flint (Mich.) Community School District. His duties included working directly with cognitively-impaired and academically-neglected adult students to help educate them within the Flint school district.

Pleasant was a three-year letterman at Wisconsin from 2005-08, appearing in 41 career games with 14 starts at safety. He finished his collegiate career with 80 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, one forced fumble and appeared in four consecutive bowl games: Capitol One (2005 and 2006), Outback (2007) and Champs Sports (2008). Pleasant received a master's degree in education while coaching at Michigan and earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Wisconsin in 2009.

Pleasant is a native of Flint, Mich., where he graduated from the city's Montrose H.S., receiving Class B all-state honorable mention honor at safety his senior year. He attended Flint Northern H.S. and earned all-city running back honors as a sophomore.

BOB SLOWIK

LINEBACKERS

21ST NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Bob Slowik is entering his fourth season with the Redskins after having originally been named Washington's Defensive Backs coach on January 21, 2010. Slowik transitioned to Linebackers Coach during the 2012 offseason.

In his first season as the Redskins' linebackers coach in 2012, Slowik's unit had three representatives in the Pro Bowl and accounted for 10 of the team's 21 interceptions, the most by the unit in a season in team history. Linebacker London Fletcher had a career-best five interceptions and was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Month for December, along with being selected to the All-Pro team and Pro Bowl. Despite losing Brian Orakpo to a season-ending injury during Week 2, outside linebacker Ryan Kerrigan was able to register a career-high 8.5 sacks and earn his first career Pro Bowl appearance. Under Slowik's tutelage, outside linebacker Rob Jackson made the best of his opportunity in Orakpo's absence, starting in 14 games and amassing career highs in tackles (46), sacks (4.5) and interceptions (four).

In 2011, Slowik's secondary showed a marked improvement and finished the year ranked fourth in the NFC in passing yards per game (222.1). With the unit starting four different safeties during the season, the defense still allowed just 22 passing touchdowns, which was tied for fifth-fewest in the NFC. The unit also allowed 19.3 completions per game, the fourth-lowest total in the NFC and the team's lowest total since the 2008 season (18.1).

Slowik was reunited in 2010 with Redskins Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan with whom he spent four seasons (2005-08) working under with the Denver Broncos. Slowik originally joined the Broncos as defensive backs coach (2005-06), before adding defensive coordinator duties in 2007. The following season (2008) he served solely as the Broncos' defensive coordinator.

In 2010, his secondary played an integral role in helping the Redskins record 14 interceptions, the team's highest total since 2005. His tutelage helped cornerback DeAngelo Hall match a career high with six interceptions. In addition to a memorable four-interception performance against Chicago on Oct. 24, Hall contributed two defensive touchdowns during the season and was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2011 Pro Bowl. According to STATS, LLC, both Hall and cornerback Phillip Buchanon finished in the top six in the NFC in passes defended.

Slowik has been a defensive coordinator in the NFL for 10 seasons, working in that capacity for Denver (2007-08), Green Bay (2004), Cleveland (1999) and Chicago (1993-98). During that time, six players have earned a total of 11 Pro Bowl appearances.

From 2005 to 2007, Slowik coached cornerback Champ Bailey and safety John Lynch who earned Pro Bowl appearances in each of those three seasons. Bailey, who twice also earned All-Pro honors under Slowik, recorded a then-NFL-best 21 interceptions and tied for the league high with three interceptions returned for touchdowns over that span. In addition, Slowik's defensive backs helped the club yield the eighth-lowest opponent passer rating (77.9) in the NFL over those three seasons.

As the Broncos' defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach in 2007, Slowik instructed a pass defense that allowed the seventh-fewest yards per game (193.4) in the NFL. Denver began the year by holding its first two opponents to less than 75 passing yards, marking only the third time for the franchise since the 1970 NFL merger that it allowed 75 or fewer passing yards in consecutive games. Slowik also worked with a defense that tied for third in the league with 34 forced fumbles, a total that was the franchise's highest in 17 seasons, and one that included Pro Bowl selections Bailey and Lynch.

In 2006, Slowik coached a Broncos defensive backfield that was anchored by Bailey, who finished second in the Associated Press Defensive

STAFF BIOS

Player of the Year voting after tying for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions and leading the league with 11 takeaways.

During his first year as Broncos defensive backs coach in 2005, Slowik's group totaled 20 interceptions, the most by a Denver secondary in four seasons, and was led in that category by Bailey, who had a then career-high eight interceptions to tie for fourth in the NFL. Bailey was named an Associated Press All-Pro for the second consecutive year while he and Lynch represented Slowik's secondary in the Pro Bowl.

In four seasons (2000-03) coaching Green Bay's defensive backs, the Packers recorded the highest takeaway total (116) in the NFL from 2001-03. The 2002 Packers defense led the league with 45 takeaways, while the 2001 unit tied for the NFL's second-highest takeaway total with 39.

Under Slowik's guidance, Packers safety Darren Sharper earned two Pro Bowl and Associated Press All-Pro selections (2000 and 2002). Sharper earned Pro Bowl honors and was named All-Pro in 2000 when he posted a career-best nine interceptions to lead the NFL and become the first Packer in 38 years to accomplish that feat. In the five seasons Slowik coached on the Packers' defensive staff, Sharper accumulated 31 interceptions for the top mark in the NFL during that period.

Before working one year as the Cleveland Browns' defensive coordinator during their 1999 expansion season when he directed the league's No. 11 pass defense, he spent six years (1993-98) as the Chicago Bears' defensive coordinator. In addition to his duties as defensive coordinator, Slowik coached the Bears' secondary during his first three years in Chicago and instructed their linebackers from 1996-97.

He joined the Bears after spending the 1992 season as a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys, primarily working with the nickel defense. Dallas won Super Bowl XXVII while leading the NFL in total defense and limiting offenses to a league-low 27.2 percent success rate on third down. The Cowboys' pass defense ranked No. 5 in the NFL (167.9 ypg.).

Before entering the NFL, Slowik served as a college assistant for 14 seasons. Slowik coached outside linebackers at East Carolina University (1990-91) and helped the 1991 Pirates to an 11-1 record and a final national ranking of No. 9, both tops in school history. Prior to working as Rutgers' secondary coach from 1984-89, Slowik held the same assignment at Drake University in 1983. He was a part-time defensive assistant at the University of Florida from 1979-82, where his wife, Carol, was the head women's track coach. Slowik and Shanahan worked together at Florida from 1980-82.

A two-year starting cornerback at the University of Delaware, Slowik helped the Blue Hens to a 16-6 mark in his final two seasons and a trip to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs as a senior. He began his coaching career in 1978 as a graduate assistant at Delaware and remained in that position for one year.

Born May 16, 1954, in Pittsburgh, Slowik attended Baldwin H.S. in Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Carol, have four children: Ryan, Andrea, Bobby and Steven. Bobby currently serves as a defensive assistant with the Redskins.

BOBBY SLOWIK DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

4TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Bobby Slowik is entering his fourth season with the Washington Redskins and his third season as a defensive assistant. Slowik spent the 2010 season as a video assistant with the team.

In 2012, Slowik was instrumental in the development of outside linebackers Rob Jackson and Ryan Kerrigan. Jackson, who started 14 games following two-time Pro Bowler Brian Orakpo's season-ending injury, registered career highs in tackles (46), sacks (4.5) and interceptions (four). Kerrigan earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after amassing a career high in sacks (8.5) and notched his second career interception return for touchdown.

In 2011, Slowik helped assist the Redskins defense, which showed tremendous progress and ranked fifth in the NFC in yards per game allowed (339.8). Similarly, the secondary made great strides and finished the season ranked fourth in the NFC in passing yards per game (221.1).

He was responsible for the breakdown of the Redskins' upcoming opponents and also assists linebackers coach Bob Slowik on the practice field. As a video assistant in 2010, Slowik helped in the video department's daily operations assisting the coaching and scouting staff.

Slowik attended Michigan Tech University, where he majored in Bio-medical Engineering and started at wide receiver for the Huskies, earning All-GLIAC honors in 2008. He is the son of Redskins Linebackers Coach Bob Slowik.

BOBBY TURNER RUNNING BACKS

19TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Bobby Turner is entering his fourth season as the Redskins' Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs Coach after having been originally named to the position on January 14, 2010. Now in his 19th season, Turner remains one of the league's preeminent running backs coaches, having coached seven different backs to 1,000 rushing yards on 12 occasions in his first 18 seasons in the NFL.

During Washington's run to the NFC East title in 2012, Turner transformed rookie Alfred Morris from a sixth-round pick into the team record holder for rushing yards in a season (1,613). Morris' rushing total was second in the NFL to only league MVP Adrian Peterson, and his 1,613 yards were the third-most by a rookie in NFL history. In total, Washington rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, earning the Redskins their first team rushing title since 1933.

In 2011, Turner was responsible for developing a young running back corps that included rookies Roy Helu and Evan Royster. Helu finished the season as the team's leading rusher, carrying 151 times for 640 yards, the second-highest yardage total by an NFL rookie running back that season. In Weeks 12-14, Helu became the first rookie running back in Redskins history to post three consecutive 100-yard games. Royster followed in Weeks 16-17, rushing for 100 yards in each game, making Helu and Royster the first rookie running back tandem in NFL history to each post consecutive 100-yard rushing games in a season.

Turner came to Washington in 2010 after spending the previous 15 seasons (1995-2009) as the Broncos' running backs coach, where he was part of teams that earned two Super Bowl victories (1997-98), three AFC West titles (1996, 98, 2005) and seven playoff berths (1996-98, 2000, 03-05).

During his first season in Washington, Turner helped develop Ryan Torain into a feature back. Torain posted career highs in carries (164), yards (742) and touchdowns (four). Under Turner, Torain ran for 172 yards against Tampa Bay in Week 14, the 10th-highest total in Redskins history.

During his 15 seasons in Denver, the Broncos produced the most rushing yards (32,829) and the most total yards (86,523) in the NFL. Over that span, six different running backs rushed for at least 1,000 yards in a single season, including Tatum Bell, Terrell Davis, Reuben Droughns, Clinton Portis, Mike Anderson and Olandis Gary.

Turner helped the Broncos record 11 individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons during his tenure, a total that tied for the third-most in the league and one that includes an NFL-record four-year streak of having a different 1,000-yard rusher (2003-06). Under Turner, the Broncos ranked among the NFL's top five in rushing during 10 of his 15 seasons, and 16 different running backs posted at least one 100-yard rushing game in the regular season or playoffs under Turner's guidance, a total higher than any other team in the NFL since 1995. In addition, Turner helped Denver become the only franchise since the inception of the common NFL Draft in 1967 to have two undrafted rookies reach 500 rushing yards in their first season with Selvin Young (2007) and Mike Bell (2006) accomplishing this feat in back-to-back campaigns.

In his final season in Denver, Turner helped Knowshon Moreno lead all rookies in rushing (947 yards), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and touchdowns (7).

The Broncos posted 105 individual 100-yard rushing games in the 15 seasons under Turner, whose list of 100-yard running backs includes: Davis (41 100-yd. games), Portis (18), Anderson (12), Tatum Bell (9), Droughns (6), Gary (4), Travis Henry (3), Correll Buckhalter (2), Quentin Griffin (2), Young (2), Mike Bell (1), Aaron Craver (1), Peyton Hillis (1), Derek Loville (1), Glyn Milburn (1) and Michael Pittman (1).

Before his arrival in Denver, Turner was assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Purdue University from 1991-94. During his tenure, the Boilermakers' running game and entire offense improved each season, going from 106th in the nation in 1990 to 12th in 1994, a season in which it set numerous school records, including rushing touchdowns (36) and average per carry (5.01). The offense produced 336 points, the highest Purdue total since 1969. Turner's backfield also produced the school's first 1,000-yard rusher in 18 years in All-Big Ten second-team selection Mike Alstott (1,188 yards and 14 TDs).

Four different Boilermakers rushed for more than 100 yards in a game in 1992, a total of seven times, and in 1991, Turner coached the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in running back Corey Rodgers, as well as former Cincinnati Bengal Jeff Hill.

Turner served as the running backs coach at Ohio State University from 1989-90, during which time the Buckeyes went to two bowl games and had one of the best running games in the Big Ten. His 1990 backfield consisted of five future NFL running backs, highlighted by Robert Smith, who finished the season with 1,126 yards and eight touchdowns and was named Big Ten and National Freshman of the Year.

In 1989 the Buckeyes ranked No. 1 in Big Ten rushing at 241 yards per game as well as No. 1 in total offense and scoring, coming within 16 yards of having two 1,000-yard rushers (Carlos Snow, 1,031 yds., Scottie Graham, 984 yds.).

Before his stint at Ohio State, Turner coached the running backs at Fresno State (1983-88) and at his alma mater, Indiana State (1975-82). At Fresno State, he coached future pros Lavale Thomas (Packers), Anthony Mosely (Bears, Raiders) and Craver (Dolphins, Broncos, Chargers, Saints).

Turner started his collegiate coaching career at Indiana State in 1975, coaching its running backs and quarterbacks and also working as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator that season. Turner was Indiana State's defensive backs coach as well as its strength and conditioning coordinator from 1976-77 before working as the team's running backs coach and special teams coordinator from 1978-81. In his final year at Indiana State in 1982, he coached defensive backs and served as special teams coordinator.

During his eight years on Indiana State's coaching staff, Turner recruited and coached two All-American defensive backs - Wayne Davis (Chargers, Redskins) and Vencie Glenn (Chargers, Vikings). He also helped ISU running back Vincent Allen post a 1,000-yard rushing season in 1975.

Turner began his coaching career at Haworth High School in Kokomo, Ind., as an assistant with the football and basketball teams from 1972-74.

A native of East Chicago, Ind., Turner enjoyed a career as an all-conference defensive back at Indiana State, where he played both football and basketball. He tied the school's single-season record as a sophomore by posting nine of his 16 career interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns. He earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana State in health and physical education in 1972 before receiving his master's degree from the school in education/administration in 1976.

Turner attended East Chicago Washington High School, where he played four sports (football, basketball, baseball and track). He was inducted in 1993 into the Indiana High School Basketball Hall of Fame Silver Anniversary Team and was voted into the East Chicago, Ind., Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

Bobby and his wife, Kimberly, have three daughters: Nacole, Krishana and Kiaana.

RAY WRIGHT

CONDITIONING

14TH NFL SEASON // 6TH WITH REDSKINS

Ray Wright enters his fourth season of his second stint with the Redskins after being named the head strength and conditioning coach on February 12, 2010.

Wright joined the Redskins after spending eight seasons with the Houston Texans. He was named the Texans' head strength and conditioning coach in 2009 after serving the previous seven seasons as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Wright oversees all aspects of the Redskins' workout program, getting the team in peak condition for training camp and throughout the season. He is certified by both the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the American College of Sports Medicine.

Before going to Houston, Wright spent one season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Maryland in 2001, helping the Terrapins' football team capture the Atlantic Coast Conference title and a berth in the Orange Bowl.

Prior to his stint in College Park, Wright spent six months with the Chicago Bears as a college and pro personnel assistant. He spent the 2000 season as the recruiting coordinator at Cornell University.

This marks Wright's second stint with the Redskins as he originally entered the NFL in 1997 as a scouting intern with Washington. He was promoted to college/pro scouting administrator in 1998, then to the club's director of player programs in 1999.

Wright played football at Duke from 1990-95 before working as a personal trainer for one year in Durham, N.C.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Wright is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the American College of Sports Medicine. He is married to his wife, Angela.

FRONT OFFICE

ERIC SCHAFFER

VP OF FOOTBALL ADMINIS-TRATION/GENERAL COUNSEL

11TH NFL SEASON // 11TH WITH REDSKINS

Eric Schaffer is entering his 11th season with the Redskins and his seventh as Vice President of Football Administration. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts, as well as the strategic planning, management, and forecasting of the Redskins' salary cap and cash budgets. Schaffer conducts extensive research and analysis of NFL player contracts and evaluates the roster composition of each club throughout the NFL. He also serves as the primary club liaison to the NFL Management Council.

In addition to his role as Vice President of Football Administration, Schaffer has expanded his duties to now serve as the organization's General Counsel, advising the franchise on all legal matters and contributing significantly to the team's business operations. His areas of oversight include sponsorships, licensing, vendor and employment agreements, as well as workers' compensation, among various others.

Schaffer has helped reshape the Redskins' roster during the tenure of Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan and Executive Vice President/General Manager Bruce Allen. This past offseason, he played an instrumental role in keeping the core of the 2012 NFC East championship squad together despite the challenge of a $36 million salary cap penalty over the course of the 2012-13 seasons. Such signings included starting offensive linemen Kory Lichtensteiger and Tyler Polumbus, tight end Fred Davis, restricted free agents Logan Paulsen, Darrel Young and Rob Jackson, in addition to securing the return of cornerback DeAngelo Hall and dependable veteran defensive end Kedric Golston. During the 2012 offseason, Schaffer signed two of the NFL's most sought-after young free agent wide receivers – Pierre Garçon (25, at the time of signing) and Josh Morgan (26) – as well as perennial Pro Bowl linebacker, London Fletcher.

In the 2011 offseason abbreviated by the NFL labor dispute, Schaffer helped the team secure several key players in a flurry of activity after a new Collective Bargaining Agreement was agreed upon by the NFL and NFLPA. Among those signings were defensive end Stephen Bowen, guard Chris Chester, nose tackle Barry Cofield and cornerback Josh Wilson. In 11 seasons (2003-13) with the Redskins, Schaffer has negotiated the contracts for each of Washington's draft picks, including 13 first- and second-round picks.

Schaffer originally joined the Redskins in 2003 as the team's salary cap manager. He was promoted first to Director of Football Administration in 2005 and again to Vice President of Football Administration in 2007. Schaffer added the General Counsel role in 2012.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Schaffer spent 11 years with International Management Group (IMG) in various roles. He started as an intern for IMG's founder, the late Mark McCormack, and moved on to their motor-sports division where he sold corporate sponsorships and managed young race car drivers. He eventually became the staff counsel for IMG Football, where he oversaw all legal issues related to 90 NFL clients and negotiated player contracts as an NFLPA registered agent.

Schaffer holds both a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Michigan and a law degree from Case Western Reserve University where he completed his studies while working full time for IMG. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, and a member of the Ohio Bar Association, Schaffer currently resides in Ashburn, Va., with his wife, Jaymie, and three children, Cameron (7), Logan (5) and Bailey (2).

SCOTT CAMPBELL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

27TH NFL SEASON // 13TH WITH REDSKINS

Scott Campbell is entering his 27th NFL season and his 13th with the Washington Redskins in 2013. Campbell has had two different stints overseeing either the club's college or pro scouting departments during his tenure with Washington, and assumed an expanded role directing both departments in the 2008 offseason.

Campbell oversees a department that has retooled the Redskins' roster from one of the oldest in the league into the young nucleus that comprised the bulk of Washington's NFC East championship team in 2012.

He has been part of a group that helped identify impact free agent signings Pierre Garçon, Barry Cofield, Stephen Bowen and others, as well as overseen a draft effort that has produced a Pro Bowler with every first round pick of the Bruce Allen/Mike Shanahan era (2010 - Trent Williams; 2011 - Ryan Kerrigan; 2012 - Robert Griffin III). Since Campbell's return to college scouting in 2006, every first round selection has qualified for the Pro Bowl (Griffin III, Kerrigan, Williams, Brian Orakpo and LaRon Landry).

Campbell also played an integral role in Washington evaluating and eventually selecting running back Alfred Morris in the sixth round of the 2012 NFL Draft. Morris would go from being viewed a marginal prospect — considered by many observers to be better suited at fullback — to consequently shattering the Redskins' single-season rushing record with 1,613 yards in his rookie season.

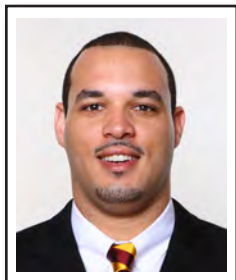

Campbell originally joined the Redskins in 2001 as Director of College Scouting, overseeing the area scouts and assisting with the Redskins' draft operations before heading up the scouting of pro personnel for the next four seasons. He returned in 2006 to take charge of the college scouting department, where he spent two seasons before being promoted to his current role.

Previously, Campbell spent the 2000 season in Chicago as the Bears' director of pro personnel, after three seasons in Kansas City, serving as the southeast area scout (1997-99).

Campbell began his NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons in 1987, serving as an assistant to his father, Head Coach Marion Campbell - who also served as the defensive coordinator for the NFC Champion Philadelphia Eagles in 1980. Campbell spent three years as the administrative assistant to the coaching staff, helping coordinate training camp, scouting, quality control and additional football logistics. In 1990, he moved over to Atlanta's personnel department full-time for a seven-season run as an area scout.

Campbell earned his bachelor's degree in education from the University of Georgia in 1984, where he played on the offensive line for three SEC Championship squads, including the 1980 National Championship team. He went on to earn a master's degree in education from Auburn University in 1986, while working with the Tigers' coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1985-86. Campbell and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Courtney and Caroline, and live in Ashburn, Va.

MOROCCO BROWN

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

14TH NFL SEASON // 7TH WITH REDSKINS

Morocco Brown enters his sixth season in 2013 as Director of Player Personnel after being hired from the Chicago Bears on May 20, 2008. He is responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of Redskins opponents, participating in all Draft meetings, and the evaluation of all professional leagues for potential free agents and trade prospects.

Brown has been responsible for adding a number of free agents that have contributed significantly during the tenure of Head Coach Mike Shanahan. In an aggressive start to the 2012 free agency period, Brown was instrumental in the signing of receivers, Pierre Garçon and Joshua Morgan.

During an abbreviated free agency period during the 2011 offseason, Brown was instrumental in the Redskins signing defensive end Stephen Bowen, nose tackle Barry Cofield and cornerback Josh Wilson, all of whom helped the Redskins jump from the 31st-ranked total defense in the NFL in 2010 to the 13th-ranked total defense in 2011. Bowen posted six sacks in 2011, more than the 5.5 sacks he registered in his first five NFL seasons. In Cofield, Brown identified a nose tackle that Redskins coaches have labeled among the brightest in the game. Cofield led all NFL defensive tackles in 2011 with eight pass breakups (eight), according to NFL GSIS. Wilson started at cornerback in all of the Redskins' 16 games in 2011, helping the unit improve from 31st to 12th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game.

Brown also assisted in the acquisitions of fullback Darrel Young, nose tackle Chris Baker, long snapper Nick Sundberg and kicker Kai Forbath. In his time in Washington, Young transitioned from his college position of linebacker into one of the NFL's most dynamic fullbacks. Forbath joined the Redskins in 2012 and broke the NFL record for consecutive field goals made to open a career, converting on his first 17 attempts.

Prior to re-joining the Redskins, Brown spent the previous seven seasons as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel with Chicago (2001-07). He directed the scouting of upcoming AFC opponents and the Arena Football League for the Bears. During his tenure in Chicago, the Bears captured the 2006 NFC Championship and made the club's first Super Bowl appearance since 1985.

Brown spent the 2000 season and 2001 offseason as an assistant scout with Washington. Brown prepared weekly scouting reports, evaluated NFL prospects and managed free agent and draft prospect visits. Brown originally entered the NFL as a scouting intern with the Indianapolis Colts in the spring of 2000.

He is a 1999 graduate of North Carolina State University, where he lettered in football for four years and served as team captain his senior season. He led the Wolfpack in tackles for three straight seasons and was twice named honorable mention All-ACC. He earned a bachelor's degree in parks, recreation and tourism with a concentration in program/sports management.

A native of Hampton, Va., Brown attended Kecoughtan High School. Brown's brother, Milan, is the head men's basketball coach at Holy Cross. Brown and his wife, Kendra, have two sons, Macari and Macaiden, and a daughter, Makailyn. The family resides in Ashburn, Va.

ALEX SANTOS

PRO SCOUT

8TH NFL SEASON // 8TH WITH REDSKINS

Alex Santos enters his eighth season with Washington and his sixth as a pro scout in 2013. In addition to the advance scouting of Redskins opponents, Santos is responsible for assisting with the club's evaluation of personnel in the NFL and Canadian Football League. He originally joined the Redskins in 2006 as a pro personnel assistant.

Santos spent 2005 as a graduate assistant and quality control/offensive line intern coach at Vanderbilt University. Prior to that, he was the assistant head football coach at Eastside High School in Paterson, N.J. At Eastside, he also coached the offensive line, directed the strength and conditioning program and was one of the school's special education instructors.

A four-year starter at guard for North Carolina State University, Santos graduated in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in Spanish Literature. He also earned a master's degree in Special Education from New Jersey City State University. A native of Paterson, N.J., he currently resides in Ashburn, Va.

RICHARD MANN II

PRO SCOUT

7TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

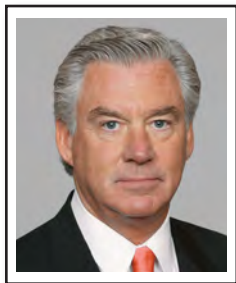

Richard Mann II is entering his fourth season with the Washington Redskins as a pro scout. In addition to the weekly advance scouting of Redskins opponents, he is responsible for assisting in the evaluation and writing of player reports on potential talent in NFL free agency, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

Mann spent his first three seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as a personnel assistant in 2007 and 2008 and a college personnel assistant in 2009. With the Buccaneers, he was able to work with his father, 29-year veteran NFL coach Richard Mann.

A return specialist at Salisbury University, Mann earned his bachelor's degree in interpersonal communication with a minor in marketing before receiving his master's degree in sports leadership from Duquesne University in June 2008. Mann was a three-year member of the football team at Salisbury, earning All-Conference honors in 2002, while averaging 31.8 yards per kickoff return.

His first NFL experiences came in the summer of 1994 as equipment assistant with the Cleveland Browns & in 2003 as a pro personnel intern with the Baltimore Ravens.

FRONT OFFICE

SENIOR EXECUTIVE

29TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

A.J. Smith was named Senior Executive for the Washington Redskins on March 6, 2013.

Smith is entering his 29th NFL season after 14 seasons with the San Diego Chargers in various capacities. After two years as Assistant General Manager/Director of Pro Personnel with the Chargers from 2001-02, Smith served as the team's Executive Vice President/General Manager from 2003-12. His 95 wins as general manager are a Chargers record.

Smith assumed the Chargers' head role following three seasons in which the team had finished a collective 13-35 before eventually winning five AFC West titles under his direction. In his time as General Manager, the Chargers won 98 combined regular season and postseason games, fifth-most in the AFC and sixth-most in the NFL.

Before Smith was named general manager, the Chargers had not been to the playoffs or had a winning record for seven consecutive seasons. Under Smith's leadership, the team did not post a losing record for eight straight seasons from 2004-11.

Smith was widely recognized as one of the National Football League's top executives. He was named the NFL's 2004 Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly, the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA), FoxSports.com and CBS Sportsline.com. In 2006, Forbes named him its top NFL General Manager, and in addition, the magazine ranked Smith fourth overall among his counterparts in the four major professional sports leagues in the U.S. and Canada (NFL, NBA, NHL and MLB). In 2009, USA Today ranked Smith sixth on their list of the Top 20 Personnel Executives in the NFL, and Forbes recognized Smith once again in 2010, ranking him fifth on its list of the Top 10 NFL GMs.

"A.J. learned from Bill Polian in Buffalo. And he learned from George Allen in the USFL," Baltimore Ravens General Manager Ozzie Newsome said. "He's been around successful people, so he's learned the right way to do things."

Smith has worked in pro football since 1977, including three years in the United States Football League in the early 1980s. He spent 14 seasons (1987-00) with the Buffalo Bills, joining the team as an area scout in 1987 before being named assistant director of college scouting in 1989. In 1993, Smith became director of pro personnel. During his tenure in Buffalo, Smith worked closely with Hall of Fame coach Marv Levy as the team's assistant director of college scouting. During that time, Buffalo made appearances in Super Bowls XXV, XXVI and XXVII. Smith was promoted to director of pro personnel prior to the Bills' appearance in Super Bowl XXVIII.

Smith served as the Chargers' pro personnel director from 1985-86. He also held scouting positions with the USFL's Chicago Blitz (1982-83) and Pittsburgh Maulers (1984). He began his NFL career in 1977 as a volunteer part-time scout for the New York Giants under the direction of Jim Trimble and moved on to become a part-time scout for the New England Patriots (1978-80) and Houston Oilers (1981).

Smith made his start in football as an assistant coach at Cranston West H.S. in Cranston, R.I., from 1971-76. He was the head coach of the Rhode Island Kings of the Eastern Football League in 1976 and an assistant coach at the University of Rhode Island in 1978.

Smith is a graduate of Bishop Hendricken H.S. in Warwick, R.I. He was a standout on the football and track teams and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2003. Smith earned a degree in health and physical education from Kentucky Wesleyan College in 1971 and was inducted into the college's inaugural Athletics Hall of Fame class in 2013. A plaque hangs in his honor in the A.J. Smith Weight Room inside the Woodward Health and Recreation Center at Kentucky Wesleyan.

Smith played semi-pro football as a wide receiver with the Attleboro (Mass.) Kings of the Eastern Football League from 1972-74 and had a try-out with the Redskins in 1974. He was inducted into the American Football Association's Minor Semi-pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990. Smith also taught health and physical education in the Providence (R.I.) junior high school system from 1971-85.

Smith and his wife, Susan, reside in Del Mar, Calif.. The Smiths have two children: a daughter, Andrea, and a son, Kyle. Andrea graduated Cum Laude from Cortland State in New York with a degree in sports management, where she was an honorable mention All-America volleyball player for the Red Dragons. Andrea now lives in San Diego and is the Manager of Petco Park Suites for Major League Baseball's San Diego Padres.

Kyle graduated from Youngstown State, where he had an outstanding career as a wide receiver and punt returner. Smith now lives in Atlanta and has served as the Redskins' southeast area scout since 2011.

DARRYL FRANKLIN
BLESTO SCOUT

6TH NFL SEASON // 2ND WITH REDSKINS

Darryl Franklin is entering his second season with the Redskins after joining the team in June 2012. In addition to BLESTO Scout duties, he serves as the team's scout for the Northeast region.

During the 2010-11 seasons, Franklin was based in Jacksonville, Fla., as a scouting assistant for BLESTO. He spent 2009 season as an intern for BLESTO before becoming full-time. Franklin spent the 2008 season with the Detroit Lions as a player personnel intern, aiding in both college and pro scouting.

Prior to entering the NFL, Franklin spent three years as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan, where he gained experience initially helping with the defense before later assisting with the offense. While at Central Michigan, Franklin earned a Master's of Science in Administration with a sport concentration. He completed his master's project on predicting NFL career longevity using combine results.

Franklin earned undergraduate degrees at the University of Missouri, majoring in broadcast journalism and political science. He also served as a student assistant for the Tigers' football team, primarily working with the school's recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Originally from Toronto, Franklin attended Mount Hebron High School in Ellicott City, Md., where he helped out as the football team's student assistant.

TIM GRIBBLE
AREA SCOUT

14TH NFL SEASON // 12TH WITH REDSKINS

Tim Gribble is entering his 14th season in the NFL and 12th with the Redskins in 2013. Gribble has spent the past nine seasons as an area scout with Washington and now oversees scouting operations in the Midwest.

Gribble originally joined the Redskins in 2002 and served as a pro personnel assistant for two seasons. Before coming to Washington, he spent two seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers as an assistant in the scouting department.

Prior to joining the NFL, he was an assistant coach for his alma mater, Duquesne University. He served as the Dukes' special teams coordinator (1996-2000), defensive line coach (1996-98) and running backs coach (1998-2000).

Gribble was a four-year starter (1992-96) at fullback and team captain at Duquesne. He also played baseball for the Dukes. He earned dual degrees in psychology and sociology.

KYLE SMITH
AREA SCOUT

4TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Kyle Smith is entering his fourth season with the Redskins after having been hired full-time as an area scout on June 15, 2011. Smith now oversees the team's scouting efforts in the Southeast region.

Smith entered the NFL as a scouting intern with the Redskins in 2010. He graduated from Youngstown State, where he was twice named honorable mention all-conference while playing wide receiver and punt returner from 2002-05. He ranks 11th in program history in career receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,534), third in punt returns (56) and fourth in punt return yards (377). Smith also owns the school record for consecutive games with a reception (30).

As a senior, Smith was elected a team captain and earned the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Following the season he was invited to play in the 2006 Hula Bowl All-Star Game. Smith signed as a college free agent with the Minnesota Vikings, where he spent part of the 2006 offseason. In January of 2007, he was signed by Tampa Bay, which allocated him to NFL Europa's Berlin Thunder. He later had practice squad stints in the Arena Football League and Canadian Football League.

Smith was born in Warwick, R.I., and raised in Buffalo, N.Y. He currently resides in Dallas. He is the son of A.J. Smith, who joined the Redskins as a Senior Executive in March 2013.

COLE SPENCER
AREA SCOUT

4TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Cole Spencer is entering his fourth season with the Redskins after joining the team in May 2010 as a scouting intern in which he assisted with advance scouting and evaluation of NFL personnel before transitioning to scouting of collegiate players. The 2013 season will be his second season as the team's Northeast region scout.

Prior to entering the NFL, Spencer worked at Eastern Illinois for a year as a Football Operations and Defensive Quality Control Assistant.

Spencer graduated with a degree in economics and a minor in history from Northern Illinois University where he played tight end before injury cut his playing career short. He played for Olentangy H.S., near Columbus, Ohio, where he grew up.

Spencer learned the game at a young age from his father Tim, who coached running backs at Ohio State, including 1995 Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George. His father served as the running backs coach for the Chicago Bears from 2004-12. His brother, Evan, is entering his junior season as a wide receiver for the Buckeyes in 2013.

Whittington is responsible for scouting and evaluating college players in the Southwest region. Whittington spent two seasons serving as the team's BLESTO scout, as well as assisting with scouting college players in the Northeast region. He spent 2009 as an intern in the personnel department where he assisted both the college and pro scouts with advance scouting. He also coordinated free agent and college player visits.

Whittington was a three-year letter winner at Vanderbilt where he played fullback and defensive line and was a member of the 2007 Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll. He graduated from Vanderbilt in 2008 with a degree in human and organizational development.

Whittington is originally from Lafayette, La., and currently resides in Houston, Texas.

JIM ZECHES
AREA SCOUT

13TH NFL SEASON // 9TH WITH REDSKINS

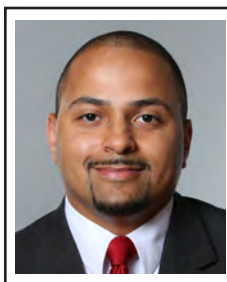

Jim Zeches enters his 13th season in the National Football League and ninth as an area scout with the Redskins. He currently oversees scouting operations in the West region.

Prior to joining the Redskins in 2005, he spent the four preceding seasons in the same capacity with the San Francisco 49ers.

Zeches brings 28 years of coaching experience to his front office role. He joined the 49ers staff in 2001 after spending 12 years in various positions at Washington State University. In addition to his coaching responsibilities, he served as the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars during the last seven years of his tenure. He originally joined Washington State's staff in 1989 as defensive line coach. He also coached the outside linebackers from 1991-98, and coached the tight ends in his final two seasons with the Cougars.

A Los Angeles native, Zeches earned two varsity letters while playing center at Cal-State Northridge (1971-72). Following five years of coaching preps, Zeches served as a graduate assistant at UCLA from 1978-80 under Terry Donahue. He joined head coach Dennis Green's staff at Northwestern in 1981, coaching the defensive line until 1986. In 1987, Zeches coached the inside linebackers at Weber State.

Zeches and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Brian.

Completed 33-of-48 passes (68.8 percent) for 466 yards with four touchdowns, three interceptions and a passer rating of 101.6 in his rookie season in 2012... With Robert Griffin III, was part of quarterback duo in 2012 that made the Redskins the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to have two different rookie quarterbacks lead fourth-quarter comeback wins in the same season and the first team in history with two rookie quarterbacks with 300-yard passing games in a single season.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

Played in three regular season games with one start and saw his first post-season action... Was active but did not play as the second quarterback in a season-opening win at NO (9/9), at STL (9/16), vs. CIN (9/23) and at TB (9/30)... Saw his first action vs. ATL (10/7), entering in relief of the injured Robert Griffin III in the third quarter and completing 5-of-9 passes for 111 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. His first career pass attempt was a four-yard completion to wide receiver Joshua Morgan. In the fourth quarter, he threw the first touchdown pass of his career, finding Santana Moss for a 77-yard touchdown. With the pass, the Redskins became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Cardinals to have two rookie quarterbacks each throw a touchdown pass of 75+ yards in the same season... Active but did not play vs. MIN (10/14), at NYG (10/21), at PIT (10/28), vs. CAR (11/4), vs. PHI (11/18), at DAL (11/22) and vs. NYG (12/3)... Led the first fourth-quarter comeback of his career, replacing Griffin III in the final two minutes of a win vs. BAL (12/9). Led an eight-point fourth-quarter comeback, making the Redskins the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to have two different rookie quarterbacks lead fourth-quarter comeback wins in the same season. Hit Pierre Garçon for an 11-yard touchdown and then converted the game-tying two-point conversion on a quarterback draw, marking the first time in team history that the Redskins had scored a two-point conversion to send a game to overtime. The comeback was named the NFL GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week... Made his first career start in a win at CLE (12/16), completing 26-of-37 passes for 329 yards with two touchdowns, all career highs. He and Griffin III became the first duo to each have started a game for the Redskins as rookies in the same season since Heath Shuler and Gus Frerotte in 1994. With Cousins' victory in Week 15 and Griffin III's win in Week 1, the Redskins became the first team in a non-strike season to have two different rookie quarterbacks win their first career starts in the same season since rookies John Elway and Gary Kubiak won their starting debuts with the Denver Broncos in 1983. The game was Cousins' first 300-yard passing performance, as the Redskins became the first team in NFL history to have two different rookie quarterbacks post 300-yard passing games in the same season. Won Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week and GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week for his efforts... Active but did not play at PHI (12/23) and vs. DAL (12/30)... Completed three-of-10 passes for 31 yards in relief of an injured Robert Griffin III in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. SEA (1/6).

Became the first Redskin quarterback to earn AP Rookie of the Year honors and joined running back Mike Thomas (1975) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Charley Taylor (1964) as the only three Redskins to win the award.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

Started 15 regular season games in helping lead Washington to a 10-6 record and its first division title since 1999... Selected by his teammates as an offensive captain at midseason... Earned his first career Pro Bowl selection, becoming the first Redskins offensive rookie to earn a selection since Larry Brown in 1969... Named PFW/PFWA Rookie of the Year and Offensive Rookie of the Year... Completed 258-of-393 passes (65.6 percent) for 3,200 yards with 20 touchdowns and a passer rating of 102.4... Set NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4) and percentage of passes had intercepted (1.27) and fell just short of the league rookie record for completion percentage... Shattered virtually every Redskins rookie passing record and every team record for rushing by a quarterback... Made his NFL debut as the starting quarterback in a season-opening win at NO (9/9), becoming the first player born in the 1990s to start at quarterback in NFL history. Completed 19-of-26 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns and finished with a passer rating of 139.9. Became the first player in NFL history to compile 300-plus passing yards, two or more passing touchdowns and no interceptions in an NFL debut. Threw his first career touchdown on an 88-yard pass to Pierre Garçon, the longest pass play by the Redskins since Ed Rubbert's 88-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Allen in a strike game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals on Oct. 4, 1987, a span of 397 regular season games... Started at STL (9/16) and completed 20-of-29 passes for 206 yards with one touchdown, one interception and a quarterback rating of 86.3. Added 11 carries for 82 yards and his first two career rushing touchdowns, with his 82 rushing yards being the most by a Redskins quarterback since the 1970 merger, surpassing Joe Theismann's 64 rushing yards at Chicago on 11/9/80. Became the first Redskins quarterback to rush for two TD since Mark Rypien vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 7, 1993, a span of 297 regular season games and was the first Redskins rookie QB to do so since Norm Snead at Dallas on 11/19/61... Started vs. CIN (9/23), completing 21-of-34 passes for 221 yards with one touchdown and a 90.4 passer rating. Also added 74 yards on 13 carries with one touchdown. The rushing touchdown was his third of the season, tying him with Al Dorow (1954) and Norm Snead (1961) for the team record for rushing touchdowns a Redskins rookie quarterback... Started at quarterback and registered his first fourth-quarter comeback win at TB (9/30). Finished the game 26-of-35 for 323 yards (all career highs) and added seven carries for 43 yards and a touchdown on the ground. Engineered a seven-play, 56-yard drive in 1:39 to set up Billy Cundiff for a 41-yard game-winning field goal with three seconds remaining. Scored his fourth rushing touchdown of the season on a five-yard run in the second quarter, tying Joe Theismann (1979) and Eddie LeBaron (1955) for the Redskins record of rushing touchdowns by a quarterback in a single season. Became the sixth NFL quarterback since the 1970 merger to register at least four rushing touchdowns in the first four games of a season, joining Cam Newton (2011), Kordell Stewart (1997), Bubby Brister (1988), Steve Grogan (1976) and Terry Bradshaw (1972). With 1,170 passing yards through four games, joined Cam Newton (2011) and Ryan Tannehill (2012) as the only players to reach 1,000 passing yards in their first four games of their rookie seasons. His 300-yard passing performance was the second of his career and the 100th by a Redskins quarterback in team history... Started vs. ATL (10/7) and completed 10-of-15 passes for 91 yards before exiting the game in the third quarter with a head injury. Rushed once for seven yards, giving him 241 on the season, breaking Sammy Baugh's team record for rushing yards by a rookie quarterback in a season (240 in 1937)... Started vs. MIN (10/14) and completed 17-of-22 passes for 182 yards and a touchdown. Also tied a career high in rushing attempts (13) and set a career high with 138 rushing yards with two rushing touchdowns. Set a franchise record for single-game rushing yardage by a quarterback with the first 100-yard rushing effort by a QB in team history. Broke the team record for rushing yards by a quarterback in a single season, surpassing Harry Gilmer, who had 365 rushing yards in 1952 and saw action at both quarterback and left halfback in that season (the previous high by a Redskins player who played strictly quarterback was Joe Theismann, who rushed for 314 yards in 1984). Ended the evening with a 76-yard touchdown run, the longest by a quarterback in team history and the longest by an NFL quarterback since Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart rushed for an 80-yard touchdown against Carolina on Dec. 22, 1996. The run was the longest by any Redskin since Clinton Portis had a 78-yard run vs. the Kansas City Chiefs on Oct. 18, 2009. Became only the second individual quarterback in team history with at least one rushing touchdown and one passing touchdown in three games three times in a season since 1950 (Joe Theismann, 1980). Joined Michael Vick as the only NFL quarterbacks since 1970 to rush for at least 130 yards and two touchdowns in a game. His six rushing touchdowns are the most by a Redskins quarterback in a single season in team history. He was previously tied with

Joe Theismann (1979) and Eddie LeBaron (1955)... Started at NYG (10/21) and completed 20-of-28 passes for 258 yards with two touchdowns, and added 89 rushing yards on nine carries (9.9 avg.). Had a 108.9 passer rating, marking the third time he had eclipsed 100.0 in a game... Started at PIT (10/28), completing 16-of-34 passes for 177 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Threw the eighth touchdown pass of his rookie season, finding wide receiver Santana Moss for a one-yard touchdown on fourth down in the second quarter... Started vs. CAR (11/4) and completed 23-of-39 passes for 215 yards. With 23 completions, he tied Norm Snead's team record for completions in a rookie season (172, set in 1961). Also rushed 13 times for 76 yards, making he and running back Alfred Morris the first rookie quarterback-running back tandem in NFL history to each amass 500 rushing yards in a season... Started in a win vs. PHI (11/18) and completed 14-of-15 passes (93.3 percent) for 200 yards with a career-high four touchdowns, finishing with a perfect 158.3 passer rating and also contributing 84 rushing yards on 12 carries. Became only the third NFL player (Randall Cunningham, Michael Vick) and first rookie ever with 200 pass yards, 75 rush yards and four passing TD in a single game. Was five attempts short of meeting the 20-attempt minimum needed to qualify for team records for completion percentage (Mark Brunell – 89.3 on Sept. 24, 2006 vs. Houston) and passer rating (Sonny Jurgensen – 149.3, Sept. 15, 1968 at Chicago). Became only the third rookie to surpass both 2,000 passing yards and 500 rushing yards in a season, joining Vince Young in 2006 (2,199 passing yards, 552 rushing yards) and Cam Newton in 2011 (4,051 passing yards, 706 rushing yards)... In a Thanksgiving Day win at DAL (11/22), completed 19-of-27 passes for 304 yards and four touchdowns. Became the rookie in NFL history and the first player in Redskins history to pass for four touchdowns in consecutive games. In the game, he broke single-season team records for passing yards by a rookie (Norm Snead's 2,337 in 1961) and passing touchdowns by a rookie (Eddie LeBaron's 14 in 1952). He became the first player in NFL history to have four 60-yard passing touchdowns and a 60-yard rushing touchdown in a season. His four passing touchdowns are the most in a single game by a Redskins quarterback on Thanksgiving Day, surpassing the three Thanksgiving Day touchdowns thrown by Jim Ninowski (Nov. 28, 1968) and Danny Wuerffel (Nov. 28, 2002). Griffin III's 304 yards are also the most by a Redskins quarterback on Thanksgiving Day, surpassing Ninowski's 280... Started in a win vs. NYG on Monday Night Football (12/3), completing 13-of-21 passes for 163 yards with one touchdown. Helped the Redskins overcome a six-point deficit entering the fourth quarter, becoming the first rookie quarterback for the Redskins to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback when trailing after three quarters since Harry Theofilides on Dec. 15, 1968 vs. Detroit. Also rushed for 72 yards on five carries, surpassing Cam Newton's former NFL record for rushing yards in a season by a rookie quarterback (706 in 2011)... Started in a win vs. BAL (12/9), completing 15-of-26 passes for 246 yards and a touchdown. Threw his 18th touchdown pass of the season on a four-yard throw to Joshua Morgan in the first quarter... Inactive at CLE (12/16) with a sprained LCL... Started in a win at PHI (12/23) and completed 16-of-24 passes for 198 yards with two touchdowns. Surpassed 3,000 passing yards for the season, marking the 20th time in team history a Redskin has done so... Started and completed 9-of-18 passes for 100 yards. Finished the season with NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4, surpassing Russell Wilson's 100.0 passer rating this season and Ben Roethlisberger's 98.1 from the 2004 season) and for percentage of passes intercepted (1.3 percent, breaking Charlie Batch's 1.98 percent). Concluded 2012 with team rookie records for completions (258), pass attempts (393), passing yards (3,200), passing touchdowns (20), completion percentage (65.6) and passer rating (102.4). He also hold team records for rushing attempts (120), rushing yards (815) and rushing touchdowns (seven) for a quarterback of any experience level. He became the fourth NFL quarterback to rush for 800 yards in a season, joining Randall Cunningham, Bobby Douglass and Michael Vick (twice)... Started in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. SEA (1/6), becoming the first quarterback born in the 1990s (Feb. 12, 1990) to start an NFL playoff game. Completed 10-of-19 passes for 84 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. He also added 21 yards rushing on five carries. Was the first rookie quarterback to start a playoff game for the Redskins since Pro Football Hall of Famer Sammy Baugh started the 1937 NFL Championship on Dec. 12, 1937.

COLLEGE

Played in 41 games at Baylor, starting 40, eventually being named the recipient of the 77th Heisman Memorial Trophy (the first in Baylor history) following the 2011 season... In addition, also won the Davey O'Brien Award, Walter Camp Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Chic Harley Award, as well as earning national Player of the Year recognition from Sporting News, Yahoo! Sports and Fox Sports in 2011... Is the only player in school history to complete over 600 passes (800), attempt over 1,000 throws (1,192), compile a pass completion percentage over .650 (.671), throw for over 6,000 yards (10,366), amass more than 40 touchdown passes (78), compete in more than 1,100 total plays (1,720) and gain over 8,000 yards in total offense (12,620)... Exited Baylor with the lowest percentage of passes intercepted in NCAA FBS history (1.43%), and his pass efficiency rating of 189.48 in 2011 ranks second in NCAA season annals... Holds school single-season records with 454 pass attempts in 2010, along with a pass completion percentage of 72.3 percent, 37 touchdown tosses, 4,293 yards passing, 4,992 yards in total offense and most yards gained per pass attempt (10.68) in 2011... Was also a Track & Field All-American after finishing third at NCAA Outdoor Championships in 400-meter hurdles (49.55)... Won Big 12 gold medal in 400-meter hurdles with third-fastest time (49.22) in school history.

TRANSACTIONS

Selected by the Washington Redskins in the sixth round (173rd overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft.

PRO

Started all 16 regular season game and one postseason game in his rookie season in 2012... In his debut season, set the Redskins single-season rushing record with 1,613 yards on 335 carries and 13 touchdowns, all team rookie records... His 1,613 rushing yards as a rookie were second-most in the NFL in 2012 behind only MVP Adrian Peterson and were the third-most by a rookie in NFL history, behind Eric Dickerson and George Rogers.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

Selected by the Redskins with the draft pick received from Minnesota in exchange for QB Donovan McNabb... Started all 17 games (including postseason) for Washington and rushed 335 times for 1,613 yards and 13 touchdowns, all team rookie records. His 1,613 rushing yards broke Clinton Portis' team record (1,516 in 2005) and were the third highest total by a rookie in NFL history... Named a Pro Bowl Alternate... Started at running back in his NFL debut in a season-opening win at NO (9/9), finishing the game with 28 carries for 96 yards and the first two touchdowns of his career. Became the third Redskins rookie since the merger to score a rushing touchdown in Week 1, joining Michael Westbrook (1995) and Kelvin Bryant (1986)... Started at running back at STL (9/16) and had 16 carries for a team-high 89 yards, in the process becoming the first Redskins running back to post 85-plus-yard games in Weeks 1-2 since Stephen Davis in 1999... Started at running back vs. CIN (9/23), registering 17 rushing attempts for 78 yards and one touchdown on the ground. His third touchdown in the first three weeks made him the first Redskins rookie to score three rushing touchdowns in the first three weeks since Ray McDonald (1967)... Started at running back at TB (9/30), notching his first 100-yard rushing day with 113 yards on 21 carries (5.4 avg.). He and Robert Griffin III became the first pair of rookie teammates in NFL history to each rush for four touchdowns over their team's first four games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau... Started vs. ATL (10/7), and had a then-career-high 115 yards on 18 carries. He joined Eric Dickerson as the only rookies in NFL history to rush for at least 75 yards in each of their team's first five games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. He joined Larry Brown (1972), John Riggins (1983), George Rogers (1986), Earnest Byner (1991) and Terry Allen (1996) as the only backs in team history since the merger to open a season with at least 75 yards in the first five games of a season... Started and rushed 16 times for 47 yards (2.9 avg.) with a touchdown vs. MIN (10/14)... Started at NYG (10/21) and rushed 22 times for a career-high 120 yards (5.5 avg.), marking his third career 100-yard rushing performance. Also had a career-high two receptions for 10 yards (5.0 avg.). Earned Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors... Started at PIT (10/28) and rushed 13 times for 59 yards (4.5 avg.). Became the first Redskins rookie since at least 1970 to have seven 50-yard rushing games in the first eight games of a season... Started vs. CAR (11/4), and rushed for 76 yards on 13 carries (5.8 avg.). His 793 rushing yards through nine games, the most by a rookie through nine games since Adrian Peterson rushed for 1,081 yards through nine games as a rookie with Minnesota in 2007... Started in a win vs. PHI (11/18) and gained 76 rushing yards on 20 carries, giving him 869 rushing yards through 10 games, making him the 12th NFL rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to rush for 850 yards or more in the first 10 games of a season. Was the first Redskins rookie to accomplish the feat... Rushed for 113 yards on 24 carries (4.7 avg.) with one touchdown in a Thanksgiving Day win at DAL (11/22)... Started on Monday Night Football vs. NYG (12/3) and rushed for a career-high 124 yards on 22 carries, his fifth 100-yard rushing effort of the season. Morris' five 100-yard rushing games became the most by a Redskins rookie in a single season since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger. With a 19-yard run in the first quarter, he eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards for the season and became the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Redskins since Clinton Portis in 2008. It represents the 23rd 1,000-yard rushing season by a Redskins player in team history and only the second by a rookie. Morris broke the Redskins' record for rushing yards by a rookie with a 16-yard gain in the third quarter that pushed him past Reggie Brooks' former rookie record of 1,063 rushing yards for the Redskins during the 1993 season... Started in a win vs. BAL (12/9) and notched his third straight 100-yard rushing day, being credited with 23 carries for 122 yards and one touchdown. The league later amended his yardage total to 129, a career high. The 100-yard rushing game was his sixth of the season, marking the most 100-yard rushing games in a season by a Redskin since 2008 (Clinton Portis - six). Earned Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors for the performance, his second such award of the season... Started in a win at CLE (12/16) and finished the game with 26 carries for 87 rushing yards and two touchdowns. The two rushing touchdowns gave him nine on the season, surpassing Skip Hicks (eight in 1998) to set the Redskins' record for rushing touchdowns in a rookie season. The game was his' second multi-touchdown game of his career and his first since his NFL debut at New Orleans in Week 1... Started in a win at PHI (12/23) and gained 91 yards on 22 carries with one rushing touchdown. With the touchdown, he tied Pro Football Hall of Famer Charley Taylor for the Redskins' rookie record for total touchdowns in a season (10 in 1964). His 10 touchdowns this season mark the 12th double-digit rushing touchdown season in team history and the first since Clinton Portis in 2007 (11)... Started in a division-clinching win vs. DAL (12/30) and rushed 33 times for 200 rushing yards with three touchdowns, all career highs. Finished the season with 1,613 yards, breaking Clinton Portis' team record for rushing yards in a season (1,516 in 2005). Finished second in the NFL in rushing yards (1,613) and rushing touchdowns (13) this season behind Minnesota's Adrian Peterson and Houston's Arian Foster, respectively. His three rushing touchdowns vs. DAL tied a Redskins' team record, marking the 22nd time a Redskin has rushed for three touchdowns in a game. The 200-yard performance was a Redskins rookie record and the first by a Redskin of any experience level since Gerald Riggs' team-record 221 yards on Sept. 17, 1989, vs. Philadelphia. The game was his seventh 100-yard rushing performance of the season, the most by a Redskin since Portis in 2005 (nine).

A NOTE ON NAMES

Please include suffixes for the names of quarterback Robert Griffin III and running back Roy Helu, Jr. when possible. In addition, for all text media, please include the cedilla on the "c" in the name of wide receiver Pierre Garçon. On a full keyboard, the ç character can be inserted by holding ALT while typing "0231" on the numpad. Furthermore, the family of wide receiver Joshua Morgan prefers that he be referred to by his full first name "Joshua," rather than the shortened version, "Josh" in written references.

2012 GAME RECAPS

Sept. 9, 2012

GAME 1

Mercedes-Benz Superdome (New Orleans)

REDSKINS 40, SAINTS 32

NEW ORLEANS – The Washington Redskins opened their 2012 season with a 40-32 win against the New Orleans Saints in front of 72,180 people at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans.

The win was Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan's 166th overall victory as an NFL head coach. The win was Shanahan's 158th career regular season win, tying him with Pro Football Hall of Famer Bud Grant for 13th-most regular season wins all-time. It was also the debut of rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III, who started his first career NFL game and completed 19-of-26 passes for 320 yards, two touchdowns and a passer rating of 139.9.

Griffin III was the first player in NFL history to throw for 300 yards, two-plus touchdowns and no interceptions in an NFL debut. His first touchdown was an 88-yard strike to wide receiver Pierre Garçon, the longest pass play by the Redskins since Ed Rubbert's 88-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Allen in a strike game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals on Oct. 4, 1987, a span of 397 regular season games. The last time the Redskins had a pass completion of 88 yards or more in a non-strike game was Billy Kilmer's 96-yard touchdown pass to Frank Grant at the New York Giants on Nov. 9, 1975, a span of 571 regular season games.

The game was also the debut of rookie running back Alfred Morris, a sixth-round pick out of Florida Atlantic who amassed 96 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries.

GAME 2

Edward Jones Dome (St. Louis)

RAMS 31, REDSKINS 28

ST. LOUIS – The Washington Redskins fell to 1-1 on the season with a 31-28 defeat at the hands of the St. Louis Rams at the Edward Jones Dome in Week 2. Announced attendance for the game was 53,979.

The Redskins surged early in the game, as on the game's first play from scrimmage, linebacker Perry Riley forced a fumble by Rams wide receiver Danny Amendola that was recovered and returned 30 yards for a Redskins touchdown only 11 seconds into the game. The forced fumble was the first of Riley's career, and the touchdown was the fifth defensive score of Wilson's career, though his first via fumble return.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 20-of-29 passes for 206 yards and a touchdown and added 11 rushing attempts for 82 yards and another two scores on the ground. He became the first Redskins quarterback to rush for two touchdowns since Mark Rypien vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 7, 1993, a span of 297 regular season games. He also became the first rookie quarterback to score two rushing touchdowns for the Redskins since Norm Snead rushed for two touchdowns at Dallas on Nov. 19, 1961.

Amendola finished with 15 receptions for the Rams, setting a record for the most receptions by a Redskins' opponent in a single game. The record was previously held by Chicago's Mike Ditka (Oct. 25, 1964) and Dallas' Lance Rentzel (Nov. 19, 1967), who each had 13 in a single game against the Redskins.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

BENGALS 38, REDSKINS 31

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins dropped their home opener, 38-31, to the Cincinnati Bengals at FedExField in Week 2 in front of an announced crowd of 80,060. The game was the Redskins' 369th consecutive home sellout, including postseason contests.

After falling behind 7-0 on the first play from scrimmage, the Redskins responded with their second defensive touchdown in as many weeks when linebacker Rob Jackson, who started in place of injured linebacker Brian Orakpo, intercepted an Andy Dalton pass in the Cincinnati end zone for a touchdown. Including Josh Wilson's fumble recovery for touchdown at St. Louis a week earlier, the Redskins scored defensive touchdowns in consecutive weeks for the first time since 1994. The team accomplished the feat twice that season, first in Weeks 7-8 (Darrell Green interception return vs. Arizona on Oct. 16 and Andre Collins interception return at Indianapolis on Oct. 23) and again in Weeks 13-14 (Martin Bayless fumble return vs. NY Giants on Nov. 27 and Andre Collins interception return at Tampa Bay on Dec. 4).

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 21-of-34 passes for 221 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 90.4. He also led the Redskins in rushing yardage, gaining 85 yards on 12 carries. Griffin III ran for his third rushing touchdown of the season with a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter. The touchdown tied him with Al Dorow (three in 1954) and Norm Snead (three in 1961) for most rushing touchdowns by a Redskins quarterback in a rookie season.

Running back Alfred Morris had a team-high 17 carries, gaining 78 yards and adding his third rushing touchdown of the season. Morris became the first Redskin since Ray McDonald (1967) to rush for three touchdowns in the first three weeks of a rookie season.

Raymond James Stadium (Tampa, Fla.)

REDSKINS 24, BUCCANEERS 22

TAMPA, Fla. – The Washington Redskins improved to 2-2 on the season in come-from-behind fashion, as a 41-yard field goal sailed through the uprights with 0:03 remaining to give the team a 24-22 victory against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in front of an announced crowd of 58,191 at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa.

The win was Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan's 167th overall victory as an NFL head coach. It was his 159th regular season victory as an NFL head coach, pushing him past Pro Football Hall of Famer Bud Grant (158) for sole possession of 13th all-time in regular season wins.

The Redskins shot out to a 21-6 halftime lead, the team's largest halftime lead since leading Minnesota by 22 points on Dec. 23, 2007. The first half included quarterback Robert Griffin III's fourth rushing touchdown of the season, tying him with Joe Theismann (1979) and Eddie LeBaron (1955) for the Redskins record of rushing touchdowns by a quarterback in a single season. Running back Alfred Morris also scored his fourth rushing touchdown of the season in the first half, making Griffin III and Morris the first pair of rookie teammates in NFL history to each rush for four touchdowns over their team's first four games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The Redskins allowed 16 consecutive points to give the Buccaneers the lead with 1:42 remaining, but Griffin III engineered a seven-play, 56-yard drive in 1:39 to set up Cundiff's game-winner.

The Redskins accumulated 474 net offensive yards, the team's highest total since posting 481 yards vs. Jacksonville on Oct. 1, 2006, a span of 95 regular season games. The Redskins have now rushed for 150 yards or more in four consecutive games this season, the first time the team has done so since posting four 150-yard rushing games from Weeks 4-7 of the 2008 season.

GAME 5

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

FALCONS 24, REDSKINS 17

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the undefeated Atlanta Falcons, 24-17, at FedExField in Week 5 in front of an announced crowd of 75,337.

Rookie running back Alfred Morris received his fifth NFL start and had a career-high 115 yards on 18 carries. Morris joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson as the only rookies in NFL history to rush for at least 75 yards in each of their team's first five games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. It was Morris' second consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. The Redskins' last seven 100-yard rushers have been rookies (three by Roy Helu, Jr. in 2011, two by Evan Royster in 2011, two by Morris in 2012).

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan scored the second touchdown of his career, intercepting a Matt Ryan pass and returning it 28 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. It was his first score since his pick-six in his NFL debut vs. the New York Giants on Sept. 11, 2011. It was the Redskins' third defensive touchdown of the season, marking the first time the Redskins have scored at least three defensive touchdowns in a season since 1999 (four).

After an injury sidelined quarterback Robert Griffin III, rookie quarterback Kirk Cousins threw the first touchdown pass of his career, finding Santana Moss for a 77-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. The touchdown reception came on the 650th reception of Moss' career. It was Moss' 58th career receiving touchdown, his 39th as a Redskin and his second of the season. It was the second-longest of Moss' career, behind only a 78-yard touchdown reception at Kansas City on Oct. 15, 2005. Moss registered one more catch in the game, giving him 500 career receptions as a member of the Redskins, making him the fourth player in team history to reach the milestone.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 38, VIKINGS 26

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins snapped an eight-game home losing streak and improved to 3-3 this season with a 38-26 win against the Minnesota Vikings in front of an announced crowd of 78,476 people at FedExField.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 17-of-22 passes for 182 yards and a touchdown. He also tied career high in rushing attempts (13) and rushing touchdowns (two) and set a career high and quarterback team record with 138 rushing yards. The rush gave Griffin III 379 rushing yards on the season, establishing the team record for rushing yards by a quarterback in a single season.

Griffin III finished the evening with a 76-yard touchdown run, the longest by a quarterback in team history and the longest by an NFL quarterback since Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart rushed for an 80-yard touchdown against Carolina on Dec. 22, 1996. The run was the longest by any Redskin since Clinton Portis had a 78-yard run vs. the Kansas City Chiefs on Oct. 18, 2009.

Safety Madiou Williams scored in the fourth quarter on a 24-yard interception return. It was Williams' second career interception return for touchdown and his first as a Redskin. It was his first since scoring on a 51-yard interception return as a rookie for the Cincinnati Bengals on Oct. 31, 2004. It marked two consecutive games with interception return touchdowns for the first time since Weeks 7-8 of the 1994 season (Darrell Green and Andre Collins). The touchdown marked the fourth defensive touchdown in a season for the Redskins for the first time since 1999.

MetLife Stadium (East Rutherford, N.J.)

GIANTS 27, REDSKINS 23

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – The Redskins fell to 3-4 on the season with a 27-23 loss to the New York Giants in front of announced crowd of 81,352 people at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

A late touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Victor Cruz spoiled a dramatic fourth quarter comeback engineered by Redskins quarterback Robert Griffin III, who led the Redskins on a seven-play, 77-yard drive ending in a 30-yard touchdown pass to Santana Moss to take a 23-20 lead with 1:32 to play. Moss had two touchdown receptions on the day, the first of which was the 40th of Moss' tenure in Washington and the second of which was the 60th in Moss' career (including his time with the New York Jets). It was his eighth career game with two or more receiving touchdowns.

Running back Alfred Morris rushed 22 times for a career-high 120 yards, his third career 100-yard rushing performance. Washington rushed for 248 yards, the most yards gained by the Redskins on the ground since rushing for 296 yards against the New York Jets on Nov. 4, 2007.

The Redskins amassed a season-high 480 yards of total offense, the team's highest total since compiling 481 yards of offense vs. Jacksonville on Oct. 1, 2006. Through seven games, the team has scored 201 points, marking the fourth time since the 1970 merger that the team has reached 200 points in its first seven games.

GAME 8

Heinz Field (Pittsburgh)

STEELERS 27, REDSKINS 12

PITTSBURGH – The Washington Redskins fell to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 27-12, in front of an announced crowd of 62,371 people at Heinz Field in Pittsburgh. The loss dropped the Redskins to 3-5 on the season.

Despite missing two practices during the week with hamstring and balance issues, linebacker London Fletcher extended his consecutive games played streak to 232, the longest active streak in the NFL. He also extended his consecutive starts streak to 187. Fletcher finished the game with six tackles (five solo).

Robert Griffin III threw the eighth touchdown pass of his rookie season, finding wide receiver Santana Moss for a one-yard touchdown on fourth down in the second quarter. The receiving touchdown by Moss was the 61st of his career, 42nd as a Redskin and fifth of the 2012 season. Moss' five receiving touchdowns on the season matched the team's individual high from a season ago, when Jabar Gaffney recorded five touchdowns through 16 games.

The 86-yard rushing game snapped a streak in which the team had rushed for 100 yards or more in 13 consecutive games. Before Sunday, the Redskins' 13-game streak was the longest in the NFL by 10 games (St. Louis – three).

Running back Alfred Morris rushed 13 times for 59 yards. Morris' 717 rushing yards on the season to date marked the ninth time since the merger that a Redskins running back has compiled 700 or more rushing yards in the first eight games of a season. Through eight games, Morris has seven games with 50 or more rushing yards. He is the first Redskins rookie since at least 1970 to accomplish the feat in the first eight games of a season.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

PANTHERS 27, REDSKINS 13

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Carolina Panthers, 21-13, in front of an announced crowd of 79,767 at FedExField in Week 9.

The game was the Redskins' annual Homecoming Game. The more than 150 former players, coaches and staff in attendance represented a combined 1,024 seasons with the team, 80 Super Bowls, 43 members of the 80 Greatest Redskins, 21 members of the Redskins Ring of Fame and nine Pro Football Hall of Famers. The game was the first in NFL history contested between a Heisman-winning rookie quarterback (Redskins quarterback Robert Griffin III) and a Heisman-winning quarterback in his second NFL season (Carolina quarterback Cam Newton).

Griffin III completed 23-of-39 passes for 215 yards. With 23 completions, he tied Norm Snead's team record for completions in a rookie season (172, set in 1961). Snead was selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft, 51 years before the Redskins selected Griffin III with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. Griffin III also rushed 13 times for 76 yards, giving him 529 rushing yards for the season. Griffin III and rookie running back Alfred Morris became the first rookie quarterback-running back tandem in NFL history to each amass 500 rushing yards in a season.

Morris rushed for 76 yards on 13 carries. It was his seventh 75-yard rushing game of the season. The 76 yards gave Morris 793 rushing yards through nine games, the most by an NFL rookie running back through nine games since Adrian Peterson rushed for 1,081 yards through nine games as a rookie with Minnesota in 2007.

GAME 10

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 31, EAGLES 6

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins snapped a three-game losing streak with a 31-6 win against the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 11 in front of an announced crowd of 79,327 people at FedExField.

The 25-point margin of victory was the team's largest in the Mike Shanahan era and the team's biggest since defeating the Detroit Lions by 31 points on Oct. 7, 2007. The win also marked the Redskins' 80th against the Eagles including postseason games, the team's most wins against any opponent. The win improved Washington to 80-70-5 against Philadelphia all-time in combined regular season and postseason play.

The Redskins held the Eagles without a touchdown, marking the first time the Redskins have held an opponent without a touchdown since Week 3 at Dallas during the 2011 season. It was the first time the Redskins have held an opponent without a touchdown in a win since Dec. 21, 2008, when the Redskins defeated the Eagles, 10-3. Washington had two first-quarter interceptions, one each by DeAngelo Hall and Brandon Meriweather, marking the first time the Redskins had two first-quarter interceptions since on Nov. 2, 2003 at Dallas, when Matt Bowen and Ifeanyi Ohalet each had a first-quarter interception of Quincy Carter.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 14-of-15 passes (93.3 percent) for 200 yards with four touchdowns. He finished the game with a perfect 158.3 passer rating and also contributed 84 rushing yards on 12 carries. He became the third rookie in NFL history to surpass the 2,000-yard mark passing and the 500-yard mark rushing in a season, and he also became the first rookie in NFL history to pass for 200 yards, rush for 75 yards and throw for four touchdowns in a single game.

The win was Head Coach Mike Shanahan's 169th overall victory as an NFL head coach, pushing him past Pro Football Hall of Famer Bud Grant for sole possession of 14th all-time. It was Shanahan's 161st regular season victory as an NFL head coach.

GAME 11

Cowboys Stadium (Arlington, Texas)

REDSKINS 38, COWBOYS 31

ARLINGTON, Texas – The Washington Redskins defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 38-31, in Week 12 on Thanksgiving Day in front of an announced crowd of 90,166 people at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

The game was the Redskins' first on Thanksgiving Day since 2002 and represented the Redskins' first Thanksgiving Day win since defeating the Detroit Lions, 20-0, in 1973. The win was the Redskins' first Thanksgiving Day win against Dallas in franchise history.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 20-of-28 passes for 311 yards and four touchdowns. His four touchdowns tied his career high set against Philadelphia last week, and his 300-yard passing performance was the third of his career (his first since Week 4 at Tampa Bay). During the game, he broke single-season team records for passing yards by a rookie (Norm Snead's 2,337 in 1961) and passing touchdowns by a rookie (Eddie LeBaron's 14 in 1952). He became the first player in Redskins history to pass for four touchdowns in consecutive games.

Griffin III's four passing touchdowns were the most in a single game by a Redskins quarterback on Thanksgiving Day, surpassing the three Thanksgiving Day touchdowns thrown by Jim Ninowski (Nov. 28, 1968) and Danny Wuerffel (Nov. 28, 2002). Griffin III's 311 yards are also the most by a Redskins quarterback on Thanksgiving Day, surpassing Ninowski's 280.

Washington held the Cowboys to 35 yards rushing, marking the Redskins' second-best effort against the run the season and their best effort since holding New Orleans to 32 rushing yards in Week 1.

GAME 12

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 17, GIANTS 16

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins even their record this season at 6-6 with a 17-16 win against the New York Giants in front of an announced crowd of 80,246 people at FedExField in Week 13.

The win gave the Redskins their first three-game winning streak since winning four in a row from Weeks 2-5 of the 2008 season. With wins against Philadelphia, Dallas and the Giants in that stretch, the Redskins won three games against NFC East opponents in three consecutive weeks for the first time since Weeks 15-17 of the 2005 season.

Head Coach Mike Shanahan recorded his 171st overall victory as an NFL head coach, pushing him past Paul Brown and tying him with Redskins legend Joe Gibbs for 12th all-time in NFL history.

Running back Alfred Morris rushed for a career-high 124 yards on 22 carries, his fifth 100-yard rushing effort this season. With a 19-yard run in the first quarter, Morris eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards for the season and became the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Redskins since Clinton Portis in 2008. It represents the 23rd 1,000-yard rushing season by a Redskins player in team history and only the second by a rookie. Morris broke the Redskins' record for rushing yards by a rookie with a 16-yard gain in the third quarter that pushed him past Reggie Brooks' former rookie record of 1,063 rushing yards for the Redskins during the 1993 season.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III rushed for 72 yards on five carries. Griffin III now has 714 rushing yards this season, setting an NFL record for rushing yards by a rookie quarterback, a record formerly held by Carolina's Cam Newton (706 in 2011). Griffin III helped the Redskins overcome a six-point deficit entering the fourth quarter. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Griffin III became the first rookie quarterback for the Redskins to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback when trailing after three quarters since Harry Theofiles on Dec. 15, 1968 vs. Detroit.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 31, RAVENS 28 (OT)

LANDOVER, Md. – The Redskins improved to 7-6 on the season with a 31-28 come-from-behind overtime win against the Baltimore Ravens in front of an announced crowd of 81,178 people at FedExField on Sunday. The win was the Redskins' fourth consecutive and gave the team its first four-game winning streak since Weeks 2-5 of the 2008 season.

Head Coach Mike Shanahan earned his 172nd combined regular season and postseason victory as an NFL head coach, pushing him past Redskins legend Joe Gibbs for sole possession of 12th all-time in NFL history.

Rookie quarterback Kirk Cousins led an eight-point fourth-quarter comeback, making the Redskins the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to have two different rookie quarterbacks lead fourth-quarter comeback wins in the same season. Cousins converted the game-tying two-point conversion on a quarterback draw, marking the first time in team history that the Redskins had scored a two-point conversion to send a game to overtime.

In overtime, kicker Kai Forbath hit his first career game-winning field goal, converting on a 34-yard attempt. The kick improved Forbath to 14-of-14 on field goal attempts in his career.

The Redskins rushed for 172 yards, giving Washington an NFL-high 12 games with 100 or more rushing yards this season, the most for the Redskins in a season since posting 13 games of 100-plus rushing yards in 2006. Washington's 31 points were the team's sixth 30-point output this season, marking the first time Washington has scored 30 or more points six times in a season since 1996 (six).

GAME 14

Cleveland Browns Stadium (Cleveland)

REDSKINS 38, BROWNS 21

CLEVELAND – The Redskins improved to 8-6 this season with a 38-21 win against the Cleveland Browns in front of an announced crowd of 65,083 people at Cleveland Browns Stadium in Week 15. With an 8-6 record, the Redskins are tied with the New York Giants and Dallas Cowboys atop the NFC East. Washington holds the tiebreaker over the two teams and currently controls its destiny in the NFC East title race. The win gave Washington a share of first place in the NFC East after 15 weeks for the first time since 1999.

The win was the Redskins' fifth straight and gives the team its first five-game regular season winning streak since Weeks 13-17 of the 2005 season.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins made his first NFL start. He and Robert Griffin III became the first duo to each have started a game for the Redskins as rookies in the same season since Heath Shuler and Gus Frerotte in 1994. With Cousins' victory in Week 15 and Griffin III's win at New Orleans in Week 1, the Redskins became the first team in a non-strike season to have two different rookie quarterbacks win their first career starts in the same season since rookies John Elway and Gary Kubiak won their starting debuts with the Denver Broncos in 1983.

Cousins completed 26-of-37 passes for 329 yards with two touchdowns, all career highs. With the performance, the Redskins became the first team in NFL history to have two different rookie quarterbacks post 300-yard passing games in the same season.

Running back Alfred Morris finished the game with 27 carries for 87 rushing yards and two touchdowns. The two rushing touchdowns give him nine on the season, surpassing Skip Hicks (eight in 1998) to set the Redskins' record for rushing touchdowns in a rookie season.

Linebacker London Fletcher, a Cleveland native playing in his first game in his hometown, recorded his fourth interception of the season, picking off Weeden for the 22nd interception of his career. His 22 interceptions tie him with Chicago's Brian Urlacher for second-most by an active linebacker.

GAME 15

Lincoln Financial Field (Philadelphia)

REDSKINS 27, EAGLES 20

PHILADELPHIA – The Washington Redskins improved to 9-6 on the season with a 27-20 win against the Philadelphia Eagles in front of an announced crowd of 69,144 people at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia on Sunday. The win put the Redskins one win away from their first division title since 1999.

The win made the Redskins victors of their last six consecutive games and gave them their first six-game winning streak since the final five weeks and the NFC Wild Card Round of the 2005 season. The six-game winning streak is the Redskins' first six-game regular season winning streak since winning seven in a row in Weeks 2-9 of the 1996 season. At 9-6, the Redskins are at least three games above .500 after 15 games for the first time since being 10-6 after the final week of the 2005 season.

Kicker Kai Forbath converted field goal attempts of 45 and 42 yards in the second quarter, improving him to 17-for-17 this season and breaking Garrett Hartley's NFL record for consecutive field goals made to start a career (16).

Quarterback Robert Griffin III returned to the starting lineup and completed 16-of-24 passes for 198 yards with two touchdowns. Running back Alfred Morris started and gained 91 yards on 22 carries with one rushing touchdown. Morris has 1,413 rushing yards this season through 15 games, the fourth-highest total by a Redskin in a single season. His total marks the fifth time in team history that a player has rushed for at least 1,400 yards in a season (Clinton Portis and Stephen Davis each accomplished the feat in two seasons). Morris (1,413) and Griffin III (752) have combined for 2,165 rushing yards this season, the most by a pair of teammates in a season in Redskins history.

Linebacker London Fletcher registered an interception in the second quarter. It was his 23rd career interception, giving him sole possession of second-most by an active linebacker (Ray Lewis – 31). It marked Fletcher's third straight game with an interception, the first time in his career with at least one interception in three consecutive contests.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 28, COWBOYS 18

LANDOVER, Md. – The Redskins earned their first division title since 1999 with a 28-18 win against the Dallas Cowboys in front of an announced crowd of 82,845 people at FedExField on Sunday. At 10-6, the Redskins won their first NFC East championship since 1999. With the Redskins winning the NFC East one season after finishing in last in the division, the Redskins completed their first “worst-to-first” one-season turnaround in team history.

The Redskins became the fourth team since 1990 to earn a playoff berth after opening the season 3-6 and the first since the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars. The win was the Redskins’ seventh consecutive and gave the team its first seven-game winning streak since winning seven in a row in Weeks 2-9 of the 1996 season.

Running back Alfred Morris rushed 33 times for 200 rushing yards with three touchdowns, all career highs. With the 200 yards on Sunday, Morris finished the season with 1,613 yards, breaking Clinton Portis’ team record for rushing yards in a season (1,516 in 2005). The three rushing touchdowns tied a Redskins’ team record, marking the 22nd time a Redskin has rushed for three touchdowns in a game. The 200-yard rushing performance by Morris is a Redskins rookie record and is the first by a Redskin of any experience level since Gerald Riggs’ team-record 221 yards on Sept. 17, 1989, vs. Philadelphia.

The Redskins finished the regular season with 2,709 rushing yards for the season, breaking the team record for rushing yards in a season (formerly 2,625 in 1983). With that total, the Redskins earned the team rushing crown for the 2012 season. The rushing title is the Redskins’ first since 1933, the team’s second year of existence. That season, the Boston Redskins rushed for a league-high 2,258 yards.

Culminating with his performance in Week 17, quarterback Robert Griffin III set NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4, surpassing Russell Wilson’s 100.0 passer rating this season and Ben Roethlisberger’s 98.1 from the 2004 season) and for percentage of passes intercepted (1.3 percent, breaking Charlie Batch’s 1.98 percent).

NFC WILD CARD ROUND

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

SEAHAWKS 24, REDSKINS 14

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins' 2012 season concluded with a 24-14 loss to the Seattle Seahawks in front of an announced crowd of 84,435 people at FedExField in the NFC Wild Card Round. The attendance represented the largest crowd to see a Redskins postseason home game in team history, surpassing the previous record of 79,411 from Jan. 8, 2000 (NFC Wild Card Round vs. Detroit). It was the third biggest crowd to see a Redskins playoff game at any location, trailing only Super Bowl XVII (103,667 in Pasadena, Calif.) and Super Bowl VII (90,182 in Los Angeles).

The game was the Redskins' 41st playoff game in franchise history and their first since facing the Seahawks in the NFC Wild Card Round on Jan. 5, 2008. The Redskins are now 23-18 in postseason play all-time and 6-2 all-time in NFC Wild Card Round games.

The defeat snapped a seven-game winning streak for the Redskins dating back to the first week of November. The seven-game winning streak was the Redskins' longest since 1996 (seven). It also snapped a five-game home postseason winning streak dating back to the 1986 NFC Wild Card Round. The five-game winning streak is the second-longest postseason home winning streak in team history, trailing an eight-game home winning streak from 1942-84.

The Redskins sacked Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson five times in the game. The five sacks were the most by the Redskins in a postseason game since Jan. 8, 2000 (five vs. Detroit, NFC Wild Card Round).

Quarterback Robert Griffin III started and became the first quarterback born in the 1990s (Feb. 12, 1990) to start an NFL playoff game. He was the first rookie quarterback to start a playoff game for the Redskins since Pro Football Hall of Famer Sammy Baugh started the 1937 NFL Championship for Washington on Dec. 12, 1937. He threw the first two postseason touchdown passes of his career in the game, connecting with running back Evan Royster and tight end Logan Paulsen each for four-yard touchdowns in the first quarter.

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932

George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought an National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name

The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937

The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937

The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937

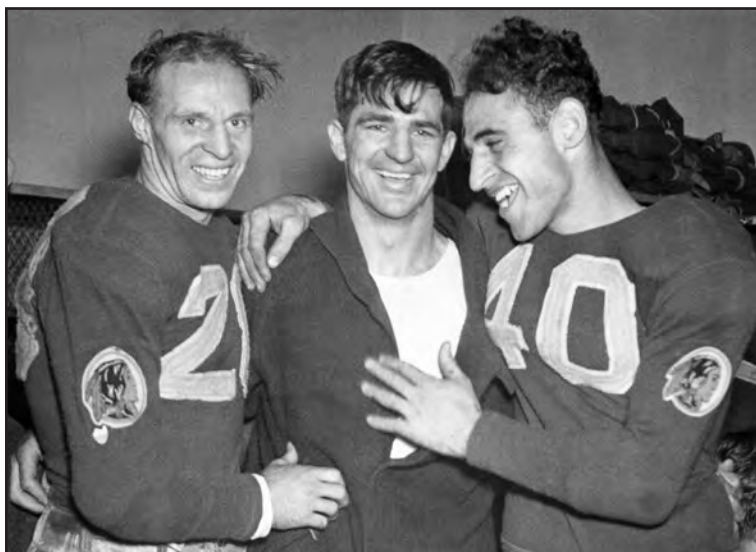

The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Redskins 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937

Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Westward Ho! - Aug. 2, 1939

The Redskins set forth on their first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash.

Zero Hour - Oct. 1, 1939

The Redskins and Giants battled in the mud and rain as the outcome wound up being a scoreless tie, the only scoreless tie in Redskins history.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939

From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940

Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but the Redskins won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

73-to-Ohhh! - Dec. 8, 1940

Despite the Redskins gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

California - Aug. 18, 1941

The Redskins brought pro football on a large scale to California for the first time. They established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes - Nov. 23, 1941

There were 50 seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game and the Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants managed to score a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942

The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing, completed just ONE pass...but it was good for a touchdown; then they captured another touchdown on an interception and the Redskins suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942

The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

Runner Up- Dec. 26, 1943

Sam Baugh suffered a concussion early tackling Sid Luckman on a punt return and the Bears went on to win the NFL title, 41-21.

To a T - July 30, 1945

Redskins abandoned their double-wing formation and adopted the T-formation.

East Champs - Dec. 9, 1945

The Redskins had two straight shutouts, the first coming against the Steelers, 24-0, on Dec. 2 and the team defeated the Giants, 17-0, en route to an Eastern title.

One Point Shy - Dec. 16, 1945

In subzero weather, the Redskins lost the world title to Rams, 15-14, on freakish plays. Baugh's pass from the end zone hit the goal-post for a safety (no longer allowed); and Waterfield's try-for-point hit the crossbar and bounced over.

Charity Game - Sept. 6, 1946

The First Annual Redskins-Rams game for benefit for the Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc. drew 68,188 to Memorial Coliseum and netted the Times Boys Club $96,711.23.

High Note - June 13, 1947

The Redskins Band performed at the Philadelphia Inquirer's Famed Festival of Music alongside Whiteman, Waring and the Philharmonic.

IMPORTANT DATES

Champs Trumped - Nov. 23, 1947

Fans cheered on Sam Baugh who thanked them with six touchdown tosses, routing the previous-champion Cards, 45-21.

First on TV - June 14, 1950

American Oil announced plans to televise all Redskins games - no other pro teams were on TV.

Baugh-to-Bach - Oct. 10, 1954

Dr. Howard Mitchell led his National Symphony Orchestra at mid-field in a half-time show.

TD Torrent - Oct. 1, 1955

Twenty-one points in 137 seconds! The Eagles led 16-0 in the 3rd quarter when Brito recovered a fumble on the Eagles' 32 and LeBaron then passed to Janowicz for the touchdown. Torgeson recovered a fumble on Eagles 13 and Janowicz went on to score. The Redskins won, 31-30.

The Alumni - Oct. 15, 1958

The Redskins Alumni Association was established. Twenty-three former players residing here adopted a formal constitution and by-laws. They invited all non-resident ex-Redskins to join.

New Home - Dec. 12, 1958

Redskins signed a 30-year lease to play in a proposed D.C. Stadium that Congress gave the go-ahead to build.

Redskins Trade for Mitchell - Dec. 14, 1961

The Redskins finalize an agreement to send their 1962 first overall draft pick, Heisman trophy winning back Ernie Davis, to the Cleveland Browns in exchange for future Pro Football Hall of Famer Bobby Mitchell.

Home Debut - Oct. 1, 1961

The first game in the new D.C. Stadium drew 37,767. The Redskins failed to hold a 21-7 lead and the Giants won, 24-21.

Four of a Kind - Dec. 17, 1961

Dick James scored four touchdowns to set the Redskins single game scoring record in a 34-24 win over Dallas.

Sonny and Sam - 1964

The Redskins stunned the public by trading QB Norm Snead to the Eagles for veteran QB Sonny Jurgensen. The team then repeated the performance by shipping favorite Dick James to New York for Sam Huff.

A Sunny Day - Oct. 11, 1964

Sonny Jurgensen out-dueled Norm Snead by throwing four touchdowns against the Eagles in the first meeting of the traded quarterbacks.

Record Rally - Nov. 28, 1965

Sonny Jurgensen sparked the greatest comeback win in Redskin history. Down 21-0, the Redskins recorded a 34-31 victory over the Cowboys as Sonny passed for over 400 yards and 3 touchdowns.

Graham Era - Jan. 25, 1966

TD Jamboree - Nov. 27, 1966

The Redskins and Giants scored the most points in NFL history as they tied or set many team and league records in Washington's rout of New York, 72-41.

Record Breakers - 1967

Sonny Jurgensen set new Redskins and NFL passing records for most attempts, completions, and yards in a season. Receivers Charley Taylor, Jerry Smith and Bobby Mitchell finished first, second and fourth in the League; it was the highest ever by receivers on the same team.

Lombardi Hired - Feb. 7, 1969

George Preston - Aug. 9, 1969

George Preston Marshall, founder of the Washington Redskins, died at his home at the age of 72.

A Winning Season - Dec. 14, 1969

The Redskins defeated New Orleans by a score of 17-14 to ensure their first winning season since 1955. The victory also continued Coach Lombardi's record of never having coached a losing NFL team.

Lombardi Dies - Sept. 3, 1970

The sports world grieves the death of Vincent T. Lombardi, Head Coach and Executive Vice President of the Redskins.

1,000-Yard Club - Dec. 13, 1970

Larry Brown, on the second offensive play of the game against the Eagles and needing four yards to break the 1,000-yard barrier, gained 12 yards to become the first Redskin in history to become a member of the 1,000- yard club.

NFL Rushing Champ - Dec. 20, 1970

Larry Brown ended the season as the top rusher in the NFL with a total of 1,125 yards on 237 attempts for a 4.7 avg. He was the first Redskin since Cliff Battles in 1937 to win the rushing title.

Allen Hired - Jan. 6, 1971

George Allen, winningest coach in the NFC, was named the Redskins' Head Coach and General Manager.

A New Home - June 2, 1971

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held for the Redskins new home, Redskins Park, near Dulles Airport.

Future is Now - 1971

Allen guided the Redskins to the most wins, nine, in 29 years with a 9-4-1 record. It was the first time in 29 years that the Redskins earned a championship playoff game.

Coach of Year - 1971

George Allen was voted NFL and NFC "Coach of the Year."

NFC Champions - 1972

The Redskins won their first title in 30 years with a convincing 26-3 win over the defending World Champion Dallas Cowboys in RFK Stadium, following a 16-3 playoff victory over Green Bay. The Redskins lost 14-7 to Miami in Super Bowl VII in the LA Coliseum.

Player of Year - 1972

Larry Brown, honored by all selections as NFL "Player of Year," won NFC rushing title by setting a new Redskins rushing record with his 1,216 yards.

NFC Coach of Year - 1972

For a second year in a row, George Allen awarded "Coach of Year" honors.

Wild Card - 1973

The Redskins and Cowboys tied for the best record in the NFC East, but Dallas wins division in a tiebreaker based on better point differential (net 13 points).

IMPORTANT DATES

4th Straight Playoffs - 1974

For the fourth consecutive year, George Allen's "Over the Hill Gang" reached the playoffs.

All-time Receiver - Dec. 21, 1975

Redskins wide receiver Charley Taylor became the all-time receptions leader in NFL history with his 634th career catch coming against the Eagles in the season's finale.

Jurgensen Retires - May 1, 1975

Quarterback Sonny Jurgensen retired after playing for 18 seasons in the NFL, 11 in a Redskins uniform.

Milton King Dies - Jan. 23, 1976

Milton King, vice president and treasurer of the Redskins, died at the age of 85.

Return to Playoffs - 1976

By winning the final four games, including wins at Dallas and at St. Louis, the Redskins made the playoffs for the fifth time in six years under Allen.

Pardee Hired - Jan. 24, 1978

Jack Pardee, former Redskin player and coach, was named the 19th head coach in Redskins history.

Presidential Visit - Oct. 2, 1978

President Jimmy Carter became the second President ever to attend a regular season NFL game when he and Mrs. Carter, along with son Chip and wife Caron, saw the Monday night Cowboys-Redskins clash.

Off to the Races - 1978

By winning the first six games, including wins over rivals Dallas and St. Louis and playoff bound New England, the Redskins enjoyed their best start in over 35 years.

Good News, Bad News - 1979

The 10-6 record was the ninth consecutive year that the Redskins finished .500 or better. Both the division title and wild card playoff game were lost in the final seconds of the game in Dallas, 35-34.

100 Straight - 1980

The Redskins extended the NFL's longest consecutive streak of sellouts to 100, dating back to 1966.

Gibbs Hired - Jan. 13, 1981

Joe Gibbs, offensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers, became the 20th head coach in Redskins history.

Finishing Kick - 1981

Victorious in 8 of their final 11 games, Coach Gibbs and his Redskins set or tied 13 club records.

Huff Inducted - Aug. 7, 1982

Former Redskin and Giant Sam Huff was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A New Beginning - Sept. 12, 1982

With the 0-5 start of a year ago, the 0-4 preseason fresh on everyone's mind, Mark Moseley lifted the burden with a 26-yard overtime field goal to give the Redskins a victory over Philadelphia. Moseley had only minutes earlier sent the game into overtime with a 48-yard field goal.

Strike! - Sept. 21, 1982

The NFL players walked out in a strike that would last until Nov. 17. In all, eight games were missed, seven cancelled.

Holy Moseley! - Dec. 19, 1982

With time running out, the game on the line, with an NFL record at stake, Mark Moseley beat the Giants by booting his 21st straight field goal in a snowy RFK Stadium. The kick broke Garo Yepremian's record of 20 consecutive field goals made and gave the Redskins a 15-14 win. Also, in the game, John Riggins became only the fifth back in NFL history to exceed 2,000 carries (Payton, Simpson, Brown, and Harris are the others).

A Whitewash - Jan. 2, 1983

For the first time since 1980, the Redskins post a shutout by beating the Cardinals 28-0. Their 8-1 record was the best in the NFC, giving them home-field advantage throughout the playoffs. The 128 points given up by the Redskins defense is the fewest in the NFL.

Hogs Take Their Bows - Jan. 15, 1982

The celebrated Hogs created enough holes in the Viking defense for John Riggins to plow for a Redskins playoff record 185 yards, leading Washington to a 21-7 win and a spot in the NFC Championship. Before leaving the game, Riggins gallantly bowed to the 54,000-plus Redskins faithful who roared in approval.

Sweet Revenge - Jan. 22, 1983

The Redskins avenged their only loss of the season, setting back the Cowboys, 31-17, to reach their second Super Bowl, and first in 10 years.

Super Bowl Win! - Jan. 30, 1983

The Redskins won Super Bowl XVII downing the Dolphins 27-17. Their win streak reached eight, and 15 of 16 and 20 of 24 over two seasons. Jack Kent Cooke accepted the Super Bowl Trophy from Pete Rozelle in the locker room as MVP Riggins boasts, "Ron may be President, but for tonight, I'm King." The Redskins' 12-1 record was the fifth best NFL mark in the last 50 years, and their best ever.

Hails from the Chief - Jan. 31, 1983

President Reagan and Mrs. Reagan were at Dulles Airport to greet the World Champion Redskins as they arrived back from California.

Parade of Stars - Feb. 3, 1983

The entire city of Washington celebrated as the Redskins paraded before some 500,000 fans in a downtown ceremony amidst pouring rain. Coach Gibbs holds up the Super Bowl Trophy and proclaimed, "This is for you."

High Honors - 1983

Joe Gibbs was named Coach of the Year. Mark Moseley was named NFL MVP by Associated Press, Joe Theismann was Miller Man of the Year, and five Redskins (the most since 1972) were named to the Pro Bowl: Moseley, Theismann, Tony Peters, Charlie Brown, and Mike Nelms. Later, Bobby Beathard was named Executive of the Year. And Riggins, who had four straight 100-yard rushing playoff games, the first ever to do so, won a car as Super Bowl MVP.

Jurgy to Mitch - July 30, 1983

Former Redskin greats quarterback Sonny Jurgensen and receiver Bobby Mitchell were inducted into Pro Football's Hall of Fame.

Monday Night Fever - Oct. 1, 1983

The Redskins lost 48-47, in the highest scoring game in night football history. The Redskins and the Packers combined for over 1,000 yards of total offense.

IMPORTANT DATES

The Diesel Keeps Trucking On - Nov. 20, 1983

John Riggins set an NFL record as his consecutive games with rushing touchdowns reached 12 while notching his 19th touchdown of the year to tie that NFL mark. John's streak ended at 13 consecutive games while he went on to establish an NFL record 24 touchdowns.

Doomsday Showdown - Dec. 11, 1983

Dressed in army fatigues, the Redskins marched into Dallas to do battle. The result was a convincing 31-10 victory in Dallas to gain sole possession of first place in the NFC East. It was a game that saw Tony Dorsett held to 34 yards on 14 carries (one yard on five carries in the second half) and scores from four different Redskins.

Alone on a Hill - Dec. 17, 1983

For the second year in a row, the Redskins finished with the best record in the NFL. Their 31-22 victory over the Giants capped a remarkable 14-2 regular season. It was the first time in the history of the League that an NFC team compiled so many victories.

One-Two Punch - 1983

Mark Moseley's NFL kick scoring record of 161 points, and Riggins' total of 144 points, topped the entire NFL. It was the first time since 1951 that the number one and two scorers played on the same team. Their total of 305 points surpassed the totals of eight other clubs.

Ring Out the Rams - Jan. 1, 1984

The Redskins rang in the New Year by drubbing the L.A. Rams 51-7 in the most lopsided playoff game in 26 years. The team set or tied 13 club playoff marks with the 44-point margin of victory, the greatest in the 47-year history of the Redskins.

Three of a Kind - 1985

The 10 victories marked a third consecutive season the Redskins won 10 or more games, equaling a club-best streak set from 1972-74. The 35 wins in those three seasons were a club record for wins over a three-year period. Threes were also meaningful for offensive linemen Joe Jacoby and Russ Grimm, who each earned a third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. Receiver Art Monk (91 catches) went for a second straight time.

Happy Birthday - Feb. 13, 1986

The Washington Redskins entered their 50th season in the Nation's Capital, celebrating the franchise's move from Boston to Washington.

Rally Ho - 1986

Headed by Coach Ray Flaherty of the 1937 World Champions, former players and coaches gathered to kickoff the 1986 season.

Little Mr. Big - Oct. 27, 1986

WR Gary Clark accounted for 241 receiving yards (on 11 catches) to break teammate Art Monk's club record on Monday Night TV.

Showdown - Nov. 23, 1986

Eager to avenge their first loss of 1986, the Redskins came out smokin' against Dallas. The 34-0 first half lead marked the most points the Cowboys had ever allowed in a single half of play. The Redskins 41-14 win was their most points ever against the Cowboys.

Gibbs Gets #70 - Jan. 3, 1987

Head Coach Joe Gibbs became the winningest coach in Redskin history, gaining his 70th win as the team defeated the Bears 27-13 in a divisional playoff.

A Giant Step - Jan. 11, 1987

With 15 new faces on the roster, the Washington Redskins played in their third NFC Championship game in five years.

Pro Bowlers, Again - Feb. 1, 1987

Hogs Russ Grimm and Joe Jacoby returned to the Islands of Hawaii for the fourth consecutive season. Joined by Art Monk, Darrell Green, Gary Clark, Dexter Manley, and Jay Schroeder, the Redskins equaled a club record seven participants in the annual classic.

NFLPA Strike - 1987

NFL players walked out following the second week of the regular season.

Perfect - Oct. 19, 1987

Redskins "replacement" players closed out their season with a perfect 3-0 mark. The team held on to defeat Dallas, 13-7, in Texas Stadium.

Relief Pitcher - Dec. 26, 1987

Quarterback Doug Williams connected on 11-of-22 for 217 yards and two touchdowns in Minnesota. The 27-24 overtime victory is highlighted by a Ricky Sanders 51-yard catch-and-run to force sudden death. Haji-Sheikh kicks the game winner.

The Bear Facts - Jan. 10, 1988

For the second time in two years, the 'Skins traveled to Chicago for a divisional playoff game. After trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, the team rallied to win 21-17. Darrell Green provided the game-winning points on an electrifying 52-yard punt return, as the Redskins advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the fourth time in six seasons.

NFC Champs! - Jan. 17, 1988

The Redskins are 17-10 victors over the Minnesota Vikings as Doug Williams connected with Gary Clark to break a 10-10 fourth quarter deadlock. Washington became the first team to advance to the Super Bowl three times in the 1980s.

World Champs! - Jan. 31, 1988

Twenty Super Bowl records were broken en route to a 42-10 decision over the Denver Broncos. Quarterback Doug Williams (below) is named the game's MVP as he connected on 18-of-29 for a record 340 yards. His four touchdown passes tie another record as the team scores five times in five possessions in the second quarter alone.

100 Wins - Dec. 10, 1989

Joe Gibbs registered his 100th career win as head coach of the Redskins as the team defeated San Diego, 26-21. Only six other coaches reached 100 wins faster than Gibbs.

Monk Moves Up - Dec. 10, 1989

Art Monk moved into third place on the all-time NFL receiving list, ahead of friend and receivers coach Charley Taylor, in Washington's 26-21 win vs. SD.

IMPORTANT DATES

A Lion of a Comeback - Nov. 4, 1990

The Redskins equaled the greatest comeback in club history with a 41-38 overtime win at Detroit. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge rallied the Skins by passing for 363 second-half yards (30-42). The game winning points came on a Chip Lohmiller 34-yard field goal in overtime.

700 Catches - Nov. 18, 1990

Art Monk became only the third player in NFL history to catch 700 passes when he hauled in four receptions against the Saints in RFK.

Ring in the New Year - Jan. 5, 1991

The Redskins pushed their playoff record to 12-3 under Joe Gibbs with a solid team effort 20-6 win over the Eagles at Veterans Stadium.

Perfect Start - 1991

One of the Best - 1991

The Redskins became only the sixth team in NFL history to record 17-or-more wins in a single season by posting a 17-2 overall mark (best in team history).

Hog Protection - 1991

In 16 games, the "Hogs" allowed a league-low and club-record nine sacks. It was the third lowest total in NFL history.

A Class Act - Dec. 22, 1991

Art Monk becomes only the second player in NFL history to catch 800 passes when he caught five passes in the season finale at Philadelphia.

NFC Champs - Jan. 12, 1992

For the fourth time under Joe Gibbs, and the fifth time in franchise history, the Redskins returned to the Super Bowl with a 41-10 win over Detroit in the NFC title game.

World Champs! - Jan. 26, 1992

OVERTIME GAMES

In 1974, the NFL established overtime to decide regular season games. Since then, the Redskins have compiled a 23-14-1 record in overtime games.

Nov. 2, 1975 - RFK Stadium

Washington 30, Dallas 24

Ken Houston returned a Roger Staubach interception 14 yards, and Billy Kilmer scored the winning touchdown after 6:34 of overtime action.

Nov. 16, 1975 - Busch Stadium

St. Louis 20, Washington 17

The Cards scored with 20 seconds remaining on a catch by Mel Gray to force overtime. St. Louis won the coin toss and marched to set up a 37-yard Jim Bakken field goal to win after seven minutes of play.

Nov. 23, 1975 - RFK Stadium

Oakland 26, Washington 23

George Blanda's 27-yard field goal decided the contest after 7:13.

Sept. 27, 1976 - Veterans Stadium

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Mark Moseley's 29-yard field goal won the Monday night game with 12:49 elapsed in overtime.

Nov. 12, 1978 - RFK Stadium

Washington 16, New York Giants 13

Washington won on Moseley's 45-yard field goal after 3:32 elapsed.

Nov. 15, 1981 - Giants Stadium

Washington 30, New York Giants 27

Moseley kicked a 49-yard field goal on the game's final play to force overtime and a 48-yard field goal to win with 3:44 elapsed.

Sept. 12, 1982 - Veterans Stadium

Washington 37, Philadelphia 34

The Redskins sent the game into overtime on a 48-yard field goal by Moseley with :01 to play. Moseley won the game with a 26-yarder.

Nov. 2, 1986 - RFK Stadium

Washington 44, Minnesota 38

Jay Schroeder engineered a four-play, 63-yard drive ending with a Gary Clark 38-yard touchdown pass.

Dec. 26, 1987 - Metrodome

Washington 27, Minnesota 24

Ricky Sanders' 51-yard touchdown reception from Doug Williams with less than two minutes remaining tied the score at 24. Ali Haji-Sheikh kicked the 26-yard game-winning field goal after Sanders' 36-yard kickoff return in overtime.

Dec. 17, 1988 - Riverfront Stadium

Cincinnati 20, Washington 17

Jim Breech connected from 20 yards out seven minutes into sudden death.

Nov. 4, 1990 - Pontiac Silverdome

Washington 41, Detroit 38

Chip Lohmiller's 34-yard field goal 9:10 into overtime capped the Redskins comeback that equaled the team's greatest in history. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge's 12-yard run tied the game with :18 seconds remaining.

Nov. 3, 1991 - RFK Stadium

Washington 16, Houston 13

Darrell Green intercepted a Warren Moon pass which set-up Lohmiller's 41-yard field goal 5:01 into overtime moving the Redskins to a 9-0 record. The Oilers tied the game with less than two minutes in regulation and had a chance to win after Brian Mitchell fumbled the kickoff, but Ian Howfield's 33-yard attempt sailed wide left.

Oct. 16, 1994 - RFK Stadium

Arizona 19, Washington 16

Arizona scored the tying touchdown with :19 left in regulation. Arizona's game-winner was set up by Terry Hoage, who intercepted a Heath Shuler pass and returned it 12 yards to the 23. Peterson kicked the game-winning 29-yard field goal.

Oct. 8, 1995 - Veterans Stadium

Philadelphia 37, Washington 34

Down 10 points in the 4th quarter, Gus Frerotte guided the Redskins back with a touchdown pass to Henry Ellard and Eddie Murray's 46-yard field goal tied it up with :52 left. In OT, Washington stalled on its opening drive and the Eagles' Gary Anderson won the game with a 35-yard field goal.

Oct. 22, 1995 - RFK Stadium

Washington 36, Detroit 30

Trailing 30-27, Eddie Murray's 39-yard field goal tied it with :04 to play. Darrell Green's seven-yard interception return of a Scott Mitchell pass for a touchdown 3:41 into overtime ended the game.

Nov. 10, 1996 - RFK Stadium

Arizona 37, Washington 34

In one of the most bizarre games in Redskins history, the 'Skins led by 14 points in the fourth quarter only to squander the lead. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove to the Redskins 15, only to have Kevin Butler miss. The 'Skins' Scott Blanton booted the apparent 38-yard game-winner, but a holding penalty forced a retry from 48 that went wide left. Arizona then missed a 29-yarder that was negated because the Redskins were offside. Butler's third attempt was good from 32 yards.

Nov. 24, 1996 - RFK Stadium

San Francisco 19, Washington 16

San Francisco's William Floyd's 1-yard touchdown run tied the game in regulation. After winning the coin toss in overtime, the 49ers' Jeff Wilkins hit a 38-yard field goal to win.

Sept. 14, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 19, Arizona 13

In the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins won with 13:24 left in overtime when Gus Frerotte, sidestepping a heavy rush, threw a 40-yard strike to a leaping Michael Westbrook in the end zone. The winning points were set up two plays earlier when rookie defensive end Kenard Lang forced a fumble that rookie linebacker Derek Smith recovered on the Redskins 35-yard line.

Nov. 23, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 7, NY Giants 7

In overtime, the Redskins turned the ball over three times, but the defense forced two punts and the Giants missed a 54-yard field goal. With under two minutes remaining, the Redskins drove to the Giants 36-yard line, but a 54-yard field goal attempt fell short with 11 seconds left in overtime.

OVERTIME GAMES

Sept. 12, 1999 - FedExField

Dallas 41, Washington 35

Dallas stopped the 'Skins' first overtime drive and then scored on a 76-yard bomb from Troy Aikman to Rocket Ismail.

Nov. 28, 1999 - FedExField

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Brett Conway's game-winning 27-yard FG was set up by a 48-yard kick-off return by James Thrash, which opened the overtime period. The Eagles never had the ball.

Dec. 26, 1999 - 3Com Park

Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Redskins overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win their ninth game of the year and clinch the NFC East. Brad Johnson's QB sneak from the 1-yard line with 3:28 left in regulation sent the game into the extra period. On the opening drive, Johnson connected with Larry Centers for a 33-yard TD.

Oct. 1, 2000 - FedExField

Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17

Tampa Bay forced the overtime when Martin Gramatica connected on a 42-yard field goal as the regulation clock fell to 0:00. 10:51 into the extra period, Deion Sanders ignited the crowd with a 57-yard punt return, setting up the game winning 20-yard field goal by Michael Husted.

Oct. 21, 2001 - FedExField

Washington 17, Carolina 14

Placekicker Brett Conway kicked a 23-yard field goal in overtime to seal the Redskins' first victory of the season and the first under Marty Schottenheimer, 17-14. The Redskins forced overtime by overcoming a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter thanks to a 67-yard interception return for touchdown by LaVar Arrington and an 85-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks to Rod Gardner.

Sept. 21, 2003 - FedExField

New York Giants 24, Washington 21

With less than five minutes left in regulation, Washington overcame a 21-10 deficit to send the game into overtime. The Giants won the toss and drove downfield from their own 6-yard line. Kicker Matt Bryant connected on a 29-yard field goal to cap off New York's first scoring drive since the second quarter and seal the 24-21 victory.

Oct. 2, 2005 - FedExField

Washington 20, Seattle 17

With a chance to win the game at the end of regulation with 0:01 left on the clock, Seattle kicker Josh Brown missed a 47-yard field goal, sending the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss, the Redskins went on a 5:31 drive that culminated with a Nick Novak 39-yard field goal to seal Washington's victory over the Seahawks.

Nov. 27, 2005 - FedExField

San Diego 23, Washington 17

San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson scored a 32-yard touchdown run with 3:37 remaining to tie the game at 17 apiece. With 0:35 remaining, the Redskins had an opportunity to take the lead with a 53-yard field goal but the ball sailed wide right. In overtime, San Diego ran two plays that culminated in a 41-yard touchdown run, again by Tomlinson to seal the victory.

Oct. 1, 2006 - FedExField

Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville sent the game into overtime with :06 on the clock when kicker Josh Scobee connected on a 41-yard field goal. Washington won the coin toss and proceeded to take the ball 80 yards on three plays for the game-winning score. Quarterback Mark Brunell connected with wide receiver Santana Moss (below) for a 68-yard touchdown pass to seal the win.

Dec. 24, 2006 - Edward Jones Dome

St. Louis 37, Washington 31

Washington kicker Shaun Suisham nailed a field goal with 1:15 remaining in regulation to tie the score at 31 and send it into overtime. St. Louis came back in overtime and, six minutes into the extra time, running back Steven Jackson took a handoff 21 yards for the game winning touchdown.

Sept. 9, 2007 - FedExField

Washington 16, Miami 13

In overtime, the Redskins won the coin toss and elected to receive. Running backs Clinton Portis and Ladell Betts combined for 46 rushing yards and quarterback Jason Campbell completed a key third-down pass to tight end Chris Cooley, keeping the drive alive. As soon as the Redskins got into field goal range, kicker Shaun Suisham nailed the 39-yard field goal to seal the victory.

Nov. 4, 2007 - Meadowlands

Washington 23, New York Jets 20

Jets kicker Mike Nugent connected on a 30-yard field goal with 0:15 left in regulation to tie the game at 20-20 and send the game into overtime. Washington running back Clinton Portis bulldozed his way down the field in overtime, setting up the game-winning 46-yard field goal by kicker Shaun Suisham.

Dec. 6, 2009 - FedExField

New Orleans 33, Washington 30

Saints quarterback Drew Brees drove 80 yards at the end of regulation to tie the game at 30-30. In overtime, the Saints marched down the field setting up an 18-yard field goal by kicker Garrett Hartley to seal the victory.

Sept. 19, 2010 - FedExField

Houston 30, Washington 27

After holding the Texans on the first possession of overtime, the Redskins drove to the Houston 34-yard line, but kicker Graham Gano pushed a 52-yard attempt wide right. On the ensuing drive, Neil Rackers connected on a 35-yard field goal to give Houston the win.

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 10, 2010 - FedExField

Washington 16, Green Bay 13

LaRon Landry intercepted an Aaron Rodgers pass on Green Bay's second overtime possession and the Redskins drove 24 yards to set up a game-winning 33-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano (below) in the team's Week 5 win against the eventual Super Bowl champions.

Nov. 21, 2010 - LP Field

Washington 19, Tennessee 16

After missing a potential game-winning field goal at the end of regulation, Gano redeemed himself in overtime, capping off a 10-play, 57-yard drive with a 48-yarder on the Redskins' first overtime possession to secure a 19-16 road win.

Dec. 26, 2010 - EverBank Field

Washington 20, Jacksonville 17

A 20-yard touchdown run by Jacksonville quarterback David Garrard in the final three minutes of regulation helped the Jaguars force overtime. Jacksonville won the toss and elected to receive, but on their third offensive play of overtime, cornerback Kevin Barnes intercepted Garrard, setting up Gano for a 31-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 20, 2011 - FedExField

Dallas 27, Washington 24

Redskins quarterback Rex Grossman lofted a perfect fade to receiver Donte Stallworth in the corner of the end zone with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. The Redskins missed a 52-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, and Dallas responded as kicker Dan Bailey hit a 39-yard field goal above the right upright for a Dallas victory.

Dec. 9, 2012 - FedExField

Washington 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore took an eight-point lead with less than five minutes to play, but Washington quarterbacks Robert Griffin III and Kirk Cousins led a 13-play, 88-yard drive to tie the game at 28-28. Cousins, in place of an injured Griffin III, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garçon and followed it with a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw. In overtime, Washington forced the eventual Super Bowl champion Ravens to go three-and-out, and after a 64-yard punt return by rookie Richard Crawford, kicker Kai Forbath (below) hit a 34-yard game-winning field goal.

FACILITIES/EVENTS

FEDExFIELD

FedExField is one of the preeminent entertainment venues in the National Football League. Located in Landover, Md., the privately financed FedExField was completed in a record 17 months and hosted the Redskins home opener Sept. 14, 1997 – a 19-13 overtime win against the Arizona Cardinals.

The stadium is located on a 200-acre site and has the largest seating capacity in the NFL with 85,000 seats. FedExField is one of just two stadiums with three tiers of luxury suites. Suites are equipped with restrooms, a refrigerator, televisions, a lounge area, two rows of seats and bar stools.

FedExField increased the Redskins attendance capacity by more than 40 percent when the team left RFK Stadium after 1996. Nevertheless, the Redskins have sold out every home game for the past 45 seasons, pushing their NFL-high sell-out streak to 377 combined regular season and postseason games. All 159 (preseason, regular and postseason) contests at FedExField through the 2012 season have been sellouts.

Construction on FedExField began in March 1996 and cost $250 million. The following year, $30 million was spent to create a 170,000 square-foot atrium encircling the entire stadium making the Joe Gibbs Club Level the most spectacular in the league.

When Daniel M. Snyder became the Redskins owner in July 1999, one of his first tasks was to make improvements to FedExField. Immediately, millions were invested in such projects as replacing metal rails with glass rails in order to provide unobstructed sight lines in the stadium bowl.

Between the 2010-2011 seasons, Snyder created a new standard for stadium excellence when FedExField underwent an additional series of enhancements.

The Redskins, along with NRG Energy, one of the largest energy companies in the United States, brought the largest solar installation of renewable energy in the region to FedExField—8,000 solar panels, 10 electric vehicle charging stations and a 30-foot tall solar sculpture. Prince George's County Chamber of Commerce honored the Redskins' innovation in solar installation by recognizing them as the 2011 Green Business of the Year.

Snyder also created unique Executive Suites, upper level and end zone party decks, the NFL's largest video wall and added more than 1,000 cash parking spaces. The Redskins installation of new 100-foot long endzone HD Videoboards and eight new digital ribbon boards provide fans with out-of-town scores and statistics, and the implementation of a text message traffic alert system gives fans updates on the best gameday routes.

Snyder was also instrumental in the multi-million dollar renovation and replacement of the video control room and the movement of the late Sean Taylor's locker for viewing on the stadium's Club Level.

Since his inaugural season, Snyder has spent more than $100 million to enhance FedExField and ensure a best-in-class experience for fans.

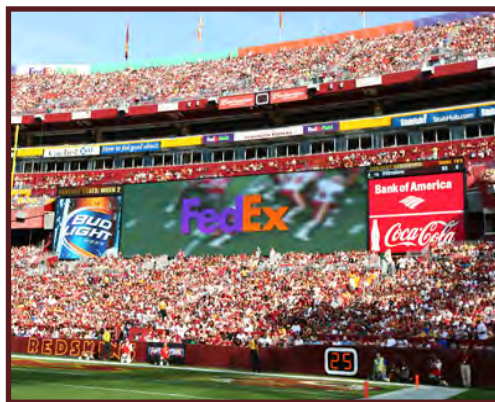

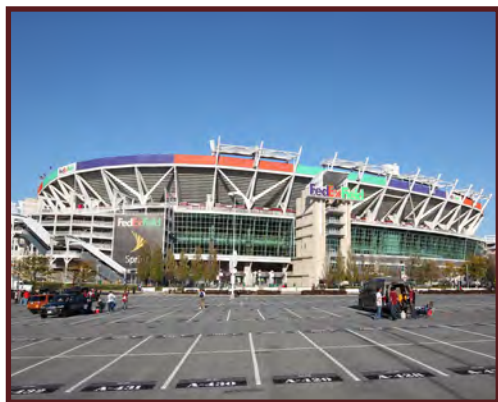

FedExField while being the official home of the Redskins, is also host to a variety of special events including premier college football games, such as the 2011 Army/Navy Game; world-class performers, like award winning country music artist Kenny Chesney; international matches, such as the soccer friendly between U.S. Men's National Team and Brazil; and much more.

Redskins Special Events opens up a world of possibilities by making its most exclusive areas that host the "who's who" of Washington during Redskins games available for non-game events throughout the year. FedExField is the perfect backdrop for any special occasion. For more information, check out <http://events.redskins.com>.

FedExField went green in 2011, as the Washington Redskins and NRG Energy installed a solar power system at FedExField that provides a portion of the stadium's electricity needs on game days and can generate enough power to serve all of its electrical needs on non-game days.

A DAY OF FIRSTS

On September 14, 1997, the Redskins opened their new stadium with a thrilling 19-13 overtime victory over the Arizona Cardinals in front of a record crowd of Washington fans.

In their first game at their new home, the Redskins were forced into overtime when Cardinals kicker Kevin Butler connected on a 47-yard field goal to tie the score with just two seconds remaining.

The Cards won the toss to start the extra period, but rookie defensive lineman Kenard Lang stripped Arizona running back Leeland McElroy of the football, and Derek M. Smith recovered for the Skins on the 35-yard line.

Quarterback Gus Frerotte (right) was sacked on first down, but on the next play he found Michael Westbrook in the endzone for a game-winning 40-yard drive.

STADIUM GUIDE

The safety and enjoyment of the game day experience is the Redskins' primary concern. Please note that everyone entering FedExField is subject to search by our security staff. This requires fans to enter through predetermined screening locations, which sometimes results in crowding. The Redskins apologize for the inconvenience.

Please be aware that the following items are not permitted into FedExField:

- *Bags, including: backpacks, gym bags, duffel bags, packages, briefcases, large purses, etc.
- *Food and beverages of any kind
- *Umbrellas (ponchos are available for sale at select merchandise areas)
- *Bottles, jugs, thermoses, cans, coolers, or any other container
- *Animals (except for certified guide dogs assisting disabled guests)
- *Whistles, horns and other noise makers
- *Weapons, firearms
- *Illegal drugs
- *Folding chairs

Small purses are permitted. However, any purse and its contents must fit into a stadium measuring box, which measures under 4 inches in width, under 12 inches in length, and under 10 inches in height.

Leafleting or distribution of any literature is prohibited.

Understanding and adhering to these policies will help ensure that all fans enter FedExField in a safe and timely manner. If a ticket holder elects not to consent to these searches or is found attempting to enter with a prohibited item, the ticket holder may be denied entry into the stadium.

AAA Ultimate Fan Zone

Starting three hours before every preseason and regular season game, the AAA Ultimate Fan Zone offers its members a pre-game food and entertainment extravaganza unmatched anywhere else in the NFL. Bar-B-Q food and soft drinks are included in the admission price. Entertainment includes live music, appearances by cheerleaders and former players, video games, giveaways and flat screen televisions showing the early games. For more information, contact the Premium Seat Sales department at 301-276-6800 or by email at clubinfo@redskins.com.

Alcohol Sales

Alcohol is sold only to guests 21 years or older. Proper photo identification is required. There is a two (2) drink maximum per purchase, per person. On the Lower and Upper Levels, all alcohol sales will cease at the completion of the 3rd Quarter of Redskins games. Sales may be discontinued earlier at the discretion of management and for other events.

ATMs

ATMs are located on the following levels:

- Lower Level: Sections 103, 111, 116, 124, 131 and 139
- Club Level: Sections 304, 325, 330 and 334
- Upper Level: Sections 409, 422, 434 and 449

Audi Club

The Audi Club area is a bar with an outdoor patio on the Club Level at Sections 330-334. Club, Field Club, Owner's Club, Suite and Loge ticket holders can enjoy a live band on the patio during the "5th Quarter" for two hours after every Redskins home game.

Automobile Assistance

FedExField provides complimentary automobile assistance for lock-outs, jump starts and flat tires. Please visit the nearest Guest Services Booth or ask a FedExField representative for assistance. Guest Services Booths are located by the elevators at the NRG Gate (Gate A) and the Bank of America Gate (Gate E) on all levels.

Away Games

Ticket and travel packages for all Redskins away games can be purchased through Redskins Travel. Stay at the team hotel, receive souvenirs, and most importantly, get tickets to the game in the Redskins section. Contact Redskins Travel at 1-800-756-6342 or visit www.redskinstravel.com.

Bud Light Party Pavilion

The Bud Light Party Pavilion is located on the exterior plaza (at Gates F and G). This area opens three hours prior to kickoff and has musical entertainment and food and beverage concessions. A game ticket is required to enter the Bud Light Party Pavilion and there is no exit/re-entry allowed.

Cameras

Still cameras, digital cameras and handheld video cameras are permitted at sporting events. Guests may not reproduce any shots for any commercial use without the written permission of the Redskins. For concerts, still cameras, digital cameras, video cameras and audio recording devices are not permitted.

Cheerleaders

The Washington Redskins Cheerleaders provide in-game entertainment at all Redskins games. They are also available for appearances at special events. Please call 301-276-6775 for more information or visit Redskins Cheerleaders section of web site.

Club Level ("Joe Gibbs Club Level")

The Club Level concourse is enclosed with furnished lounges, big screen televisions, food courts, the Audi Club (Sections 330-334), a sports bar (Sections 309-313), Hooter's (Sections 314-316) and Montecristo Club (Sections 306-308). There is also an EA Sports Arcade (Sections 335-337), plus Party Decks on both the west end zone (Sections 308-314) and the east end zone (Sections 329-335). Guests with a ticket for the Club Level, Dream Seats, Loge, Suites, or Owner's Club may enjoy the Club Level amenities at any time during the event. For more information, contact the Premium Seat Sales department at 301-276-6800 or by e-mail at clubinfo@redskins.com.

FedExField provides accommodations for fans with disabilities. Seating for the disabled is available on all levels at FedExField in seating areas that can accommodate a wheelchair seat and one companion seat for a guest.

We provide captioning for the hearing impaired for all in-stadium announcements, including play-by-play announcements, on ribbon boards located at the 50-yard lines on both sides of the stadium. In addition, FedExField provides play-by-play captioning on television monitors located throughout the common areas of the stadium.

Parking for disabled/handicapped fans is available with an on-site parking permit and a valid state-issued disabled parking permit and/or license plate. Please display both permits and a parking lot attendant will direct you to the appropriate lot. Should you need additional assistance, please notify a parking lot attendant or text SKINS and your location to 69050. Alternatively, you may also call our Operations hotline at (301) 276-6100.

If you have any questions regarding special accommodations, please contact the Redskins Ticket Office at 301-276-6050 prior to the event, visit the Ticketing Services window located behind Section 103 inside the stadium on the day of the event, or email us at accommodations@redskins.com.

Disabled seating is limited, so please arrive early to secure seats. Team officials will try to relocate any fan with a hearing impairment who is unable to view the in-stadium ribbon boards from his assigned seat.

The Washington Redskins reserve the right to require proof of disability.

These Suites are divided into the Lower Suite Level (Suites 101 - 242) and the Upper Suite Level (Suites 301 - 317, 356-388 and 427-442). Access to the suites is from any ramp or the elevators located at the NRG Gate (Gate A) and the Bank of America Gate (Gate E).

The Owner's Club Level is divided into the West side (Suites 1-10) and the East side (Suites 1-24) and is located on the second floor at the NRG Gate (Gate A), accessed via the elevators or press stairwell.

Tailgating

Tailgating involves the use of grills, coolers, chairs, tables or other devices that could inhibit pedestrian passage or vehicular access. Activities that do not use any additional space beyond your parking space are permitted. Port-o-lets are provided throughout the parking lot.

In order for all guests to enjoy the tailgating experience, we ask that fans follow these guidelines:

*When parking, park your car in one space only and between the white lines.

*Parking permits are to be used for cars only, not for additional tailgating space or storage.

*Be considerate of other guests' vehicles.

*For the safety of all guests and for emergency vehicle access, please keep all aisles clear.

*Dispose of all trash in proper receptacles.

*Prior to entering FedExField, please extinguish all flames and grills. Ash dumpsters are available throughout the lots for your convenience. Do not place a hot grill in or under any vehicle.

Upper Level ("Pete Rozelle Upper Level")

The Upper Level is a general seating area numbered from Sections 401-454.

REDSKINS PARK

Since 1992, the Washington Redskins have made their home on a picturesque 162 acres of land in Ashburn, Va., where Redskins Park is home to the Gerald S. Snyder Training Facility, the team's year-round headquarters. Twenty years later, grand plans for construction and renovation will help Redskins Park stay amongst the upper echelon of team training facilities in all of professional sports.

In the summer of 2012, the Redskins and Virginia Gov. Bob McDonnell announced plans for $30 million in renovations to the team's Northern Virginia home. The plan includes financing from both the Commonwealth of Virginia and Loudoun County.

"During the last two years, the Washington Redskins have made significant improvements to modernize FedExField and Redskins Park, ensuring a best-in-class game day experience for our fans and an excellent training environment for our players," said Executive Vice President/General Manager Bruce Allen. "We are very pleased to continue our relationship with the Commonwealth of Virginia that my father established 41 years ago. We are proud to call Loudoun County the home of Redskins Park."

In addition, the team officially opened the Redskins Indoor Training Facility in early 2012. The facility stands 96 feet high and houses a 120-yard practice field, complete with hanging uprights and space to accommodate the team's video needs.

"This is going to give us a great opportunity to work when we have some inclement weather," Allen said. "We're trying to find ways to maximize the players' health and efficiency."

The team has called Redskins Park its home since August of 1992, enjoying a private haven away from distractions. The complex features four football fields, strength training and sports medicine facilities, offices and meeting rooms for players, coaches and front office staff, and accommodations for print and broadcast media. The building amasses some 65,000 square feet.

Located in Loudoun County, one of the fastest growing areas in the United States, Redskins Park is tucked away from highways and other office buildings. The two-story concrete and glass structure looks deceiving in size. Visitors enter a bright, spacious lobby that leads to three carefully groomed natural grass playing fields and an additional artificial turf surface.

The lower level of the building is dedicated to football operations, including player and staff locker rooms, an enhanced strength and conditioning center, the equipment room, athletic training rooms and video studio. The athletic training facilities include an x-ray room and dentist office, in addition to private examining rooms for the medical staff that cares for the team throughout the year. During the 2013 renovations, the Redskins expanded their team kitchen on the lower level, allowing players and staff greater access to top-of-the-line, nutritional options. A state-of-the-art players' lounge was added in 2004.

One side of the upper floor consists of coaches' and personnel offices and a large, 105-seat multipurpose auditorium, used for team meetings, press conferences and video sessions. The other side of the building houses offices for the club's accounting, marketing, public relations and administrative offices. The public area of the building consists of large hallways, high ceilings with natural lighting and numerous trophy cases displaying the team's rich history and tradition.

A studio was completed in the rear of the building in 2005. The glassed studio, which houses the Redskins Broadcast Network including Redskins Nation broadcasts, overlooks the facility's four practice fields.

In 2005, an additional building adjacent to the main facility was constructed housing the Redskins Charitable Foundation, information technology and retail departments, as well as the Media Workroom. The Workroom includes 25 work stations, wireless internet, high-definition flat screen televisions, men's and women's restrooms, and a kitchen featuring a full-size refrigerator/freezer, soda machine, microwave, water cooler, coffee maker and storage cabinets.

TRAINING CAMP

The Washington Redskins and Head Coach Mike Shanahan will hold 2013 Washington Redskins Training Camp beginning on Thursday, July 25. This will mark the first time since 2002 the Redskins have left their home base at Redskins Park in Ashburn, Va., for camp, as the team shifts to the state capital to host its first camp at the brand new Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center in Richmond, Va.

The new $10 million dollar state-of-the-art training center features two full-size natural grass fields, a natural grass drill field, spectator areas, locker rooms and a high-tech training room. The Bon Secours Virginia Health System will ensure the facility serves as a valuable year-round resource for the community when camp is not in session. They will operate the facility as a full service sports medicine rehabilitation and men's health center on the property throughout the year, in addition to offering men's health, fitness and education programs. The facility will also be home to movin' mania, Bon Secours' healthy kids initiative.

Training camp is an annual ritual in the NFL, an opportunity for fans from all over the country to come see their favorite Redskins players in action on the practice field, and get a first glimpse of the newly signed free agents and draft picks.

Announced practices are open to fans, free of charge, including Fan Appreciation Day on Saturday, Aug. 3. Visitors are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets, as they will be able to sit along areas overlooking the playing fields during practices. After each practice, fans will have the opportunity to gather autographs and take photos of their favorite players as they walk off the field to the locker rooms, schedule permitting.

Credentialed media will have additional access to the players and practice areas, and can coordinate interviews through the Redskins Public Relations Department. All media attending Redskins Training Camp must obtain credentials to gain access to the grounds. For information about credential policies and procedures, media members should contact Angela Alfano of Redskins Public Relations at alfanoa@redskins.com.

Detailed training camp practice schedules and more information about the Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center can be found by visiting www.redskins.com/trainingcamp.

THE GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

WASHINGTON REDSKINS MARCHING BAND

The Washington Redskins Marching Band has led sellout crowds in stirring renditions of the team's fight song, "Hail to the Redskins," for generations. In 2012, the Redskins Marching Band celebrated its 75th anniversary, having entertained Redskins fans at home games from Griffith Stadium to RFK Stadium to FedExField.

The all-volunteer ensemble formed in 1937, when George Preston Marshall brought the team from Boston to Washington D.C. with the goal of entertaining fans from the moment they walked into the stadium until the time they exited.

For more than three quarters of a century, the Marching Band has taken great pleasure in entertaining fans with their pre-game and halftime shows.

Over the years, the group has marched between train stations and stadiums before notable games, down Broadway before a New York Giants game in the early 1960s, and around the concourse of Tampa Stadium during Super Bowl XVIII.

"Hail to the Redskins" made its debut as the official fight song of the Washington Redskins on Aug. 17, 1938. The song was written by renowned band leader Barnee Breeskin and the lyrics were penned by Hollywood movie star Corinne Griffith, Marshall's wife.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS

*"Hail to the Redskins!
Hail Victory!*

Braves on the warpath, Fight for old D.C.!

*Run or pass and score,
we want a lot more.*

Beat 'em, swamp 'em, touchdown, let the points soar!

*Fight on, fight on,
'til you have won,
Sons of Wash-ing-ton! (Rah! Rah! Rah!)"*

RING OF FAME

Hanging on the inside facade of FedExField are some of the most hallowed names in Redskins history. The names, encircling the playing field from above, pay tribute to 45 members of the organization whose contributions still resonated as the team celebrated its 80th anniversary in 2012.

The Redskins Ring of Fame added its 45th member in 2011, inducting former safety and defensive coordinator Richie Petitbon during halftime of the team's Week 16 game on Dec. 24.

Petitbon's legacy is closely intertwined with many of the legends associated with the Redskins in the latter part of the 20th century. Petitbon played for the Redskins from 1971-72, as the four-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro was brought in to help form the nucleus of the "Over the Hill Gang." In 1978, he was named as the team's defensive coordinator, a position he held until 1993, when he was named the 21st head coach in Redskins history. He is one of only three Redskins to have participated in all five of the franchise's Super Bowl appearances as either a player or coach, joining Torgy Torgeson and Pro Football Hall of Famer Charley Taylor.

"From being a part of George Allen's 'Over the Hill Gang' to his tenure coaching in Washington, Richie Petitbon played an instrumental role in all five of the Redskins' Super Bowl appearances," Washington Redskins Owner/Chairman Daniel M. Snyder said prior to Petitbon's induction. "His induction into the Ring of Fame will be a proud day for the franchise and a well-deserved honor for one of the organization's most respected figures."

Added Executive Vice President/General Manager Bruce Allen, "This is a special day for Richie Petitbon, the Redskins, and the coaches that are such an important part of the team's legacy. Our organization and fans are forever grateful for Richie's leadership, especially during all five of our team's Super Bowls."

Former Redskins safety and coach Richie Petitbon (left) was honored with induction into the team's Ring of Fame in 2011. Petitbon was introduced by Hall of Fame cornerback Darrell Green and received a plaque from Executive Vice President/General Manager Bruce Allen (right).

This year marks the 51st Anniversary of the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders!

They are the longest running NFL Cheerleading team in history!

In July 1999, the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders took the world stage for the first time since 1984 and went on their first Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE) Tour to the Balkans. That trip was their opportunity to be the first entertainers to perform for troops in Kosovo just weeks after the war ended. Since that time they have regularly traveled to entertain the men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces in over 45 countries. While on tour, the Cheerleaders are able to meet thousands of troops and perform their entertaining Variety Show. The Variety Show is a 90-minute, 12-section, fully-costumed theatrical showcase and "Variety" is exactly what this show is: themed sections of rock, country, hip hop and Broadway songs. In 2007 the Variety Show included a new section "A Tribute to our Troops," with a complete replica uniform from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard and Marines. In April 2008, 12 cheerleaders and two team choreographers traveled to Bangalore, India helping to bridge two cultures by creating the first ever Cheerleading squad in the country. The Redskins Cheerleaders traveled to Hong Kong, China, in January 2009, to help celebrate the Chinese New Year.

Meet The Captains

Brianne

Susan

Ashley

Monique

The most beautiful, talented and entertaining performers in professional sports just got even better!
The "First Ladies of Football" have an exciting 2013 season ahead.

Each year four ladies are selected to lead the squad as captains and four as co-captains.

This year Ashley, Susan, Monique and Brianne will be the four ladies heading up the team as captains. Along with Charo, Maigan, Mila and Lindsey acting as co-captains in the task of getting the Cheerleaders ready for game day. The team added 16 new faces and created uniforms to showcase their athleticism and style. They also created the most unique and cutting-edge swimsuit calendar since production began 15 years ago. For field and stage, they added new sections to the already popular Variety Show, and have been rehearsing since April to bring the best performances to FedExField. You will be entertained by the world's most elite group who not only support, but also live, work and attend school in the Washington D.C., Metro Area. Nowhere in the entertainment industry will you find a greater collection of lovely and loyal individuals with so much to offer and the gracious hearts to do it.

OCCIDENTAL

Junior Redskins Cheerleaders & Spirit Explosion Halftime Take Advantage of WRC Youth Programs:

The Junior Redskins Cheerleaders program is a fun, exciting and important part of the Washington Redskins organization. With an enrollment of 200 young ladies, ages 5-17, the program teaches the fundamentals of dance, showmanship and performance. Each year these young ladies are extended the opportunity to perform with the Redskins Cheerleaders at halftime shows, parades and other community events. Each cheerleader also receives a commemorative T-shirt, a tape of their performances, an autographed 2013-2014 Redskins Cheerleaders team photo, as well as memories to last a lifetime! The Junior Redskins Cheerleaders are the exhibition team for our youth dance program. Other exciting programs include our Spirit Explosion halftime show in front of the largest crowd in the NFL. The Redskins Cheerleaders perform a halftime show with hundreds of Dancers, Cheerleaders, and Band Auxiliary from area high schools, universities, and dance studios. It is a fun-filled and rewarding experience for everyone.

For more information on the October 20th Spirit Explosion performance, send an email to Stephanie Jojokian at jojokians@redskins.com, or jrcheerleaders@redskins.com for the Jr. Redskins Cheerleaders.

REDSKINS MEDIA

RADIO PERSONALITIES

The Washington Redskins Radio Network is home to more than 50 combined seasons of professional broadcasting experience and one of football's all-time greats. Now entering their 10th season sharing the booth, play-by-play announcer Larry Michael will join Pro Football Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen each week of the 2013 season. Rick "Doc" Walker will be in his sixth season as the team's sideline reporter.

Larry Michael is the "Voice of the Washington Redskins." He also hosts Redskins Nation on a daily basis on Comcast SportsNet as well as The Mike Shanahan Coach's Show on NBC-4. He is a 10-time Emmy Award Winner who currently serves as the team's Senior Vice President and Executive Producer of Media. His responsibilities also include production of all video content for Redskins.comTV, as well as production of all Redskins Broadcast Network television shows and broadcasts.

Michael's recent hosting duties have also included WRC's Inside the Redskins and WTTG's Redskins Game Time. Michael has also showcased his vocal talent away from football, working as a part of HBO's Boxing Beat (1997-2003), Comcast SportsNet's Ballroom Boxing (1996-2006), as well as serving as the voice of the George Washington Colonials and as a play-by-play announcer for Westwood One. His resume includes eight Olympic Games, 21 U.S. Open Golf Championships, 12 Masters Tournaments and 12 Super Bowls.

Michael is active in area charities, including the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Joe Gibbs Youth for Tomorrow Youth Home. He also serves as a member of the Fairfax County Public Schools Citizens Advisory Board.

A legend on the field and a legend in the booth, Sonny Jurgensen has been a part of the Washington Redskins family since 1964. He currently serves as an analyst on radio broadcasts, having called more than 600 games since 1981. Combining his tenures as a broadcaster and a player, Jurgensen has been involved in more than 800 games — including preseason and postseason — as part of the Redskins organization.

Jurgensen played 11 of his 18 NFL seasons in the burgundy and gold, ultimately earning induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1983. He currently shares the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yards gained (five) and longest pass completion (99 yards against Chicago on Sept. 15, 1968). A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he is the highest-rated passer among qualified players in Redskins history (85.0), and holds team records for most 300-yard passing games (15), most touchdown passes in a season (31 in 1967) and most consecutive games with a touchdown pass (23).

Jurgensen won five passing titles in his career as the NFL's passing yardage leader. He continues to be regarded as one of the best pure passers in the history of the game, as legendary coach Vince Lombardi once called him "the best I have seen." His name resides in the Redskins Ring of Fame, and he was chosen as one of the 70 Greatest Redskins as part of the team's 70th anniversary in 2002, later expanded to the 80 Greatest Redskins during the team's 80th Anniversary celebration in 2012.

Serving as the broadcasts' sideline reporter is Rick "Doc" Walker, whose name is synonymous with the "Fun Bunch," the "Hogs," and other pieces of Redskins lore. In addition to sideline reporting for radio broadcasts, Walker co-hosts Inside the Locker Room on ESPN 980 and hosts Doc Walker's ProView on MASN. His broadcast work past and present also includes college football analysis for ESPN, the Big East Network, Prime and Raycom Sports.

Walker appeared in 88 games with 55 starts in his seven-year playing career as a Redskin. His stat line with the team includes 56 receptions for 520 yards and six touchdowns from 1980-85. He helped the Redskins defeat the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., the same stadium in which he played college ball as a UCLA Bruin. Walker caught one pass for 27 yards and ran once for six yards in the Redskins' 27-17 Super Bowl victory.

On top of his broadcast duties, Walker is now an in-demand motivational speaker and hosts an annual golf tournament to help fight Alzheimer's.

REDSKINS BROADCAST NETWORK

The Emmy-Award-Winning Redskins Broadcast Network is the TV and Radio production department of the team. The content delivered by RBN includes preseason game broadcasts on NBC4 and Comcast SportsNet. In addition, RBN produces five original TV shows each season, broadcast in the Washington, D.C. region:

- * The Mike Shanahan Coach's Show, where the Redskins Head Coach breaks it down each week.

- * Redskins Chronicles, an in-depth look at an element of the team's history — told by some of the franchise's all-time great alumni.

- * Inside the Redskins, which includes all things Redskins including highlights, interviews and features on the team.

- * Redskins Game Time, a day-to-day look at the team at Redskins Park as they prepare for game time.

- * Redskins Late Night, a fun-filled show with skits and player interviews.

In addition, RBN produces Redskins Nation, which airs 365 days a year and features exclusive interviews and videos from Redskins Park in an effort to provide complete and immediate news and information to Redskins fans.

The Executive Producer of RBN is Larry Michael, the Voice of the Washington Redskins. His staff includes RBN veterans Charlie Broyhill, Coordinating Producer; Alex Diamond, Producer; Cara Trotter, Senior Producer; Luke LeSourd, Producer; and Alex Corddry, Social Correspondent. From the sideline to the locker room, Redskins Broadcast Network goes where no other media outlet can go, for the real story on the Washington Redskins, 365 days a year!

REDSKINS.COM

Redskins.com is your leading source for breaking news and complete coverage of everything Redskins. The Washington Redskins official team website provides fans and media with all of the latest news, features, polls, photos and statistics involving the Redskins and FedExField.

Redskins.com offers exclusive behind-the-scenes access, interviews with players, coaches, and team officials, an updated roster and depth chart, weekly game previews, a comprehensive history section and a section devoted to the Redskins Cheerleaders. Fans can also sign up for the Season Ticket Waiting List online and weekly e-newsletters, as well as register for team events, such as training camp.

Now in its sixth season, the Official Washington Redskins Blog covers every aspect of the Redskins' season, from detailed daily practice reports to more offbeat looks at the players' off-the-field lives and interests.

In the Redskins Official Online Store, fans from near and far can shop for the latest team merchandise, form team jerseys and caps to Redskins card tales and chairs. The online store is equipped with the latest in internet shopping security, so buying online is safe and convenient.

Fans from all over the world can chat about the team on ExtremeSkins.com, a fan forum part of Redskins.com that includes the only fan-hosted team message board in the NFL. The site has hosted exclusive chats with Redskins coaches and players.

REDSKINS SOCIAL MEDIA

The Redskins have been at the forefront of professional sports' charge into various social media platforms, in the process providing fans unprecedented access and insight into the lives and thoughts of their favorite Redskins players.

In 2012, the Redskins became the first NFL team to work with Reddit to host a series of Reddit AMAs ("Ask Me Anything" chats). In the midst of a seven-game winning streak to clinch the NFC East title, linebackers Ryan Kerrigan and Lorenzo Alexander each took time from their Pro Bowl seasons in December 2012 to interact with fans on Reddit, as did running back Alfred Morris, who was in the midst of setting a Redskins record for rushing yards in the single season.

The organization has also provided fans with access to Redskins personalities through the use of Google+. The team became one of the first professional sports franchises to host a Google+ hangout with active players in the spring of 2012, as quarterback Robert Griffin III chatted with fans via webcam at the team's annual Draft Day Party (below) and defensive end Jarvis Jenkins interacted with fans during organized team activities in the 2012 offseason. During the year, Morris, kicker Kai Forbath, fullback Darrel Young, defensive end Stephen Bowen and others were among those who video-chatted with fans on Google+.

The team's official Twitter account (@Redskins) provides up-to-the-minute updates, breaking personnel news, links to Redskins.com content and highlighted quotes from Redskins press conferences. The account was an integral part of the team's 2012 NFL Draft coverage, as followers got a behind-the-scenes look at the team's selection of Robert Griffin III, including photos of the official draft card and his boarding onto the team plane bound for Redskins Park. The account also featured sneak peeks of the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders' photo shoots in Aruba.

The Redskins' Facebook page (Facebook.com/Redskins) gives fans a chance to sound off about their favorite players, vote in polls, see exclusive photos and win prizes. The team's Instagram account (@Redskins) provides behind-the-scenes looks at day-to-day life at Redskins Park and FedExField, giving fans a peek at the work being done by players and coaches to bring another Super Bowl title to the Washington D.C. area.

Senior Vice President Tony Wyllie enters his fourth season with the Redskins in 2013, now embarking upon his third decade of NFL service as a communications professional.

Wyllie and his staff have earned the Pete Rozelle award, presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the best NFL public relations staff, five times during his career. He is the only executive in the NFL to have won the award with three different teams.

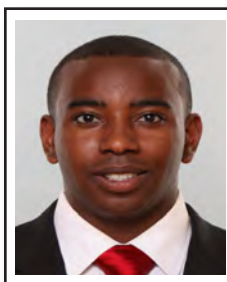

The Brooklyn native began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with the San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys, earning a Super Bowl ring before heading west to Los Angeles to work with the Rams as the Assistant Director of Public Relations. Wyllie moved with the team to St. Louis in 1995 and became the youngest PR director in the NFL three years later when hired by the Tennessee Oilers in 1998. He picked up an AFC championship ring with the Titans in 1999 before joining the Houston Texans staff in the summer of 2000.

Wyllie was instrumental in shaping and molding the image of the Texans in the public and the community. He served as the liaison between the local and national media and the Texans' front office, coaches and players. Wyllie generated publicity for the club while serving as the team spokesman.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in journalism. In 2004, Wyllie received TSU's "Distinguished Alumnus" award. He also earned an MBA from the Jones School of Business at Rice University.

In Houston, Wyllie served on numerous Boards of Directors including the Ensemble Theatre in Houston, the March of Dimes, and the Management Leadership for Tomorrow-Houston, John P. McGovern Museum of Health & Medical Science, the Houston Texans YMCA and the Touchdown Club of Houston.

He and his wife, Natasha, are parents of son James Anthony and daughter Toni Simone. The family resides in Northern Virginia.

Daniel Sampson is entering his fourth season with the Washington Redskins and his third as Assistant Director of Communications in 2013. He is responsible for football publicity efforts, including handling media obligations for coaches and players.

Sampson serves as a department contact on special projects for the coaching and scouting staffs. He also contributes to the strategic branding of the organization, intertwining initiatives to grow the team's influence internationally.

In 2012, Sampson spearheaded media efforts that resulted in five Redskins players earning Pro Bowl selections for the first time since 1996. Among the honorees were first-timers Lorenzo Alexander, Robert Griffin III, Ryan Kerrigan and Trent Williams.

Sampson joined the Redskins after working with the Houston Chronicle as a web content producer for the sports department. Prior to working with the Chronicle, Sampson served as a game day intern for the Houston Texans during the 2008 and 2009 seasons, including working with the staff that earned the 2010 Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA). The award is given to the best media relations department in the National Football League (NFL).

In addition, Sampson completed a summer internship at the National Baseball Hall of Fame (NBHOF) in Cooperstown, N.Y. During the internship, he worked closely with the education department and also served as a NBHOF Correspondent prior to the 2009 Hall of Fame induction of Rickey Henderson, Jim Rice and Joe Gordon. Later that fall, Sampson interned at KTRK-TV, the ABC affiliate in Houston.

Sampson graduated cum laude from Texas Southern University (TSU) in Houston, receiving his bachelor's in journalism in 2010. At TSU, he served as a student assistant to the sports information director. He also worked as a producer for KTSU 90.9 FM, serving as the in-studio host for road football and basketball games.

He is a native of Aurora, Colo., where he attended Gateway High School. He currently resides in Northern Virginia.

Ross Taylor is entering his third NFL season and his third with the Redskins' public relations staff in 2013. Taylor served 18 months as Media Services Assistant before being named Communications Manager in December 2012.

Taylor is responsible for football publicity efforts relating to the editing and design of media materials, including game releases, digital media guides, event releases, game notes, season in reviews, daily transcripts and more. He also serves as a liaison between the organization and members of the media, assists in shaping organizational messaging, and provides statistical research expertise to Head Coach Mike Shanahan and football operations staff. In January, Taylor was part of a select group chosen by the NFL to provide public relations assistance on the league's behalf during the week of the 2013 NFC Championship.

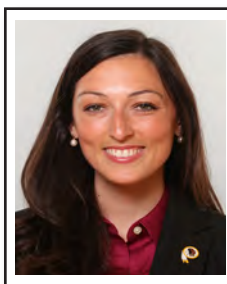

Taylor first joined the Redskins as a public relations intern during the summer of 2010, helping manage publicity efforts during the first offseason following the arrival of Head Coach Mike Shanahan. He joined the team on a full-time basis directly following the conclusion of the NFL lockout in July 2011.

His background includes an internship with The Dallas Morning News in which he served as a staff writer for SportsDay in 2007. Before joining the Redskins, Taylor spent five months interning at the world headquarters of FleishmanHillard International Communications in St. Louis.

Taylor graduated magna cum laude from the esteemed School of Journalism at the University of Missouri in December 2010, earning a Bachelor's of Journalism with an emphasis in convergence journalism in three-and-a-half years. During his time at Mizzou, he completed assignments for a number of media organizations, including KBIA-FM (NPR), the Columbia Missourian, KOMU-TV (NBC), and The Maneater, for which he was the beat writer for the 2008-09 Mizzou men's basketball team that won the 2009 Big 12 Tournament title.

In addition, Taylor served as the play-by-play voice of the Missouri Tigers women's volleyball team for parts of 2009 and all of 2010, culminating in the team's run to the Sweet 16 of the 2010 NCAA Tournament. In his final semester, Taylor and a colleague launched KBIA Sports Extra, which was later integrated into the curriculum by convergence journalism faculty as the genesis of a new Multimedia Sports Reporting course.

Taylor is a native of Coppel, Texas. He currently resides in Northern Virginia.

Angela Alfano is entering her third NFL season and her third with the Redskins' public relations staff in 2013.

Alfano is responsible for sustaining a strong corporate image for the team through positive media coverage beyond the traditional scope of football. She promotes all of the Redskins' community relations and marketing events to finding ways to project the organization, coaches and players in a positive public light. Alfano develops, coordinates and implements strategic communications plans and campaigns, including press releases, media advisories, fact sheets and press kits.

Her other responsibilities include credentialing, press box staff supervision and coverage recaps, in addition to serving as a liaison between the organization and the media.

Alfano previously served as the department's season intern in 2010. She also spent two summers interning for both the Washington Capitals game entertainment department and working stage production for the Washington Kastles. Additionally, Alfano worked for three years in the University of Georgia's nationally recognized sports communication department and served as Brotman-Winter-Fried Communications' public relations and special events intern for a semester.

Alfano received undergraduate degrees in both public relations and political science from the University of Georgia. There, she served as vice president of her sorority, Sigma Kappa, played on the nationally ranked women's club lacrosse team, was an Academic Honor Society member and an Academic Honesty Council Ambassador.

She currently volunteers with the program in her spare time, and in 2013, she received Georgetown's Sports Industry Management Outstanding Alumni Award.

She is an active member of the National Academy of Television Arts and Science Capital Chesapeake Bay Area Board of Governors (the region's local Emmy chapter), Public Relations Society of America, Washington Women in Public Relations and Women in Sports Entertainment.

A native Washingtonian, Alfano currently resides in Northern Virginia.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

2013 MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA PORTAL/MEDIA GUIDE:

The Redskins' Public Relations department has a media website (media.redskins.com) designed to serve the needs of all media members who cover the organization. The site contains the most up-to-date media guide, game releases and notes, stats, rosters, bios, historical information and much more.

You can also access the media website by going to Redskins.com and clicking on "Media Guide" located at the bottom of the News & Events tab.

PRESS INFORMATION

All Redskins press releases and weekly media packets are distributed via email. Please contact the Redskins Public Relations department to be added to the team's email distribution list for all press releases and media advisories.

The Redskins Public Relations department also utilizes two Twitter accounts, @RedskinsPR and @RedskinsMedia. @RedskinsPR is a public account used primarily as a means to update media and fans of milestones and records reached during game play. @RedskinsMedia is a private account that is only accessible upon request for media members who cover the team on a daily basis who need information regarding scheduling changes and other sensitive information. Reporters with access to this account are encouraged to have @RedskinsMedia tweets pushed to their mobile phones to receive the most timely information on changes to media availability. Please contact Ross Taylor of Redskins Public Relations via email to be granted access to the @RedskinsMedia Twitter account.

Media can access the latest league press information from the NFL's media website at www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official website is www.nfl.com.

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom at Redskins Park is located inside the annex building adjacent to the main entrance. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, team information, news releases and other information will be available.

PRACTICE ACCESS

During the regular season, Wednesday-Friday practices will be open to local media who regularly cover the team for designated periods. Upon arrival at Redskins Park, please go to the media workroom where a member of the public relations staff will escort you to practice. To request a Redskins Park Media Credential, email Angela Alfano (alfanoa@redskins.com) at least one (1) day prior to your scheduled visit. Any media member without a Redskins Park Media Credential provided by the Washington Redskins Public Relations department will not be permitted access to the facilities. NO INFORMATION FROM PRACTICE THAT MAY COMPROMISE THE TEAM'S COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE IS ALLOWED TO BE DISTRIBUTED VIA ANY MEDIA PLATFORM. This includes personnel groupings, formations, injury speculation, specific plays and more as judged by Redskins Public Relations.

MIKE SHANAHAN INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Mike Shanahan will conduct a weekly news conference at 3 p.m. ET on Mondays in the team auditorium. He will also be available after practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each game week. One-on-one requests should be sent to Tony Wyllie (wylliet@redskins.com) or Daniel Sampson (sampsond@redskins.com).

COORDINATOR INTERVIEWS

During the regular season, both Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett and Offensive Coordinator Kyle Shanahan will be available at a designated podium session on Thursday of each game week. Coach Haslett's podium session will take place following Thursday's open locker room period and Coach Shanahan's will take place once Thursday's practice concludes. Daniel Sampson (sampsond@redskins.com) serves as the primary media contact for coordinators.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

All requests for assistants must be arranged through the Redskins Public Relations. However, position coaches are available for questions on specific players and the position group only. No position coaches should be contacted directly by telephone (at an office line, at home or by cell phone), or by email. Daniel Sampson (sampsond@redskins.com) serves as the primary media contact for assistant coaches.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

The Redskins' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. The locker room is generally open to the media from 11-11:45 a.m. on Mondays, from 11:15 a.m.-noon on Wednesdays and Thursdays, and for 45 minutes following practice on Fridays. All one-on-one requests should be arranged through the Redskins PR department at least 48 hours in advance. All interviews must be conducted inside the locker room unless additional permission is granted by a Redskins PR staff member. NO B-ROLL OR STILL PHOTOGRAPHY, INCLUDING FOOTAGE OF PLAYERS' LOCKERS, IS ALLOWED INSIDE THE LOCKER ROOM. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged through Redskins PR prior to the day of the scheduled interview. All times are subject to change without prior notice.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

2013 MEDIA INFORMATION — GAME DAY

CREDENTIALS

Only credential requests from accredited working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication will be honored. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Demand for credentials is high, and as such, the size and legitimacy of each media outlet requesting access will be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to the discretion of Redskins Public Relations.

For home games, all requests must be submitted through the team's on-line credentialing system located at www.redskins.com/credentials no later than 5 p.m. ET on Tuesday of that particular game week.

For away games, all requests must be e-mailed to Angela Alfano (alfanoa@redskins.com) and must include attending media members' name, job title, media affiliation and pick-up preference (Redskins Park or Media Will Call). All requests must be submitted 10 days in advance of the requested road game.

GAME DAY

There are a limited number of season-long parking passes at FedExField for media members to purchase. All media members are welcome to park, free of charge, at the Media Parking Lot at the Grey Lot at FedExField.

In addition, television trucks that provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in Lot B1. Media that wish to bring a truck to a Redskins game must contact both Josh Epstein (epsteinj@redskins.com) and Angela Alfano (alfanoa@redskins.com) no later than Monday of that particular game week.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND WILL CALL

The media entrance and Media Will Call are located at the South Field Tunnel by Gate B. All media members that have been confirmed by the Redskins Public Relations department must enter through the media entrance.

The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. For security purposes, the Redskins do not send out game-by-game credentials prior to game day. All media picking up credentials on game day must do so at Media Will Call.

A valid form of government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials. Media Will Call will open 3.5 hours prior to kickoff.

FREQUENCY COORDINATOR

All credentialed media members who will be using a wireless radio frequency device such as a wireless microphone, communications radio, etc. (cell phones excluded) on FedExField property must register their frequency information. To do so, please contact the NFL Game Day Coordinator, Bill Sien, via email at redskinsgdc@yahoo.com or by phone at 730-915-8501 no later than Tuesday of game week.

INTERNET AND PHONE LINES

FedExField features complimentary wireless internet in the press box and photo room. You will be supplied with access information in those areas. Media interested in setting up a game day phone line at FedExField should fill out a request form which can be obtained by emailing Angela Alfano at alfanoa@redskins.com no later than Monday of that particular game week.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers who are credentialed for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized news organizations. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted on the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Members of the media needing to conduct post-game interviews will be given access to the Redskins' and visiting team's interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. No B-Roll, still photography or autographs are allowed in the Redskins locker room. A Redskins PR representative will escort media down to the interview areas with four minutes remaining in the game. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON OR COMING OFF THE FIELD FOLLOWING THE GAME. Following the customary 10-minute cooling off period at the conclusion of the game, the Redskins' and visiting team's locker rooms will be open to the media. Redskins Head Coach Mike Shanahan will be available in the postgame interview room. To get there, take the stairs to the field level and follow the signs to the locker and interview rooms. Following Coach Shanahan, additional players may be brought into the interview room. Press conferences will also be shown on the televisions in the press box as they occur.
